4 KILLED IN CAR CRASHES DUE TO COLD

2 Below Zero Felt In New York

By The Associated Press
Four persons were killed Saturday night in automobile accidents attributed to blinding snow flurries as winter-like weather made a premature appearance along the eastern seaboard.
At Fort Dix, N. J., two men and two women died and an army chauffeur was critically injured as a passenger car and an army beach wagon crashed head-on in swirling snow.
In Philadelphia, Assistant U. S. Attorney General Lemuel B. Schofield was struck by an automobile and suffered a leg fracture during a snow storm.
NO CHANGE IN VALLEY
Although the east is in the grip of prematurely cold weather, no change is predicted in the Valley. Sunday's forecast is partly cloudy. Highest temperature Saturday was 84 in Harlingen, low 59.

Storm Warnings Up
The weather bureau ordered northeast storm warnings hoisted at 11 p. m., EST, from Atlantic City, N. J., southward to the Virginia Capes, and warned of moderate, shifting gales moving rapidly eastward from the southern Appalachian region with increasing intensity.
In New York where the temperature was below freezing, there were light snow flurries but in New Jersey and Pennsylvania the snowfall reached storm proportions. Weather forecasts generally predicted rain or cloudy weather with some increase in temperature in most of the eastern states tomorrow.

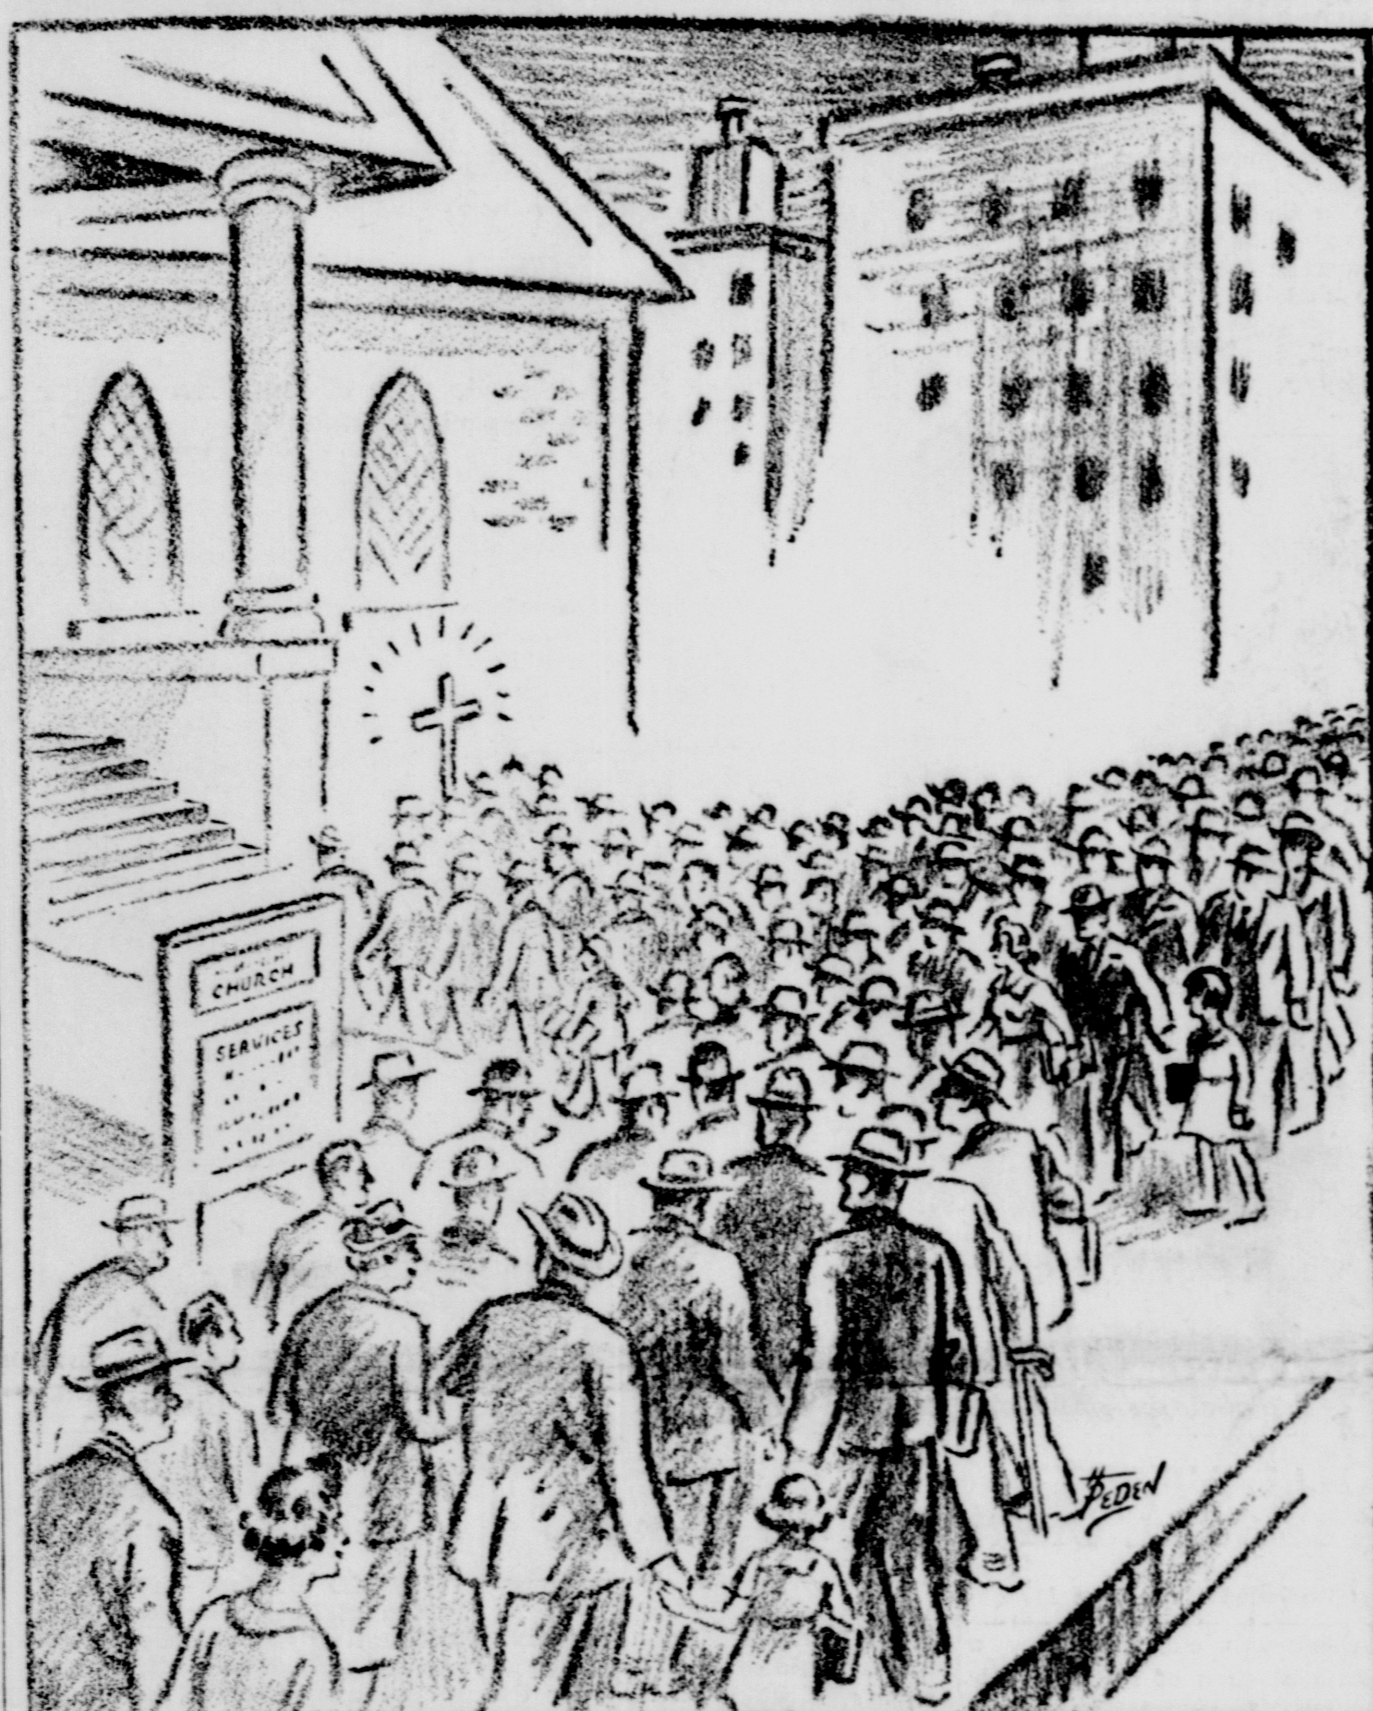

West Still Warm
While below freezing weather was visiting New England, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, summer seemed loathe to leave the west, where abnormally high temperatures were equally remarkable. Californians sweated—it was 101 at Culver City—and Kansans talked about record-breaking temperatures in the high 80s.
Warmer weather was promised the Atlantic states today (Sunday).

GRID LEADERS HOLD PLACES

No Major Upsets Are Seen Saturday

By HERB BARKER
NEW YORK—(AP)—It took a discerning, not to say hypersensitive eye, to discover a legitimate football upset Saturday.
Almost without a break, the nation's college leaders moved smoothly past their third October tests and left the general situation virtually unchanged. Not in years have the results on any full football Saturday program so closely followed form.
Alabama, Rice, Auburn, Duquesne, Iowa, George Washington and Virginia all suffered their initial defeats of 1940 but there wasn't a real upset in the lot unless Virginia's defeat by Virginia Military, 7-0, could be so classified.
Meanwhile, the powerful Ivy League, Cornell and Penn; the two Eastern Catholic college powerhouses, Fordham and Boston College; the midwest Big Four of Notre Dame, Northwestern, Minnesota and Michigan; the Southwest leaders, Texas A. and M., Texas and Southern Methodist; and the Southern pace-setters, Tennessee and Mississippi, all advanced another step along the unbeaten trail.
Tennessee gave new evidence (if any was needed) of its terrific power as it steam-rolled Alabama's good team into submission, 27-12, before 25,000. Little Johnny Butler was the spark plug the Volunteers needed, scoring a touchdown on a 49-yard run after racing 68 yards to set up a play on which he passed for a score.

POPE APPEALS FOR U. S. AID

Generous Donations To Aid 'Peace'
VATICAN CITY—(AP)—Pope Pius XII in an appeal to the United States for generous contributions to war-time foreign missions declared Saturday "the peace of the world also is a missionary aim of the church."
The Pontiff spoke in English during a brief broadcast on the eve of the observance of "Missionary Sunday" by the 118-year-old Catholic Society for the Propagation of the Faith.
In speaking of "the kingdom of God on earth" for which Christians pray, he said "This kingdom of peace... between peoples and nations of the world is based on an equitable adjustment of differences and on that union that comes with right and order."
"At the present hour men are far removed from this peace," the pope continued. "The intimate sense of common values, both in the natural and supernatural order, threatens to be obliterated from many hearts to opposing principles."
"So much more comforting then and inspiring will be your efficacious fidelity to the Catholic missionary spirit."
He called upon Americans to open up their purses liberally to "help rebuild what has been damaged and to reassure those who are discouraged."

Martin Dies Warns US To Adopt Stand On Foreign Agents

CHICAGO—(AP)—Rep. Martin Dies (D-Tex.) declared Saturday night that "if the government doesn't define or adopt a firm and uniform policy putting an end to political activities of representatives of foreign powers in the United States, I propose to make public all the evidence I have on the subject."
"I want a clear definition of policy from the federal government as to what it plans to do about consular representatives of Russia, Germany, Italy, England and other countries engaged in political activities in this country," Dies, chairman of the House committee investigating un-American activities asserted in an interview.

Suez Still Open Even To Shipping Of Dictators

British Boast Complete Control Over All Mediterranean, Tell Of Victories

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt—(AP)—War or no war, the Suez Canal still is open to international shipping, including Germany's and Italy's, the French director of operations said Saturday, but added in effect: "Just let the Axis powers try to get their gun boats near it."
"We are acting with total independence of any suggestions emanating from Vichy," declared Baron Louis De Benoist, general representative of the canal company. "We will continue to afford all possible facilities to ships flying any flag."
The baron was speaking in behalf of the French-dominated operating company. He took into consideration, however, that it is the British fleet, standing guard at both ends, which is exercising real control over the 104.5 mile-long "jugular vein" of the British empire.
His big "if" concerning the chances of Axis shipping reaching

San Antonio Grooms 20 Latin Officers

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—San Antonio's officialdom, civilian and military, welcomed 20 high ranking Latin-American army officials at Randolph Field Saturday, to mark the beginning of the city's second program for visiting Pan-American representatives.
A similar group was entertained here two weeks ago.

Valley Crash Hidalgo Victim Still Is Unconscious

EDINBURG—Filiberto Garza, about 23, is unconscious in the City County Hospital here as the result of an automobile accident in which he apparently was the only person involved.
Garza's auto appeared to have run off the highway and overturned a mile west of Edinburg on Highway No. 107 about 4:15 p. m. Saturday. Garza was thrown out of the car and suffered either a fracture or a concussion.
Walter Lysinger, Hidalgo county highway patrolman and Jack Ross, assistant district attorney, are investigating.

BIG OIL TANK ENDANGERED SECOND TIME

'Definitely Sabotage' Says Fire Chief

HARLINGEN—Fires which Friday and Saturday nights endangered over a million and a quarter gallons of oil stored along the Missouri Pacific right-of-way were deliberately set, in the opinion of Fire Chief Jake Childress.
The fact that there is no grass or other inflammable material near the oil tanks through which a fire could be carelessly started and the fact that the fires occurred on successive nights led Chief Jake Childress, County Officer Collis Thompson and others to the conclusion that a firebug was responsible for the blazes.

Loss Is Slight
Actual losses caused by the fires were negligible compared to the value of the oil in the storage tanks which were endangered by the fire which blazed in borrow pits around the reservoirs.
The Friday night alarm was turned in about 6:30 p. m. and the Saturday night alarm came in at 9:20 p. m. In both instances, firemen found oil afire in a borrow pit surrounding the oil tanks.
The endangered oil, belonging to the Missouri Pacific railroad, was stored in one tank of a million gallons capacity and another of about 273,000 gallons capacity, it was said. The premises are kept clean of grass, weeds and other inflammable materials.
It is believed that the oil in the borrow pits consisted of seepage probably from the 273,000-gallon tank. The oil was three feet deep in the ditch Saturday night and firemen said that this was not as much as they found Friday night. The railroad was reported to be using up the oil in the smaller tank first in order to drain it and look for a possible leak.

Fire Work Difficult
Firemen were hindered in their work by the fact that a portion of the ditch was covered with boards and the board with earth so that they had difficulty in reaching the fire with water. They said that if the fire had continued to blaze that it would have heated the steel storage tanks with the result that they might have become ignited.
A switch engine nearby was brought to the scene with the intention of using live steam on the fire but it was not brought into action.
The fire department is attempting to salvage several hundred dollars worth of rubberized fire hose which became oil soaked. If steam cleaning does not prove successful, several sections of hose, worth a dollar a foot, will have been lost.

Loss Of Vessel Is Reported By British

LONDON—(AP)—The admiralty announced Saturday that "H. M. Auxiliary Patrol Vessel, Girl Mary, Acting Skipper F. B. Plaskitt, R.N.R., had been lost by enemy action. Next of kin of casualties have been informed."

Army Reserve Flier Falls Out Of Plane; Saved By Parachute

KANSAS CITY—(AP)—It was lucky for Capt. Lester G. Orcutt, Des Moines, that he was wearing a parachute Saturday.
Captain Orcutt, Army reserve officer, was flying upside down during a maneuver and his safety belt came unfastened.
The plane crashed in a field while the astounded officer floated earthward.

And Baby Passes, Too

WACO—(AP)—The Rev. and Mrs. Clifford Potts, young couple attending Baylor University, found that 17-month-old Joanne hampered their class schedule until they devised a hipper-diaper mama-to-papa lateral pass formation.
Daddy goes to his 8 o'clock class each morning, leaving Mrs. Potts with the baby. At 8:55 he hurries toward home, meeting his wife with the child in her arms.

Eleanor Silent On Third Term Hopes

She's Used To Politics; Expects Anything

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—Eleanor Roosevelt has "no idea" whether her husband will win re-election to a third term as President.
"As far as the polls go," she said Saturday, "they mean very little to me. They are so often too much one way or the other."
Asked if she should like to live in the White House another four years, she laughed and said:
"When you've been the wife of a politician long enough, you learn not to express anything one way or the other, but just go along and see what happens."

Draft Quotas Are Set

First National Lottery Within Ten Days; Marshall Says Program Moves Swiftly

WASHINGTON—(AP)—National draft headquarters made known Saturday the number of men each state will be expected to contribute to the 800,000 to enter army training by next July 1.
Assignment of the state quotas was the last major step in the draft program before the national lottery which will determine the order in which men will be called. The date for the lottery has not yet been set, but it is expected to be held within the next 10 days.
With the program moving along swiftly, General George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, sent a message to the commanders of the four field armies, saying that "the task now looming before us is the expeditious development of a unified, efficient fighting force of citizen-soldiers."
"No Pampering"
He added that in reaching that objective there must be "no pampering of individuals, no distinctions between men because of their previous military experience or condition of entry into the service."
"In a spirit of mutual respect and cooperation," Marshall wrote, "the army of the United States must now proceed with its high purpose of welding from the elements of the American democracy, a disciplined."

TEXAS TOTAL HITS 808,588

7 More Draft Boards Are Formed

AUSTIN—(AP)—The Texas pool from which the nation may draw military conscripts stood at 808,588 men Saturday.
The state's 254 counties registered that number of men between the ages of 21 and 35, the adjutant general's department announced.
To speed the selective service process in some areas the department also announced organization of seven additional local draft boards—two each in Dallas and Harris counties and one each in Gregg, Jefferson and Nueces counties. Personnel was not named immediately.
Adjutant General J. Watt Page said that draft boards had been instructed to post lists showing the serial numbers of registrants not later than 5 p. m. Monday.

Retirement Fund Is Sought By Teachers

FORT WORTH—(AP)—The executive committee of the Texas State Teachers Association voted here Saturday to renew its educational campaign regarding the teacher retirement program in the hope of obtaining the necessary appropriation by the state at the next session of the legislature.

VALLEY MAY GIVE 492 MEN IN 1ST DRAFT

Voluntary Enlistment May Cut Total

BROWNSVILLE—The Valley will send 492 men into the military services on the first draft call, according to preliminary estimates compiled by army and draft board officials Saturday.
Hidalgo To Lead
Of this total Cameron county will send 185 men, Hidalgo 246, Willey 31 and Starr 30. Voluntary enlistments, expected to be unusually heavy during the next two weeks, may reduce this estimate considerably.
The quota of men to be delivered by all draft boards in Texas was set at 33,000 men Saturday, with 808,000 as the total registrations. On the basis of one man in each 24 being summoned to service, county quotas will be double those stated above.
Expect More Volunteers
The army recruiting office at Fort Brown last week estimated that Cameron county had 80 volunteers to its credit for the past 60 days, and that the probable figure would exceed 120 before the first numbers are drawn at Washington late this month. Allowing an additional 75 men for prior enlistments, brings the quota to 195.
The same proportionate estimates were used in arriving at the quotas for other counties, although exact figures on voluntary enlistments are yet to be made known.

Texas Dem Campaign Is Said 'Clicking'

AUSTIN—(AP)—Asserting the Democratic campaign is "clicking throughout the state," Campaign Director Myron G. Blacklock said Saturday he planned to confer with Speaker Sam Rayburn while the latter is in Texas.
Blacklock, who is Texas' national executive committee man, planned to meet Rayburn in Bonham on Tuesday. Rayburn, recently named speaker of the House of Representatives, is campaign director for the southwest.

Slavs Join Axis

Yugoslavia Signs Pact With Germany

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia—(AP)—Declaring "our collaboration is not only economic but political," Foreign Minister Aleksander Cincar-Markovic Saturday night announced the signing of a new commercial pact for 1940-41 with Germany, despite authoritative reports that Germany is unable to deliver certain manufactures because of bombing damage.
Hailing the pact as evidence of a "political collaboration" which has preserved peace for Yugoslavia, the foreign minister said "this policy should be continued."
While the Reich's latest economic fence mending in the Balkans came at a time when the capitals of Rumania, Bulgaria, Greece and Turkey were active with reports of Axis plans for further penetration of southeastern Europe, authoritative sources disclosed the Reich is meeting difficulties in keeping her barter engagements in the Balkans.

GREECE NEW CENTER OF WAR'S CRISIS

King May Be Asked To Abdicate

By The Associated Press
Incessant waves of German bombers fiercely attacked London last night and early today in what may prove to be the most devastating assault of the war.
Waves of 15 to 20 planes unloaded heavy bombs at five minute intervals. More offices and homes crumbled and just after midnight a direct hit wrecked part of a hospital.
Bombs fell not singly but in big clusters all over the capital. Firemen fought desperately against numerous fires.
Invasion Coast Bombed
The RAF counter-attacked against German positions on the French "invasion coast" and watchers in England saw the pyramiding fire of explosions and anti-aircraft defense across the English Channel.
Greece shaped up as the pivotal battlefield of the diplomatic war in southeast Europe.
Although there was no confirmation of Cairo reports that ultimatum-like Axis demands already have been made in Athens, there were signs they might be soon.
There were said to be demands that King George II of Greece abdicate, Premier-Dictator John Metaxas resign to make way for a pro-Nazi government, Greece break off trade with Britain, cede territory to Italy and Bulgaria and give the Axis rights to air bases.
Demands Are Denied
Existence of such demands was denied in Berlin but in Rome, the usually well-informed Fascist weekly, Relazioni Internazionali, hinted they might be impending. And, for the second time since trouble for the Balkans began brewing, Premier Mussolini started out to inspect his built-for-blitzkrieg army, this time on the Yugoslav frontier.
The German view apparently was that Greece and Turkey, both British-occupied, could be expected to fall into line with Axis plans without extreme pressure. If they

BANKER RAPS FD'S SYSTEM

Valley Group Hears Dallas Financier

BROWNSVILLE—Committees recommending banking legislation to Congress should be composed of bankers and not "bookworms," Ernest Lamb, vice-president of the First National Bank at Dallas, said here Saturday night at the quarterly meeting of the Valley Bankers Association at the El Jardin Hotel.
"American bankers should unite and intercede with the president to obtain appointment of at least one man with practical banking experience on these committees," Lamb said.
"Being a professor at Harvard or Yale is a fine thing, but a theoretical knowledge of banking is not enough. Legislation already recommended by such sources already has hamstringing the banking profession."
Cautions On Credit
Lamb cautioned bankers against over-extending credit during times like the present, when he said banks are flush.
"In these times," he said, "we sometimes become lax when we should be more cautious about extending more credits. Over-extension of credit only brings a bank a hazardous asset."
Should Co-Operate
Banks should co-operate fully with the government defense program, Lamb said, and at the same time should start defending themselves against the attacks of "ignorant critics." The public, he said, hears only of a bank's mistakes and never of its constructive work.
Charles Lee, Harlingen, presided. About 150 attended the dinner program and following dance.

British Prepare To Flee From Bulgaria

SOFIA, Bulgaria—(AP)—The British legation was reported Saturday to have burned its confidential documents in case it is forced to withdraw hastily from this Balkan kingdom and the controlled press predicted failure for a last-minute British diplomatic offensive intended to halt Axis penetration of southeastern Europe.
While British diplomats George Rendel, minister to Bulgaria, and Sir Hugh Knatchbull-Hugessen, ambassador to Turkey, conferred at 11:30 a. m., the newspaper Silvo said the measures decided upon there were bound to be fruitless.

team since Elmer Layden took charge, rolled over Carnegie Tech, 61-0, using 67 players as a crowd of 35,000 looked on. This headlined an intersectional program that otherwise proved nothing except that no section of the country has any monopoly on football talent.

Duke, benefitting by an 80-yard touchdown run by Moffat Storer, defeated Colgate, 19-0, but Columbia's smart Lions paid that one off by defeating Georgia, 19-13, in a thrilling duel which saw sophomore Paul Governali of Columbia assume the starring role. Merle Hapes and Junior Havius led Mississippi to a 14-6 decision over Duquesne as Kentucky buried George Washington, 24-0; Boston College walloped Idaho, 60-0, and Navy stopped Drake, 19-0.

Tulane Downs Rice
The Southwest and Southeastern conferences shared honors as Tulane, finally clicking, bowled over Rice, 15-6, and Southern Methodist tripped Auburn, 20-13, with Preston Johnson leading the victorious Mustangs both offensively and defensively.

A crowd of 63,000 sat in at Columbus as Minnesota's Gophers, paced by Bruce Smith, stopped Ohio State, 13-7, and ruined the Buckeyes' hopes of retaining at least a share in the Western Conference championship. Tommy Harmon and Bob Westfall led Michigan to an easy 28-0 victory over Illinois, averaging last year's spectacular upset, and Northwestern had no great trouble with Wisconsin, winning 27-7 as Bill De Corvo dashed 50 yards for one touchdown and passed for another.

Too Much Power
Texas A. and M. had entirely too much stuff for Texas Christian and won, 21-7, as Texas' Longhorns, also unbeaten and united, knocked off Arkansas, 21-0.

Carl Snively used every man on the Cornell bench as the Big Red's long-range attack swamped Syracuse, 33-6, while Francis Xavier Reagan, Penn's great back, scored 31 points as the Quakers won a high-scoring duel with Princeton, 46-28. A snowstorm failed to halt Len Eshmont and Fordham and the Rams took Pitt over the hurdles, 24-12.

De-emphasized Yale found the winning combination against Dartmouth and won 13-7 as Ted Harrison completed a touchdown pass to John Reid in the last 30 seconds. Army and Harvard played a 6-6 draw while Holy Cross won over New York University, 13-7.

Indiana Finally Wins
Bo McMillin's hard-luck Indiana outfit, after dropping close decisions to Texas and Nebraska, finally got going and dropped Iowa from the unbeaten class, 10-6. Nebraska, Oklahoma and Missouri won Big Six games as expected. Nebraska, the favorite, piled up a 53-2 count on Kansas; Missouri, hailed Iowa State, 30-14, and Oklahoma outpointed Kansas State, 14-0.

Georgia Tech opened its Southeastern Conference season with a decisive 19-0 conquest of Vanderbilt while North Carolina, Southern Conference power, whipped Carolina State, 13-7. Washington and Lee spilled Richmond, 3-0, in another Southern Conference test. Maryland lost to Florida of the Southeastern group, 19-0.

Utah Is Upset
Utah was upset by Utah State, 7-0, in Rocky Mountain Conference play but Denver, beating Wyoming, 41-9, and Colorado, 33-14 victor over Colorado State, moved along toward the title.

Stanford's Indians continued their sensational mop-up Far Western competition. Lone unbeaten, untied team on the West Coast, Clark Shaughnessy's tricky ball-handlers handed Washington State its first defeat, 26-14. Washington favored for the Pacific Coast title, crushed Oregon State, 10-0, as Southern California knocked over Oregon, 30-0, and California tripped U.C.L.A., 9-7, on last quarter field goal.

although snow flurries were forecast for some parts of the New York-New Jersey area.

Down in the cotton country, Meridian, Miss., shivered under a light morning frost. The temperature dropped to 35 at Evergreen in deep south Alabama. Tallahassee, Fla., reported a 38-degree minimum while most of the south was bracketed in the 40's. Farther north, Richmond, Va., had readings of 30 degrees.

Two Below Zero
The coldest "frost pocket" in the east was established at northern New York's state ranger school at Wanakena where the temperature plummeted to two below zero.

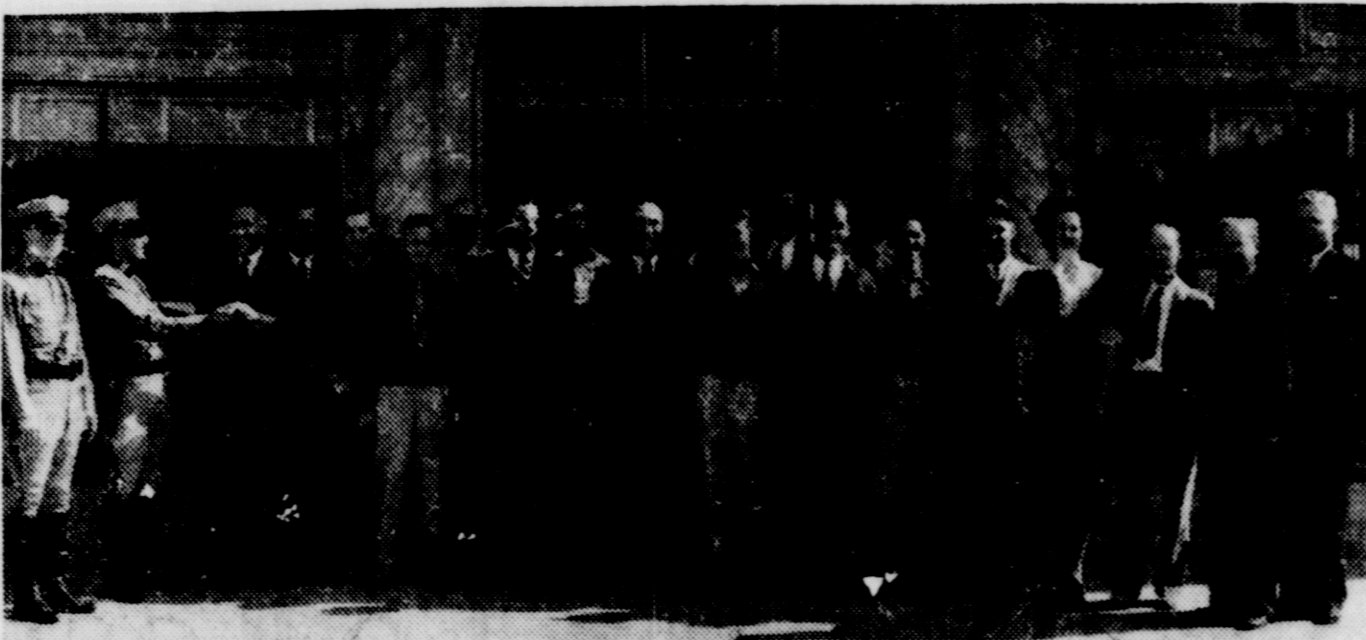

These record lows for Oct. 19 were established: New York City 30; Buffalo 28; Rochester 23; Syracuse 24; Fall River, Mass., 27, and New Haven, Conn., 29.

King Carol Is Said Seeking Passage To United States Soon

SEVILLE, Spain.—(P)—Former King Carol of Rumania, it was learned here, has telephoned several times to Lisbon, Portugal, trying to make arrangements for passage to the United States.

Carol, who abdicated last month, spends most of his time playing cards with Mme. Magda Lupescu, the red-haired friend with whom he fled the Nazi-dominated nation.

Gas Company Men Set Safety Record

Drivers for the Rio Grande Valley Gas Co. at Brownsville, all of whom are members of the Employers' Casualty Company's "Safe Drivers' League", are shown above as they received medals for driving an aggregate of 1,700,000 miles without a single accident. Left to right: State Highway Patrolmen J. O. Musick and W. B. Dixon, who attended the ceremonies; Drivers C. A. Irwin, Floyd Pierce, F. L. Newhouse, C. D. Titus, O. E. Davina, L. F. Bell, George Followill, W. A. Young, Sam Dramisino, E. C. Brown, Ed Hauff, J. M. Liles, R. C. Vollmer, Louis Summers and J. H. Stephens; Miss E. P. Storch, company secretary at Houston; W. H. Meredith, assistant secretary and treasurer; J. C. Jorian, vice president and general manager of the company's Brownsville office; and J. L. Cantrell of Corpus Christi, safety engineer for the Employers Casualty Company, who made the presentations. (Photo by Rogers, Brownsville.)

BROWNSVILLE—Sixty-four times around the earth is a good distance to travel, but employees of the Rio Grande Valley Gas Company here have driven further than that without an automobile accident.

In recognition of this fact, 16 company employees who are members of the Employers Casualty Company's "Safe Drivers' League" were given medals during the past week by J. L. Cantrell of Corpus Christi, safety engineer for Employers Casualty.

Three employees of the company have driven 11 years apiece without an accident. They are C. A. Irwin, C. D. Titus and L. F. Bell. These men received the first diamond safety medals awarded in the Valley, which were also awarded to W. A. Young, who has driven 10 years without an accident; E. C. Brown, 9 years; J. M. Liles and Louis Summers,

5 years; and J. H. Stephens and Guy Pierce, four years.

A gold medal was presented to Floyd Pierce, who has a three-year safety record.

F. L. Newhouse, O. E. Davina, G. W. Followill and Sam Dramisino all received silver medals for two years' driving without an accident, and bronze medals were given to Ed Hauff and R. C. Vollmer for one-year safety records.

State Highway Patrolmen J. O. Musick and W. B. Dixon attended the presentation at the gas company office here, at which time Patrolman Musick made a talk on traffic safety.

"The Rio Grande Valley can well be proud of these drivers, who not only are setting new safety records, but are proving themselves to be among the finest types of citizens," Patrolman Musick said. "They are truly contributing their part toward safety on our streets and highways in the Valley."

Mr. Cantrell complimented the company on its drivers' ultra-safe driving, stating that the awards "mean that their wearers are courteous, careful drivers who guard against the carelessness and recklessness of the other fellow on the highway, and in so doing may have saved a life, perhaps many."

J. C. Jordan, vice president and general manager of the company's local office, and W. H. Meredith, assistant secretary and treasurer, presented Mr. Cantrell to the men.

Total mileage driven by the men without a single accident being charged against them is 1,700,000 miles, or about 64 times around the earth.

McAlLEN BAND GROUP SLATED

Boosters Call Initial Meeting Monday

McAlLEN.—Organization of a booster organization for the McAllen high school band will be initiated at a meeting to be held Monday night at the junior high school auditorium following a concert by the band.

Members of the committee heading the project, Mrs. W. R. Bond, Mrs. L. C. Wurtz and Mrs. Orpha Dougherty, outlined preliminary plans for the boosters club at a meeting the past week. The new unit will be separate from the Band Mothers' club and will be open to all citizens, where they have children in the band or not.

The committee said financial backing was not one of the major aims of the new club.

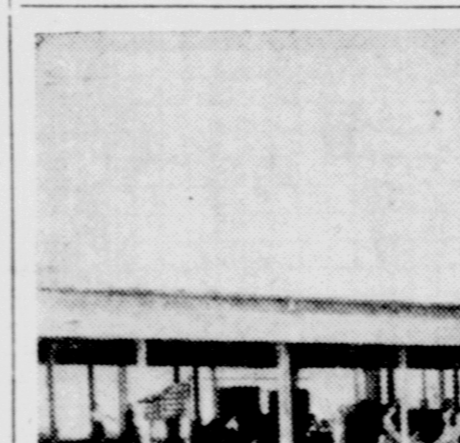

The Monday night concert will start at 8 p. m.

Connally Invited To Give Campaign View

CANAL AT SUEZ IS STILL OPEN

The canal was emphasized by a British tabulation of losses inflicted by the British Mediterranean fleet in 23 weeks of smashing at Italy's seapower.

Twenty-one of Mussolini's reported fleet of 100 submarines, at least 10 of his destroyers and the world's speediest cruiser, the 5,069-ton Bartolomeo Colleoni, have been sent to the bottom since June 11, the British reported. Moreover, they said, seven Italian supply ships and one depot vessel have been destroyed, along with 28 bombing planes.

9 Subs Hit
In addition, nine submarines were listed as probably sunk and the tabulation showed three cruisers and one battleship severely damaged.

The British declared the only reason heavier losses have not been delivered lies in the indisposition of the Italians to risk a battle.

Japs May Get Oil From Dutch Indies

TOKYO.—(P)—The newspaper Asahi reported in a dispatch from Batavia conclusion of an agreement governing oil exports from the Netherlands East Indies to Japan. No details were given.

A Japanese mission has been in Batavia for some time discussing all phases of economic relations between the two countries.

Judge Allred Closes Federal Court

BROWNSVILLE.—Geronimo Ramos and Jose Castillo received 30-day jail sentences Saturday in the federal court here on charges of unlawfully entering the United States and smuggling foreign liquor into the country.

Judge James V. Allred closed the one-day session Saturday afternoon after passing on 33 cases charging violation of the United States immigration regulations.

Hearing on bankruptcy plea of Willacy County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1 was continued until November 18 session of court at Corpus Christi on petition of plaintiff.

Ellis Island Chief Speaker At Meeting Of Valley's Patrol

McAlLEN.—Seventy Valley border patrolmen, immigration and naturalization inspectors met at Casa de Palmas Hotel here Saturday night to hear Edward Zucker, New York City, president of the National Immigration Examiners' Association, speak on recent modifications of immigration laws, need of close surveillance on the border and legislation affecting the personnel of the two services.

Zucker is inspector in charge of the immigration and naturalization service at Ellis Island, New York. He is on a tour of the southern border. He will leave Sunday for Laredo where he will hold a similar meeting.

Mandatory 14-Cent Fee Law Is Mapped By Texas Sheriffs

DALLAS.—(P)—Legislation intended to make mandatory the payment by the state of 14 cents per capita to the district clerks and sheriffs of Texas counties in all criminal cases, the money to be paid directly into the county depositories, was mapped by officials of the Texas District and County Clerks Association here Saturday.

Object of the legislation is to increase the revenue to counties from the state, and enable them to get back on a paying basis. District Clerk Gene Alexander of Tarrant county, chairman of the legislative committee, said.

New Producing Well Flows 9,000 Barrels

seasoned fighting force, capable of defending the nation."

State quotas were announced, for the 800,000 trainees to be called by July 1, and also for the first 400,000 to be called by March 1.

Quotas Are Tentative

They were tentative, and were based on estimates of the number of men who will be classified as fit and available for immediate service, with tentative credits for the number of men each state was estimated to have furnished to the armed services already through voluntary enlistments.

More exact figures will be substituted when it is learned precisely how many fit and available men last Wednesday's registration disclosed in each state, and how many volunteers each state actually has contributed.

Under the regulations, state quotas will be allocated among local draft boards by each state's selective service headquarters.

Nov. 18 Deadline

Secretary Stimson has announced that the army will call the first 300,000 men for training on November 18. Thereafter, as soon as housing, hospital and other facilities are ready, commanders of the army's nine corps areas may requisition troops, within the limits prescribed by the war department, from the governors of the states in each area. At least 21 days' notice must be given for such requisitions.

As far as possible, units of the national guard will be filled out with men from their home states, or at least from their own corps areas. However, officials said some transfers from one corps area to another would be necessary.

Of the 400,000 men to be inducted by March 1, it was disclosed that 364,268 would be whites and 35,734 Negroes.

Same Proportion

These figures do not represent quotas for whites and Negroes, but were based on the army's present facilities for making use of them. The war department already has announced that the proportion of Negroes to be brought into the army will be the same as their proportion to the whole population.

Of the tentative quotas, New York's was the largest, 114,796, and Nevada's the smallest, 624.

DUST BOWL IN LESS DANGER

Southern Plains Are Suffering Most

WACO—(P)—The dust bowl area as a whole is in less danger of severe blowing than for several years, the quarterly report of the Southern Great Plains Agricultural Council said Saturday.

The decline was pronounced, in Arkansas, Oklahoma and Colorado but the acreage in condition to blow increased in Texas and New Mexico because of unfavorable conditions, the report added.

"The center of the dust bowl has swung to the southern part of the southern grain plains this year," the council said. Shifts in rainfall resulted in this movement.

"Feed supplies are not adequate to meet livestock demands in most of the Texas Panhandle, Northeast New Mexico, Western Oklahoma east of the Panhandle and in a small North-Central Kansas area," the report said. "Surplus feed supplies exist in most of Eastern Colorado and Western Kansas."

Brazil borders every country in South America with the exceptions of Chile and Ecuador.

Hollywood's Astrologist Dares Roosevelt Triumph

McALLEN—Franklin D. Roosevelt's election to the much debated "third term" is a certainty, in the opinion of George Dareos, noted Hollywood astrologer for many of moviedom's noted, who is in the Valley for a brief visit. Wendell Willkie will be lucky if he carries "a few states," and "Henry Wallace will be the United States' first dictator within two and one-half years."

Dareos avers it's in the nominees' stars.

Coming a little closer to home, he predicted a great future for the Valley, which is now "where California was 30 years ago," and foretold the time when Corpus Christi would be taking the credit from Houston for the state's largest city.

Comparing Willkie's and McNary's stars, Dareos claims the Republican party picked the wrong horse to carry them to the tape line. Had McNary been seeking the presidency he would have carried the country by storm while no one could have whipped the McNary-Cordell Hull combine, Dareos contends.

The astrologer, who tosses off the names of the country's socially, economically and politically outstanding persons with ease is a voluble talker. Short, rather slightly built with greying hair, he declares he is a theosophist, the reincarnation of a great sociologist of the far distant past, brought back to the world to work out its problems.

He is an "engineer of the heavens" by his own definition.

The turmoil of the world now was nothing unexpected to him. Twenty years ago when still a budding astrologer, he said he told William Randolph Hearst about England's coming helplessness, the rise of a United States of Europe under one leader—(he did not mention whom), labor trouble in the United States of America, war, horror and widespread suffering from which a new world would arise.

Looking ahead 50 years, Dareos forecasts a change of site for the Vatican from Rome to some place in Spain. "Spain will become the seat of the Roman Catholic Empire," he said, "while Italy will be agnostic."

Dareos will leave here Sunday

SAFETY SALLY DANCE SLATED

Benefit At McAllen To Raise Funds

EDINBURG—Members of the Edinburg 20-30 club will sponsor a Halloween dance the night of October 26 to raise funds for maintenance of Safety Sally signs in the Rio Grande Valley.

Scott Toothacker of Edinburg, club member, said the dance will take place at Club Royale, McAllen. Advance tickets are being sold at one dollar, while a charge of $1.10 per couple will be made at the dance. A San Marcos orchestra will provide the music.

All other 20-30 club members of the Valley are invited to attend the event, Toothacker said.

A number of Safety Sally signs have been damaged since they were placed near scores of Valley schools, he explained. In some instances they have been knocked down by motorists, while some have been damaged by being blown down by the wind. On some of the signs, a different type of supporting base will be constructed.

CITRUS MEET SET TUESDAY FOR M'ALLEN

Institute To Conduct Valley Session

DONNA—Public dissection of the condition of the citrus industry and market will mark a meeting of Valley citrus growers at Legion Hall here Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The meeting has been called by the Texas Citriculture Institute, Mrs. J. R. Ragland of the organization committee announced Saturday.

Progress made to date by the institute will be explained and each grower will be given the opportunity to express himself on the progress made, offering his suggestion of remedies.

The aim of the institute is, Mrs. Ragland said, to get growers united in order to stabilize prices and improve all conditions pertaining to the industry. Mrs. Ragland said growers are being urged to hold their fruit to keep the market from being flooded with a subsequent drop in prices.

It is hoped to obtain legislation before the coming legislature in January that will allow the commissioner of agriculture to set a minimum price on fruit on the tree.

Rape Charged

Donna Man Is Held In Alleged Attack

EDINBURG—George Gorman, 47, of Donna, was held in the Hidalgo county jail Saturday on a statutory charge of rape, based on a complaint filed in Justice of the Peace J. Loy Ramsour's court here.

Gorman is alleged to have committed the offense upon a 14-year-old Donna school girl.

The defendant is being held to the grand jury, which may convene next week.

Former Official Is Sued For Damages

EDINBURG—Damages totalling $12,664.75 are asked by Dena Cominos, 18-year-old McAllen school girl, and her father of J. J. (Julio) Guerra, former district clerk of Starr county, in a district court suit filed here Saturday. The claims are based on injuries the child assertedly received September 9 on a McAllen street when Guerra's car struck her bicycle, throwing her to the pavement.

The petition claims she remained in bed three weeks and suffered otherwise from the incident. It asks damages totalling $8,037.50 for Dena, $2,637.25 for her father, Dennis, and $2,000 in exemplary damages.

McAllen Students Start Debate Work

McALLEN—Twelve members of the McAllen high school debate team began work this week on the Interscholastic League question this year. "Resolved, That Texas Should Increase the Natural Resource Tax," C. L. Garrison, debate coach, said the district meet will again be held at Edinburg. McAllen goes directly to the district meet because of its large enrollment.

Tentative plans are being made for the team to participate in debate tournaments at Austin, Yoakum and San Antonio.

It's Time To Transplant Shrubs And Flowers; Concentrate On Tropicals

Pletcher Gives Dope On What And When To Plant

EDITOR'S NOTE: This article serves a dual purpose—it gives timely advice to home owners interested in gardening and landscaping, and it introduces George H. Pletcher, Jr., who will write a column each Sunday on those topics.

HARLINGEN—Now is the time to plant certain flowers and move plants and shrubs. The recent cold spell officially opens the "season" for gardeners, because plants which die of injuries during the hot weather, now may be moved without harm.

That's what George H. Pletcher, Jr., says and he ought to know. You can set out all plants except those which lose their leaves, such as crepe myrtle, althea, and mesquite. It will be better to wait until colder weather in December or January to move them. Even though you mustn't meddle with that type, there are over one hundred others that CAN be moved now.

Transplant These
Bougainvillea, hibiscus, esperanza, acalypha, jasmine and bird of paradise are just a few of the plants that can be successfully set out now. Poinsettias can be set out and they'll grow, but it's too late to set them out and expect them to bloom by Christmas.

And if you're a rose fan, wait until November or January to plant them. That will give them sufficient time to get well "root-bound" before summer. Again we say Pletcher ought to know, because he sells between 20,000 and 25,000 bushes each year. Rose bushes can be pruned now, but don't cut too closely—just trim off the dead wood and old stalks, and be sure to use fertilizer.

Before going on with the lesson, meet young Pletcher, one of the Valley's most successful nurserymen.

Several years ago, his father specialized in citrus orchards and palm growing and had acreage scattered about Harlingen. Just as a hobby, he planted a large rose garden which became so attractive and had so many roses that people got into the habit of heading for Pletcher's to get free bouquets for all purposes. George decided they ought to sell the flowers, but his father disagreed until angered one afternoon when a gentleman came out and actually stripped the rose garden clean to obtain enough flowers for some big occasion. Then Mr. Pletcher told George and his brother Bill to go ahead and sell the things.

First Nursery
The boys printed a sign, and Pletcher's ornamental Nursery was born. The first year they sold quite a few flowers; next year they sold flowers and plants; the following year they plucked, and stocked heavily on bushes, sold them all.

Pletcher's have a record, starting with that first year, probably no other Valley business firm can challenge: They have shown an increase in business EVERY MONTH for ten consecutive years. Sometimes the increase wasn't large, but it was always an increase.

George modestly attributes this remarkable record to two things: First, consistent advertising; and second, the growth of the Valley. When George went off to college, he knew exactly what he wanted to study. For four years, he specialized in landscaping and in the study of plants and soil treatment. Since that time he has continued to study and has experimented stubbornly with new plants in the Valley.

It's A Profession
"Landscaping is a profession," he says. "You have to study it, then continue to work at it."

"The Valley presents peculiar angles in landscaping. We should concentrate on tropical and semi-tropical plants and trees and flowers. Take palms, for example. Tourists like palms, and even though we sometimes get tired of them, let's remember that our tourists, who bring an increasingly large amount of money here each year, must be pleased. Let's plant plenty of palms. There are many types to choose from, and we needn't stick to the old standard types seen so frequently."

He also pointed out that a mistake has been made in planting of palms. "Tall fan palms should not be planted in the front yard, or along the sidewalk," he points out. "Plant smaller ornamental palms in front, and plant your tall palms along the alley, or in the back yard, so your house is properly framed."

This is George H. Pletcher, Jr. showing a coconut sprouting from a seed he brought from Florida. He says they will grow here, but are not practical. At the right is a palm he says is splendid for ornamental purposes here—the cocos plumosus.

He says they have sold over a half million palm trees in South Texas in the last few years. San Antonio, Houston, and Corpus Christi are annual customers, for their palms die of the cold and need replacing.

The palm had started not many years ago during the boom days when land promoters lined their citrus orchards with palms just for the effect it had on prospects. Literally millions of palms were set out during those days, and the idea has spread until now everyone has a palm or two about the place.

The Valley is fortunate in being able to grow so many types of plants, he adds. We can grow evergreens that Florida can't, and we can also grow just about everything Florida can except coconuts and the certain types of palms grown in the Everglades. Things can be grown cheaper here, too.

Experiments On Natives
Bamboo is another plant being used more and more for decorative purposes. He is experimenting now with mazanita (small apple), lantana, cenizo, and many other wild plants and trees he has found in Valley woods. He gets a good strain of parent plant, and develops it. Upstate points are interested in these natives.

To be a good gardener—or nurseryman—you must stick with it. You can't just put out some plants and forget them and expect them to grow well. Nor can you set yourself up as a nurseryman and quit studying. The Pletchers take their work seriously, and as an example Mrs. Pletcher went to the National Florists Convention in Cincinnati this year, George went to the West Coast, and Bill went to the East Coast. Last year Bill went west and George went east. In other words, they're studying the profession and keeping posted on new developments.

"Concentrate on tropical plants," he concluded, and then added a word of praise for Valley Garden Clubs: "Garden Club members are doing a splendid job of beautifying the Valley. They are doing more to make people beauty-conscious than all the florists put together."

CROPS MONEY IS AVAILABLE

Farmers May Apply For Small Loans

HARLINGEN—Emergency crop loans for the production of winter vegetables and other crops are now available to Valley farmers and applications are being received by Eugene Torbett, field supervisor for the emergency crop and feed loan section of the Farm Credit Administration. Torbett's office is in the Harlingen irrigation district office.

These loans will be made, as in the past, only to those farmers whose cash requirements are small and who cannot obtain a loan from any other source, including production credit associations, banks or other private concerns or individuals.

As in former years, the money loaned will be limited to the applicant's necessary cash needs in preparing his land for seeding his 1940 crops. Borrowers who obtain loans for the production of these crops are required to give as security a first lien on the crop financed.

Draft Board Talk

Raymondville Club Hears Member

RAYMONDVILLE—M. J. Glarner, member of the Willacy County Draft Board, spoke at Rotary club luncheon Wednesday on the functions of the board: what had to be done, and how it was to be accomplished. He announced headquarters for the draft board would be in the Lindahl building on West Hidalgo avenue.

Three members were named on the boys' work committee: Frank Williams, Foster Crowell and Willie Elliott.

A committee for repair work on Rotary highway signs included Jack Scott and Johnny Seroto.

Crowds Expected To See Visiting Vessels

BROWNSVILLE—Local officials made preparations Saturday to take care of a crowd of several thousand Valleyites expected here Sunday to see the United States submarine Tautog and the United States destroyer Bainbridge which arrived at Port of Brownsville at 10:30 a.m. Saturday.

A dinner dance and reception were scheduled at Fort Brown Saturday night as entertainment for officers of the two vessels, and enlisted men of the destroyer and sub were to be entertained with a dance at the Rio Grande Yacht Club.

Blay Baseball Sunday
Teams representing the vessels will tangle in a baseball game Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the Port of Brownsville.

The Yacht Club held open house all day Saturday and will follow the same policy Sunday so that the general public may meet the naval men.

A committee headed by Mayor Royce Russell extended Brownsville's welcome to Lt. J. H. Willingham, Jr., commanding officer of the sub, and to Lt. Commander E. P. Greehan, who commands the Bainbridge, upon arrival of the two vessels.

The sub carries a complement of 54 men and five officers. The Bainbridge carries seven officers and 112 enlisted men.

Fiesta Chairman

Mission Citrus Man Heads Festival

MISSION—Vance H. Glasgow, Mission citrus grower, was elected chairman of the executive committee of the Texas Citrus Fiesta at a meeting Thursday night attended by the nine members of the executive committee of the celebration. L. R. Lehman was elected treasurer. A general chairman will probably be selected next week, Mr. Glasgow announced. Chairmen of committees who served to carry on events in the 1940 fiesta and presidents of civic clubs, will be asked to attend a meeting Tuesday night to act in an advisory capacity in mapping plans for the 1941 fete. Dates for the celebration, which will be the eighth annual event, have been set for January 17, 18 and 19.

New Science Club Forms At McAllen

McALLEN—Organization of the Thomas A. Edison Science Club of McAllen high school is in progress. Instructors Charles Cameron and Elmer Rollins announced Saturday. Subdivisions of the club will be devoted to camera, finger-printing, airplane and museum clubs. Any student from 12 to 18 years of age, interested in science is invited to join.

The club will be associated with the American Institute of Science and Engineering Clubs of New York and is affiliated with the Texas Junior Academy of Science, which is affiliated with the Texas Senior Academy of Science.

BUTCHERS OF FRANCE REBEL

Meat Tax Leads To Open Revolt

GENEVA, Switzerland—(P)—Thirty belligerent butchers in the little French mountain town of Belley went to jail Saturday, giving the first definite hint of a civil disobedience campaign which for some time has been reported spreading through France.

Publication of the official version of the Belley battle in censored newspapers throughout southwestern France showed that authorities were acutely conscious of the implications. Belley is in unoccupied France near the Swiss border.

ne butchers, it was reported met Thursday night and decided the Vichy government's new meat tax was the last straw. The next day every butcher shop in Belley was closed.

When police ordered them to reopen, they refused. This morning they all went to jail.

"This is only the beginning," they announced from their cells.

"What you Americans call 'the gag,' no?"

FOREIGN VISITORS in America find it hard to believe scenes like this. They think such things are deliberately arranged to impress them. They cannot believe it happens every day in every state in the Union.

Well, it is something you won't see anywhere in the world except in America. For only in America does the working man enjoy a standard of living that permits so many employees to roll up to their jobs on the wheels of their own automobiles!

What our foreign visitors fail to understand is that in America people go up as prices go down. For we're quick to reflect improved conditions, quick to step up to better living when lowered prices make it possible for us to do so.

Take electric service. Each year America enjoys a rapidly increasing number of the good things electric service buys. This is possible because rates have been reduced to about 50% of what they were ten or twelve years ago.

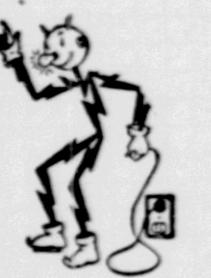

And because, with our modern rates, the dollar buys twice as much electricity as it used to, millions of people can escape from the humdrum drudgery of house work, are free to enjoy more leisure time, can taste to the full the joys of better living.

We of the electric industry have worked hard to free the factory worker from manual labor, and home makers from hard work—to put such things as easy washing, cool ironing, good lighting within the reach of every family.

We pledge ourselves to continue our work of bringing to you the means of better living at lower cost.

Selections will include Bach's religious prelude, Arioso, Schumann's Traumeri, Mozart's Minuet, Tschalkowsky's Chanson Triste. Evening worship will include Rev. E. Douglas Carver's "Challenge to the Men of America."

At morning service Reverend Carver will speak on "Life In a Cemetery." Music will include Schatz's "Legende," Mozart's "Allegretto," anthem, quartette and chorus from the Cantata Calvary; Greg's Festive March. Foster Tebbe will be at the N. A. Davidson, Jr., Memorial Organ console.

Final Scout School Is Set For Willacy

RAYMONDVILLE—The third and last study in the training school on "Elements of Scoutmastership" will be held on Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the courthouse, under direction of Arnold H. Dreyer, Valley scout executive.

Roger Robinson, chairman of advancement of the Willacy county district council also announces a "peanut pushing" contest. The losing patrols will entertain the winners.

Good Will Tour Is Slated To Willamar

RAYMONDVILLE—The chamber of commerce is sponsoring a good will tour and meeting in Willamar at the school on Monday evening, 21st, at 7:30.

The Department of Agriculture will present a picture show on "Pink Boll Worm." Foster Crowell will address the assembly on "Neighbors." Miss Annie Lee Hatchett will sing a group of popular songs accompanied by Miss Marion Shrader.

Fifty Men Enlisted For Defense Guard

SAN BENITO—Captain Harry J. Harris said Saturday that 50 men had enlisted in the San Benito unit of the Texas Defense Guard. The initial registration session was held Thursday night at the American Legion hall. The principal speaker at the meeting was Lieut. Col. Harry M. Carroll. Full strength of the unit will be 74 men and three officers. The officers named by Governor O'Daniel with Captain Harris are First Lieut. W. J. Lockmiller and Second Lieut. R. J. Bohnier.

Two Men Are Fined On Assault Charge

EDCOUCH—Ruben and Rene Flores, accused of assault and battery, drew fines of $5 and costs each before Justice of the Peace W. K. Galbreath of Edcouch. They entered guilty pleas after Assistant District Attorney George Brown appeared in court to prosecute the cases.

A jury in Justice T. J. Fikes' court at Mercedes acquitted Vicente F. Howell on a charge of drunkenness in a public place.

Colorful Rio Grande Valley Show At State Fair Attracts Movie Makers, Photographers

DALLAS — Motion pictures in color were made of the Valley exhibit at the Dallas State Fair last week. The James Co., making pictures for national distribution, drove a truck into the exhibit hall and spent two hours filming the Valley booth.

Mrs. Paul T. Vickers, manager of the booth for the Valley Secretaries Association, was dressed in china poblano costume, and Dallas girls and boys assisting were dressed in colorful costumes and ate Valley grapefruit as the picture was made. Deep blush grapefruit was sliced and filmed.

More than 30 newspapers or commercial photographers took photos of the Valley exhibit, besides hundreds of kodak shots. Three Dallas papers have already run pictures.

Mrs. Vickers was guest speaker at the Denton Kiwanis Club luncheon last Tuesday and served Valley grapefruit juice furnished by South Texas Canners Association members. She described Valley citrus as "showing by actual laboratory test the highest juice and sugar content of any grown in America." She also gave two demonstrations of the superiority of Valley grapefruit at one of Dallas' largest and most fashionable groceries. On display at this store was a box of grapefruit from the Isle of Pines, selling at $6 per box.

From the supply of fruit generously sent by individuals, citrus packers, and chambers of commerce, a prize basket of fruit was awarded at a flower show at the fair. Members of the Texas Press Association were served Valley grapefruit juice, and this was expected to get much publicity for the Valley.

John N. Hager, Weslaco, president of the Valley Secretaries Association, expressed appreciation of the chambers of commerce at Brownsville, Mission, Edinburg, Raymondville, Port Isabel, San Benito, Harlingen, Mercedes, Weslaco, Donna, McAllen, and the Kiwanis Club at Pharr and Civic Luncheon Club at Rio Grande City for the cooperation of the growers, canners and packers.

J. R. Padgett of Weslaco assisted at the Valley's booth one day when the crowds were extra large, and C. E. Kerns, annual winter visitor, the booth, talked so much on the assets of the Valley, he literally had to leave the exhibit hall on "Dallas Day" to let his jaws rest.

State Fair officials will honor the Valley booth with a special program Sunday, final day of the fair. A stage will be built in front of the booth and the Brown Dance Studio of Dallas will present ensembles and specialty numbers. George Newman, concert artist, will be heard, and the official State Fair band will play a 30-minute concert.

Mrs. Vickers will make a five-minute talk on the Valley. Each hour Sunday, 25 grapefruit will be thrown to the crowd and literature on the Valley will be distributed.

Last Thursday, 96 small cans of Valley grapefruit juice were distributed to Confederate Veterans and their wives, who proclaimed the juice the best they had ever tasted.

IBC FLOODWAY BIDS OPENED

Called Monday For Llano Grande

MERCEDES — Bids for the construction and reconstruction of the Mercedes section of the North Floodway from the intersection at Llano Grande Lake to the Baseline Road, will be opened at the International Boundary Commission office at San Benito at 2 p. m. Monday, according to information received by Mercedes Chamber of Commerce officials from J. L. Lytle, chief IBC engineer. The bids will be forwarded to the International Boundary Commission at El Paso for letting of contract.

This project, which is located immediately west of Mercedes, will involve the construction and reconstruction of about 2.9 miles of channel, 10.5 miles of levees, a paved road crossing and a timber bridge. It will necessitate the clearing and grubbing of 1,300 acres of right of way.

McALLEN—Rev. F. H. Hamner, pastor of the McAllen Methodist Church, is expected to return Monday night from San Antonio, where he is attending the annual Methodist conference.

Miss Fristoe Is Named 'Lady Of Mirror' At McAllen High

because they purchased the largest number of annuals in proportion to size of the class. Editor Dorothy Stepp explained. Seniors sold 48 per cent of their class, juniors 33 and sophomores nine per cent.

Seniors are to have their pictures taken Wednesday, the juniors on Thursday and sophomores on Friday. Picture Editor Junior Britton said the annual staff was considering bids from the city's photographers to take the class pictures.

Annuals are still being sold, said Co-Business Manager Johnnie Earl Suttle. I. O. U.'s will be accepted until January 15, when the notes will be due and cash will be accepted until March 1, when the final printing order must go to the publisher.

Richard Wiesehan won the sales contest by selling 42 annuals. George Strohmeier was in second place.

Concert By Cardinal Band To Be Tuesday

HARLINGEN — The Harlingen high school band will be presented in a concert of several numbers at a special called meeting of the Band Boosters club to be held at 7 p. m. Tuesday in the high school auditorium. Phil Murray is director. Wallace P. Broussard, booster president, said that all the parents of children in any of the three school bands as well as faculty members and all others interested in seeing Harlingen get a bigger and better band organization are urged to attend.

Tautog's Second-In-Command Turns Out To Be Nephew Of Pan American Mechanic Stationed At Brownsville

BROWNSVILLE — George D. Jones, Pan American Airways mechanic, went out to the port Saturday afternoon to look over the submarine Tautog.

One of the officers on the deck of the sub looked vaguely familiar to him. He asked a go who the officer was, and was told that it was Lieutenant "Eddie" Carmick, second in command of the under-seas craft.

Jones maneuvered up close and said: "Lieutenant Carmick, do you know who I am?"

"Your face seems familiar," the officer answered, "but I can't place you."

"Well," Jones retorted, "you ought to be able to, because I'm your uncle." And so he was.

They had met last in San Diego in 1932.

BOOSTERS SET TUESDAY MEET

Carl Blasig Speaker At Halliburtons

MERCEDES—More than 100 persons are expected to attend the tri-monthly meeting and dinner of the Rio Grande Valley Boosters club, employees of the Missouri Pacific Railway, at Halliburton's Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

Jimmie Fitzgerald of Mercedes, chief booster, will act as master of ceremonies. G. C. Kenedy of Kingsville, division superintendent; Guy Wilson of Harlingen, division passenger agent; W. G. Choate, manager of the Houston division, and other Missouri Pacific Railway officials have been invited.

Carl A. Blasig, manager of the Mercedes Chamber of Commerce, will be the principal speaker while entertainment will be furnished by Jo Nell Wittenbach, 9-year-old Harlingen accordion player, and by a variety of other talent. The program and entertainment has been arranged by Walter Bunge of Harlingen, assistant chief booster, and by Lee Bourg, secretary of the Booster club.

Among some of the oldest boosters, whose names are also listed among the outstanding pioneers of the Lower Rio Grande Valley, are W. M. Hundley, agent at Harlingen; C. K. Riess, agent at Mercedes; and J. D. Patrick, trainmaster of the Kingsville division.

The boosters organization, which has been in existence for approximately a decade, is one of the important cogs in the business and social life of the railroad in this area.

Californians Show Up Without Coats As Mercury Rises

LOS ANGELES —(P)—Southern Californians showed up for work coatless Saturday as the Weather Bureau indicated a break in a heat wave which has sent temperatures past the 100 degree mark could be expected Sunday.

Friday's 97 in Los Angeles was 21 degrees above the normal October mark and the highest of the year here. The previous high, 96, was registered in April.

Highest reading was 102, reported from nearby San Gabriel.

EDCOUCH — The Community Poultry Show scheduled here next week has been postponed until some time in November. Hoke McKim, vocational agriculture instructor, said Saturday. McKim said exhibition coops could not be secured at this time.

Courts Active

Four Cases Decided At McAllen

McALLEN—Four court cases were heard Saturday morning by McAllen judges.

In city court R. Rusk of Donna pleaded guilty to two violations of the law of the road and had two stubs removed from his driver's license by City Judge C. D. Martin. The fine was $20. City Patrolman Richard Bales filed the complaint. Saturnino Garza was fined $5 on a drunk in a public place charge filed by Patrolman Dan Hawkins.

Two men were remanded to county jail by Justice of the Peace T. W. Kelly for failure to pay their fines. They were Joseph J. Fitzgerald, drunk and disturbing the peace by mooching, $10 and costs ($25.40) and P. G. Warbington, drunk in a public place, $10 and costs ($25.40).

Louisiana Governor Said Seeking Power

NEW ORLEANS—(P)—"Reform" Governor Sam Jones, who smashed the 12-year rule of the Huey P. Long dynasty, was charged Saturday with attempting to set up a dictatorship in Louisiana.

Former Governor Earl K. Long, Huey's brother and Attorney James H. Morrison of Hammond, unsuccessful candidates for governor against Jones in primaries earlier this year, said the chief executive hoped to gain autocratic powers through a constitutional amendment up for vote November 5.

Houston Pastor Opens Brownsville Revival

VALLEY SCOUT DEFENSE PLAN TAKING SHAPE

Roll Call Projects To Be Held Soon

McALLEN—Boy Scouts of America are undertaking a program of wholehearted cooperation with the national defense program, Vance D. Raimond, president of the Lower Rio Grande Valley Boy Scout Council, announced Saturday.

"The council is fully aware of the need for adequate preparedness in the present national emergency," Raimond said. "We take pleasure in joining with the citizenship educational service and other national organizations in sounding a call to all our members and to all our fellow citizens to arouse themselves to vitalize the ideals of American democracy."

Roll Call Planned

All Valley Boy Scout and Cub troops are asked to cooperate with the council in a Valley-wide roll call and troop inventory during the week of Nov. 3 as a sign of the council's cooperation with the national defense program.

N. P. Barton, Jr. of Mercedes was appointed general chairman of the local emergency service program. In each district a special roll call officer will be appointed while every scout has been asked to notify troop members of the roll call date, urging them to attend the troop meeting.

Upon completion of the roll call results troops will be encouraged to develop their membership to the maximum number of 32 boys; leaders found to be eligible for immediate government service will be requested to train a successor so that the scouting program will not suffer from lack of proper leadership. E. H. Moody, Upper Valley scout executive, said.

Mobilization will be held in each community following the roll call. Through this mobilization the efficiency of each troop will be tested in a emergency call.

Emergency Corps

Under the leadership of local scoutmasters and centered about the senior scouting units through the Valley, an emergency service corps is being organized. Outlining the need for an emergency service corps, Barton said, "Since the motto of the Boy Scouts of America is 'Be Prepared,' every scout and scoutmaster must take advantage of each opportunity to better train himself to be of service to his country and his fellow citizens. While we sincerely hope our country will be spared actual participation in war or any actual service by the emergency service corps, we know that no part of America is completely free from unexpected disaster and catastrophe."

All boys eligible for the corps will be trained in special skills such as first aid, first fighting, and life saving in any type of disaster.

The Valley council is also undertaking an extensive training program for scouts so that each troop may have at least one trained leader to more effectively administer the program of scouting during the present emergency.

No Program Change

Arnold H. Dreyer, council scout executive, emphasized that no change is being made in the program of the Boy Scouts while the unit is doing its part toward strengthening democracy. Dreyer cites the constitution and by law of scouting, "In carrying out the purpose of the Boy Scout movement technical military training and drill shall not be included for the reason that they are not equal in value nor as suitable for boys of scout age in training for good citizenship as the program of scout activities."

Denial Of Contracts, Is Pushed By Union

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A renewed drive to compel the denial of defense contracts to firms held by the labor board to be Wagner Act violators was reported undertaken today by the CIO at a national defense commission labor conference. Reliable informants said CIO's steel workers organizing committee, now engaged in a campaign to organize Bethlehem Steel Company's mills and shipyards, criticized the defense commission's labor policy and asked for a "stronger" stand against firms involved in labor board orders.

Base For Clippers Is Hit By Typhoon

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Wake Island, mid-Pacific base of Pan American's clipper ships, was hit late Friday by a 100-mile-an-hour typhoon, the weather bureau here was advised.

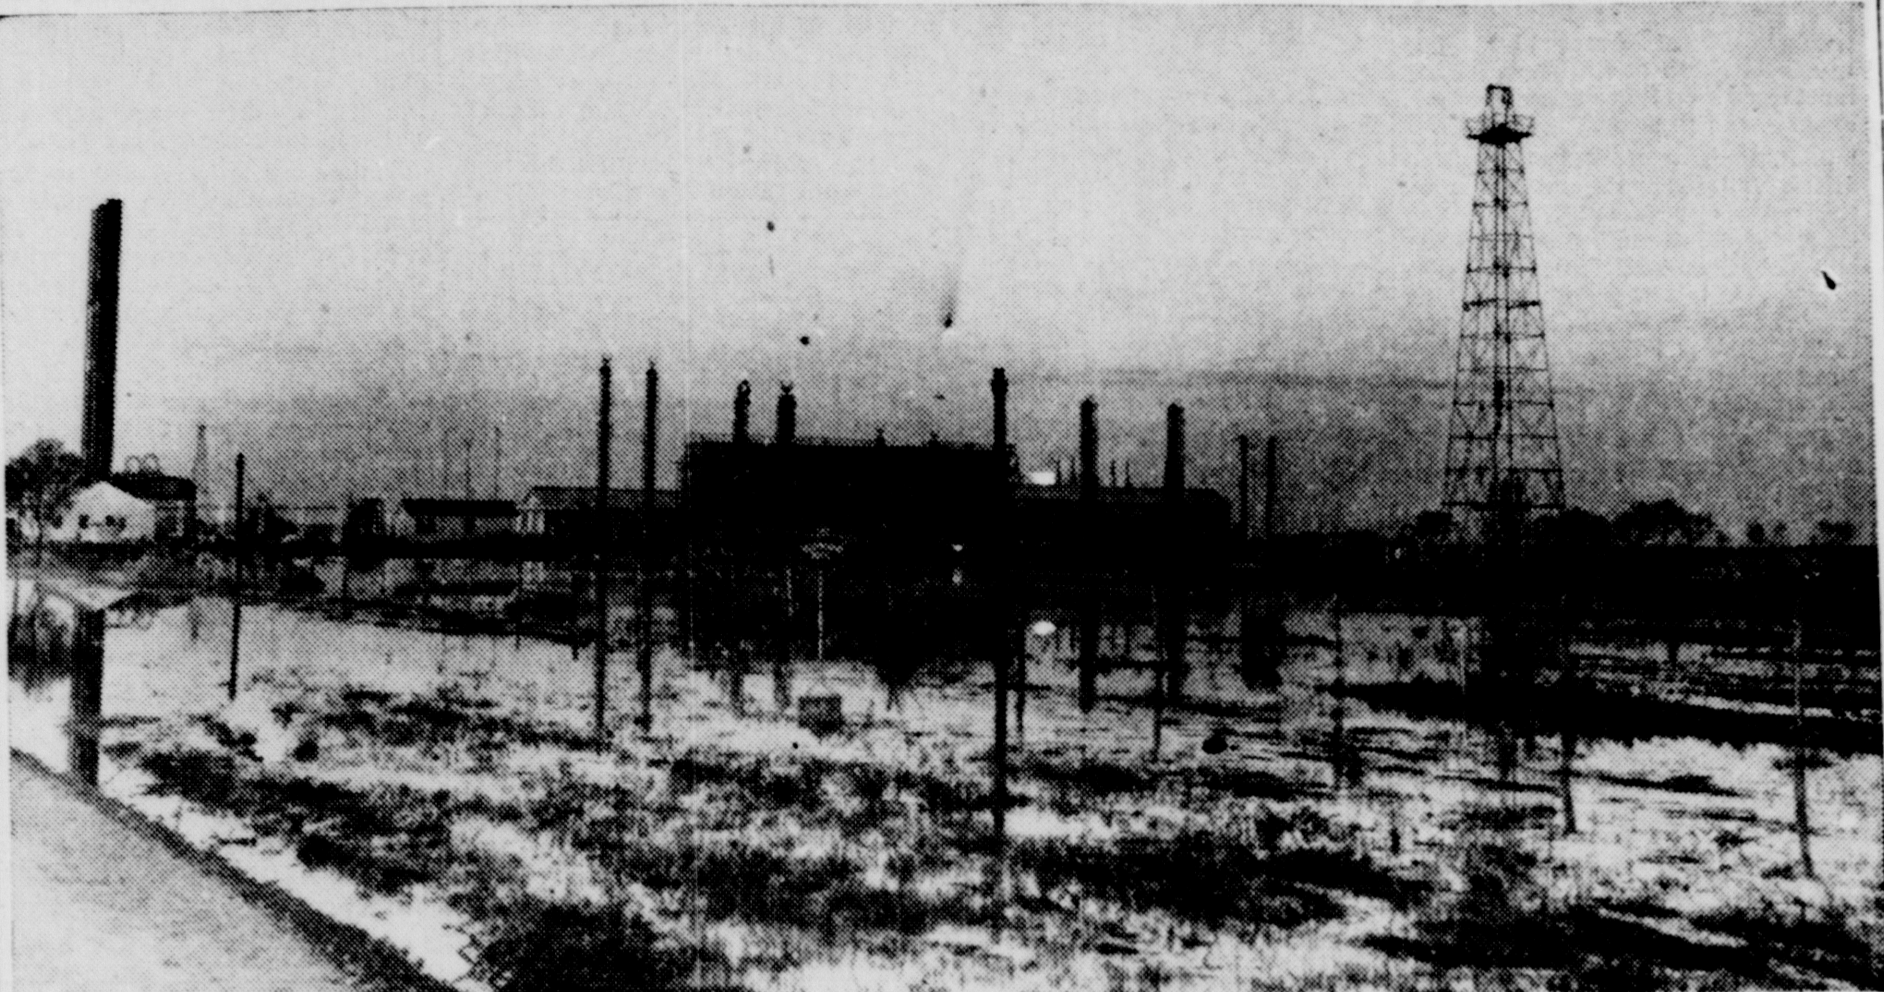

Simultaneously, Pan American officials announced they had had no radio contact between the island and the San Francisco station for more than three hours. They considered it likely that Wake's radio equipment had been damaged. To the best of Pan America's knowledge, none of the clipper ships were in the path of the typhoon.

Distillate, Among South Texas' Greatest Natural Resources, Finally Coming Into Own In This Area

This picture of the W. R. Davis, Inc., recycling plant in the Alice gas field in Jim Wells County gives some indication of the huge size of such a project. At the right is one of the eleven wells which will supply gas-distillate flow for the plant, which separates the gas from the distillate, then forces the gas back into the underground formation from which it came originally. The photo was made about six weeks ago when a water well on the Davis plant grounds ran wild and threatened destruction of portions of the plant. In the foreground is some of the mud and water from the wild well, since controlled. This plant cost about $1,100,000.

McALLEN—One of the South Texas' greatest undeveloped natural resources, distillate, appears to be coming into its own at last.

For the past several years, a considerable number of wildcaters, both majors and independents, have been drilling into high-pressure, gas-distillate formations whose pressure was well-nigh uncontrollable, or which, if controlled, caused their mud pillars to mount sky-high. Then, with everything once more under control, the gas-oil ratio was so high that production of the wells was either denied completely or else limited only to the recovery made possible from the sale of gas. In many cases, discovery of a big gas-distillate field became a "white elephant" of major magnitude, much to the physical and financial disgust of the operator. But the steady South Texas wildcatting campaign yielded more and more distillate and more and more disgust in view of the tremendous cost of processing installations which could strip the distillate or condensate from the gas and then force the gas back into the formation to comply with Texas Railroad Commission regulations against the wastage of natural gas.

"White Gold" Now

But recycling gradually crept into South Texas and now promises to turn several "white elephants" into "white gold." At least, several operators are now ready to bet $500,000 in further long-time investments that distillate can be turned into something more valuable than the previously experienced headaches.

Thus it is that at least six of these highly expensive, highly technical, highly valuable recycling plants are now assured in Jim Wells, Brooks, Duval, Starr and Hidalgo Counties. It is not at all improbable that as many more may be built within the next two years, depending, of course, upon the quality and quantity of the distillate recovery per million cubic feet of gas processed.

About ready to start operations, is the first of this group of plants, starting an entire new industry for Texas' southernmost counties. It is the unit of W. R. Davis, Inc., located about five miles south of Alice, Jim Wells County, on U. S. 281, just completed at a cost approximating $1,100,000. The plant is several weeks late getting started because of a blowout in one of the 11 wells whose production will be handled by the plant. It is located in what is known as the Alice gas field, in which distillate and high gas pressure had disappointed several operators. Came the recycling plant, and Jim Wells County added a brand new industry, probably the largest in the county with the single exception of regular oil development itself. The plant suffered rather heavy damage because of the blowout in a water well on the plant grounds but most of this has been repaired and operations are expected to start soon.

To Start Second

W. R. Davis, Inc. is now preparing to start construction on a second recycling unit in the great Rincon field in eastern Starr County. As in many other wildcats drilled in the Lower Rio Grande Valley area, the first operators found high gas pressure and water-white distillate in deep sands. The first three or four wells drilled in the Rincon area were wrecked, and the operators pulled off in disgust. Then the property was sold to the Davis firm. A steady drilling campaign was begun.

MASS MEETING IS ANNOUNCED

Mercedes To Explain Defense Guard

MERCEDES—A mass meeting of Mercedes citizens has been called by the local post of the American Legion for Tuesday at 7:30 p. m., in front of the Legion building on Texas avenue, to explain details about the Texas Defense Guard, a unit of which has already been organized at Mercedes.

Several Legion speakers will make brief talks. The Mercedes High School Band will give a concert preceding the program.

Seventy Mercedes citizens volunteered for the home defense service, which will take the place of the National Guard when they go into regular training, during a one-day registration held Wednesday in front of the Legion building. More than 50 per cent of the volunteers were past the draft age while a number of them over 60. "However, we are anxious to secure more volunteers from the ranks of the younger men since only a small number will be selected for regular military training anyway," Herman Sugg, post commander, said. "We are going to continue the registration after the mass meeting Tuesday night."

McAllen Pipeline

City Permits Main From Card Well

McALLEN—McAllen city commission Wednesday night approved a revised ordinance giving permission to the Ontario Oil Co., Ltd., of San Antonio, for construction of a pipeline through the city limits but expressly preventing sale of gas, oil or water to consumers within the city limits.

Bert Blair, engineer for the company, said the line would take gas from the R. E. Harding No. 1 Card well here to industrial consumers as far west of the city as the Rado Refining Company's oil refinery. Blair said he knew nothing of Ontario's plans for local industrial development other than the general area to be served by the new line.

E. A. McDaniel, attorney for the McAllen city utilities board, said the city was proceeding with plans for construction of a municipal gas line to serve industrial plants from the Card well. He pointed out that the Ontario ordinance granted nothing but a right-of-way for that company's line, that it did not receive a franchise to do business in the city and that there was no connection between the two projects. The Ontario permit will run for 30 years and the company has the right to transfer the property if it so desires.

Eastern Traffic Man Returns On Vacation

BROWNSVILLE — Robert H. Everett, traffic representative for Eastern Airlines in Mexico City, passed through Brownsville Friday afternoon headed for Houston and New York City on a vacation.

Everett took over the Mexico City office for Eastern about five months ago and this is his first vacation.

Although the tourist travel is off considerably at the present time, Everett said business conditions were fairly good in Mexico. He said he did not anticipate any internal troubles over the presidential election.

PAST TWO YEARS

MISSION—Mission's third fire alarm in 24 months Friday broke an all-time record for no fires in any sizable Valley city.

Fire Chief Ray Landry said his department laid fire hose to extinguish flames for the first time in two years when an early morning alarm brought firemen to Dondlinger's Grocery Store. A fire in the store's small warehouse caused the alarm. Most of the damage caused in Friday's fire resulted from smoke.

Only two fire alarms of any kind have been received by the Mission Fire Department during the two-year period which ended Friday, Chief Landry reported.

New Ambassador To Brazil Named

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Itaro Ishii, new Japanese ambassador to Brazil, said Saturday there was "still time and plenty of means to arrive at a peaceful settlement of the issues between Japan and the United States."

Ishii arrived here on the Asama Maru en route to his new post. He was accompanied by Toyochi Nakamura, Japanese consul general at large who is to tour the consulates of his nation in North and South America.

The men were among the first to arrive here as representatives of the new regime in Japan.

Ishii quoted Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka as saying there would be no war between the United States and Japan, and that the Germany-Italy-Japan alliance was effected to assure continuance of peace between the two countries. He did not amplify the statement.

HOLIDAY SET AT MERCEDES

Thanksgiving To Be Observed Nov. 28

MERCEDES—Mercedes will observe November 28 as the official Thanksgiving Day this year. This decision was reached after the Mercedes Chamber of Commerce conducted a poll of the merchants recently and found an overwhelming sentiment in favor of the traditional date.

One of the principal reasons for choosing November 28, in preference to the date proclaimed by the president, is because the major football games and other events are scheduled for this day and many citizens have made arrangements to attend these events.

Mayor D. L. Heidrick will issue his annual Thanksgiving proclamation for this date. Word has been received from a number of other Valley towns that they are also planning to observe November 28. Harry Cook, manager of the Raymondville Chamber of Commerce, has advised local officials that Raymondville will observe November 28. The same date has been chosen by San Benito, Harlingen, McAllen and Mission.

HIDALGORED CROSS DRIVE BEGINS SOON

Local Chairmen Will Be Selected

PHARR—Appointment of local chairmen for the annual Hidalgo county Red Cross roll call will be completed within the next few days. Rev. W. W. Stewart, recently named county chairman, announced Saturday.

When local chairmen are named, Rev. Stewart will begin a speaking tour before the various county luncheon clubs.

Rev. Stewart was asked by the publicity department of the county organization to speak over the radio and address luncheon clubs as well as manage the actual enlistment of members this year. He will be assisted in county plans by A. M. Tarbutton, Edinburg, general chairman, and Miss Adele Speed, Edinburg, executive secretary.

The Pharr minister has set a goal of 5,000 members for the county this year because of the greatly increased need of Red Cross funds to do war aid work. He suggested that people who heretofore have paid only $1, this year subscribe at least $2 and that persons and firms who each year make much larger subscriptions, try to increase such payments this year to aid the thousands of unfortunates in distress.

Missouri Group Plans McAllen Meeting

McALLEN—The annual Missouri picnic will be held in Archer Park here at 12:30 p.m. Sunday, October 27. Mrs. Marie Grappenhauer, Harlingen, secretary of the Valley Missouri Club, announced Saturday.

"We're asking for filled baskets," Mrs. Grappenhauer said. "Coffee will be served free. A fine program is planned by Mrs. J. W. Brown of McAllen, who is chairman of general arrangement."

R. E. Autrey of Rio Hondo is president of the Missouri organization.

Heroic Ajax Ready For Wars Again

ALEXANDRIA—(P)—Her dead buried and her scars patched, the British cruiser Ajax stood ready with steam up and guns primed Friday night to take up where she left off in last Saturday's victorious—against the Italians and in the Mediterranean.

Against twice a hero in this war—against the Italians and in the River Plate battle, which sent the German pocket battleship Admiral Graf Spee to self-destruction—the 6,365-ton Ajax appeared as good as new when repair crews completed their task Friday.

Fruit And Bulbs Hurlled At Willkie

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—(P)—A tomato, a green pear, and an electric light bulb were thrown near Wendell L. Willkie's automobile Friday night shortly after the republican presidential nominee arrived here for an address.

The tomato fell in a reporter's car parked next to the candidate's at the railroad station while Willkie still was on the train. The other objects were thrown just as Mr. and Mrs. Willkie reached their car, but fell wide of the mark.

Alfred Smith Takes Stump For Willkie

NEW YORK—(P)—Former Gov. Alfred E. Smith who "took a walk" from the Democratic party in 1936 will oppose the New Deal again by speaking in four states for Wendell L. Willkie, republican presidential candidate.

Brooklyn, Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston were placed on the Smith itinerary by the National Committee of Democrats for Willkie.

DRAFT BOARD USES PERMIT

Traffic Into Mexico Is Allowed

EDINBURG—Registrants in the area served by draft board No. 1 of Hidalgo county are being given written permits for travel into Mexico, W. M. Doughty, board member, said Saturday.

Board No. 2 at Pharr, which serves another section of the county, ruled last week that draftees in its section might visit border towns in Mexico provided their stays did not exceed one day at a time.

"We have no official ruling on which to work, so we have made out a typed form which we fill in as a permit for those who wish to leave the country temporarily," said Doughty.

Compilation of a list of serial numbers with names for board No. 1's registrants is being rushed as rapidly as possible, the member said. He does not expect the work to be completed until late next week. No partial lists are being made public.

Frank G. Crow, member of board No. 2 at Pharr, announced that partial lists would be issued at that office as they become available. A total of 2,400 names had been compiled at noon Saturday.

Edcouch Lions Club Selects President

EDCOUCH—W. E. Cooper, local hardware and furniture dealer, was named president of the Edcouch-Lions club at a recent meeting of directors, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of D. E. Hollingsworth, now employed at the First National Bank in Mercedes.

Music program at the weekly meeting was presented by members of the high school band.

Hidalgo Dairymen Will Hear Eudaly

PHARR—Dairy problems will be discussed at a meeting of Hidalgo county dairymen Wednesday at 8 p. m. at the Kiwanis hall here.

E. R. Eudaly, dairy specialist of the Texas A. & M. extension service, with R. G. Burwell, district farm agent, will lead the discussion. W. H. Gardner, assistant county farm agent, who will also participate, announced.

CANADA CHIEF VISITING F. D.

Earl Of Athlone Is Week-End Guest

HYDE PARK, N. Y.—(P)—The chief executives of Canada and the United States chatted Saturday night in the privacy of President Roosevelt's country home.

What passed between the President and the Earl of Athlone, the Dominion's governor general, was their secret. But to persons who accompanied the President here from Washington it appeared improbable they would disregard world events and their impact upon the neighbor nations.

Mr. Roosevelt had termed the Earl's visit a courtesy affair, and White House officials said no important announcements need be expected.

The President arrived from Washington Saturday morning to spend two quiet days before starting next week on campaign trips into Eastern states whose electoral votes might swing the election. He motored to the railway station at nearby Poughkeepsie, where the governor general and his party arrived in two crested private cars attached to a regular train.

Family With Him

The mustached Earl, an uncle of England's King, alighted wearing shaggy tweeds and a white carnation and carrying a cane. His wife, Princess Alice, granddaughter of Queen Victoria, and their daughter, Lady Ma Abel Smith, accompanied him.

George T. Summerlin, State Department protocol officer, had no chance to make formal introductions. Seated in an open White House car, the President put out his hand, smiled, and remarked: "How are you, I'm glad to see you." Once again the Roosevelt home housed members of Britain's ruling family as week-end guests. A year ago last June, King George VI and Queen Elizabeth were there. Sunday, at that occasion, Mr. Roosevelt and his guests will attend morning services at St. James Episcopal church.

Auto Strikes Parked Car On W. Elizabeth

BROWNSVILLE—A car owned by A. O. Reece, Fifth and West Elizabeth, was partly demolished Saturday morning when hit by a car driven by Charles W. Callender, Fort Brown. The damaged car was parked in front of the Reece home. A tire blowout caused the Callender car to crash into it, officers said.

State General Fund Still Deeper In Red

AUSTIN—(P)—The state's general fund was in the red $26,996,228 Saturday, an all-time record.

The deficit was $870,950 larger than that of Oct. 5, the previous record.

It was announced in connection with a treasury call for payment of general fund warrants through Nov. 28, 1939.

Nazis Wed Mexicans; Seek Naturalization

MEXICO CITY—(P)—Several German sailors, crew members of two German ships anchored in the East Coast port of Tampico since outbreak of the European war, have married Mexican girls and petitioned the government for naturalization, it was reported here.

Officials considered the issue a delicate one, since the Nazi government expressly forbids Germans to intermarry with "non-Aryan" races. It was feared a diplomatic incident might result if the requests were granted.

Looking For New Way To Serve Wine?

Nation's Best Bartenders Evolve Two New Creations In Contest On Coast

LOS ANGELES—(P)—Looking for a new way to serve wine? Here are a pair of prize winners concocted by bartenders in a contest marking National Wine Week.

"The Flirt": Use a 6-inch high ball glass, 1 cube of ice, 1 1-2 ounces of Italian vermouth, fill out with sauterne wine, stir well, add oil from a twist of lemon peel. Its creator, A. C. Fitzgerald, says it costs 2 to 3 cents a glass and is an excellent appetite builder.

"Champagne Swizzle": Three-quarters of an ounce of curacao, 1-4 ounce of brandy, place in champagne glass, fill with pink champagne and swizzle with a rose stem. Stand the flower in the hollow stem of the glass and serve.

PIONEER FETE IS CONDUCTED

Mrs. Dewey Honored At Palm City

McALLEN—Early days in McAllen were re-lived here Friday night as Mrs. M. B. Dewey of Loxley, Alabama, one of the first settlers in this community, reminisced with other pioneer residents.

Mrs. Dewey and her daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Randall of Jackson, Miss., were honor guests at an entertainment given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hart, Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Ralph Osborn and Mrs. Helen Cronk were co-hostesses.

The visitors plan to return to their homes Sunday afternoon.

Those attending the Friday night function included Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Osborn, George Osborn, Mrs. E. B. Wilmer of Mercedes, Brewer Wilmer, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rawlins, Mr. and Mrs. F. GUARD HEADS HOLDING JOBS

No Discharges Due Until Probes

WASHINGTON—(P)—H. J. Brees, Eighth Corps area commander at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., telegraphed Representative Johnson (D-Okl.) Friday no National Guard officer would be discharged for physical unfitness until a complete report had been received and reviewed.

The commanding officer said a "liberal policy" and a "granting of waivers" was planned in some cases.

Johnson recently warned the War Department he would seek a congressional investigation of complaints that National Guard officers were being ousted for physical disabilities and younger regular army men were replacing them, unless the department took steps to make its own inquiry.

Just Some Figures

We wonder if a grid fan ever gives a thought to just how much a part of the game of football a player really is. By that we mean how much actual playing time does he put in during a game.

Take the Harlingen-Edinburg game played in Harlingen last Friday night for an example, it being an average one.

The two teams ran 122 plays according to one statistician. Of course it would be very easy for an error to have been made in that figure, but we believe it to be just about correct. Of those 122 plays, Edinburg used 68 and Harlingen 54.

Let's say that the average play is run off in seven seconds. It can easily be seen that a quick thrust into the line will take up very few seconds and a run the whole length of the field would not use up more than 15, less than that with some scat backs in action. If the second figure is correct, the actual playing of the game took up about 13 minutes. And under the new rules, the game was played in 12 minute quarters or 48 minutes actual playing time. And the game Friday night was run off in two hours which is less time than it takes for the average one. In fact two hours and a quarter is about what a game of football usually consumes.

Summed up it might be said that players were in actual contact with each other just 15 minutes out of the two hours used.

Where is all the time lost? Putting the ball in play, running down out-of-bounds balls, getting the players out of pile-ups, explaining penalties, kicking extra points, and many other delays. With each team allowed three time outs in each half, if they use them, and they usually do, 24 minutes is consumed while the players take their rests. In many games they take penalties and use more time out.

As we stated before, these figures might be off a bit but not enough to give you a little odd slant on a football game that you might not have thought of.

And looking at more figures of the Cardinal-Robcat AA conference game, here are some more that might be of interest.

Frank Witherspoon carried the ball 10 times for Harlingen, Jimmy Grant 12 times, Billy Joe Livingston eight times and John Weed seven times. Ramiro Guerra led the Edinburg back carriers with 16 attempts while Noe Goren handled the chore 10 times. Tony Poulos carried eight times and several substitutes had a time or two to their credit. None of these figures include passes or punts.

One cannot think about the game without handing a bouquet to the Edinburg band and pep squad. In fact these organizations caused a lot of conversation of the streets of Harlingen Saturday. Everyone was high in the praise of the colorful pep squad.

For that matter, the Cardinal pep squad and band were colorful outfits and did themselves proud.

Mustang Notes

Jake Fawcett, 220-pound guard from Hillsboro, was perhaps the outstanding Pony lineman against the Pitt Panthers. Fawcett didn't start the game but played brilliant defensive ball. Backs Ray Malouf and Johnnie Clement and Tackle Glyn Beesley have been named co-captains for S.M.U. against Auburn. Harold Fleming, former all-state high school performer from Wichita Falls, withdrew from school at S.M.U. last week to return to work in the oil fields. Ed Meador, junior back from Eldorado, was named vice-president of the Junior Class at S.M.U. this week. Preston Johnston was named treasurer of the same class. Johnnie Clement, pass slinging senior from San Angelo, was elected treasurer of his class. Jimmie Tate, sophomore hurdler from San Antonio, was named president and Joe Bailey Scott, Athens, was selected as vice-president of the sophomore class. Jim Wright, outstanding guard from Sulphur Springs, was elected vice-president of the freshman class. The S.M.U. Colts will open their three-game season with the Lon Morris junior college football team in Jacksonville Oct. 31.

Doug Cox, freshman quarterback from Ballinger, will be out of Frosh scrums for a week or more. Cox injured a knee in a battle with varsity reserves last week-end. Over 25,000 of the approximately 40,000 fans who attended the Pitt-S.M.U. game in Pittsburgh last Saturday remained in the stands for 35 minutes following the game to hear a swing serenaded by the famous Mustang Swing band. In three games to date, the Ponies have performed before an average of 40,000 persons per game. No matter how the game effects the conference race, the Mustangs and the Texas Aggies are already assured a full house for their Nov. 9 meeting in Ownby Stadium in Dallas. The game is a sell-out.

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT
COLLEGE STATION, Tex.—(P)—Mighty, unbeaten Texas A. and M. strangled Texas Christian Saturday, 21-7, and they did it with a forgotten man who rumbled in from an inglorious blocking back position to ground-gaining genius.

Quiet Jim Thomason, little publicized but perhaps the finest blocker and line-backer in Southwest Conference history, shocked the Christians to helplessness with runs and twice scored on the tag end of rather terrific pass plays.

To Big Jim and Marion Pugh, one of the nation's ranking passers, the Aggies owed thanks for their conference splurge that overpowered TCU, but the big red line of seniors threw back the Christians with a gain of only 17 yards on rushing plays.

Never, after a wobbly opening, did the Aggies look back.

Roll Early
On the first play of the second period they started rolling before the throng of 22,000 that packed this little village. Seven minutes later they had shelled the Christians with three touchdowns and added the points.

Three more times they crept deep into dangerous territory, but there was no more scoring. Once Wild Bill Conatser was wide open in the flat zone on the TCU 20 and one of Pugh's passes sailed toward him. But Conatser was blinded by the late afternoon sun and didn't see the ball until it popped his face.

On the ground the Aggies rolled for 135 yards to TCU's 17. By air they traveled 145 to the Christian's 12.

But that 122 yards the Christians gained through the sky included 40 yards worth of funny business that gave them the touchdown. In the third period little Dean Bagley shot a pass over the middle of the line. On the Aggie 40 a cluster of Aggies and Christians started scrambling for its possession. The ball bobbed around in the air for seconds and Ronnie Brumbaugh, reserve end, finally got it. He raced 40 yards for the score and end Phil Roach, who played magnificently, kicked the point.

Thomason Stars

Big John Kimbrough plowed for 44 yards on 14 drives through the TCU line, but Saturday he had to give way to the man Thomason, the man Kimbrough called "the greatest football player in the world" after the game.

Only seven minutes of a shocking second period were needed by the Aggies to blow the Christians out of the stadium.

On the first play of the period, Pugh drifted back from the scrimmage line at the TCU 34 to the 45 and unfurled a perfect pass down on the 13 to sophomore Boots Simmons. He caught the ball and drove across, stumbling, with almost the same motion. Pugh kicked the point.

Charlie Conway blew off tackle for 15 yards after the kickoff, but the Christians lost the ball when Pugh speared a pass on the TCU 31. Jim Sterling picked up eight with a pass and Kimbrough butted to the 19.

Big John started rumbling around right end, suddenly stopped and threw back over his shoulder to Thomason, crouched in the flat. He was free to move on eight more for the second touchdown. Pugh's conversion kick was perfect.

Set up on the TCU 40 after a punt, the Aggies moved swiftly for the third score. Pugh rambled down to the 23 on a sweep, but Kimbrough juggled a bad handoff on a reverse and the Aggies lost 15.

But the Christian joy was short-lived. From the 38 Pugh drilled a 20-yard pass Thomason bagged and escorted on 25 more bruising yards through the TCU secondary for a score. Again Pugh drilled the extra point.

Three other times, on deep reverse plays, Thomason stormed through for 19, eight and five yards. The 198-pounder gained a total of 111 yards for the day.

Once more in the fourth period TCU, simply stunned by the Aggie passing attack, came to life. They recovered a fumble on the Aggie 32 and little Rusty Cowart shoved them down to the 19 on passes to Roach and Nolan Sparks, but Henderson, Aggie end, broke up the matter by tossing Cowart for an 18-yard loss.

THERE'S A KICK ABOUT HIS KICK

Here's Charley Maag of Ohio State University, who kicked the winning field goal in Ohio State's 17-14 victory over Purdue. Now there's an argument about it, based on a charge that he was withdrawn from the game in the second period and re-entered it in the same period, and so was ineligible when he returned in the last quarter to boot that winning goal.

Johnston Paces Mustangs To Win Over Plainsmen

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS—(P)—Preston Johnston, a 190 pound 1-man gridiron circus from the West Texas plains country, kept Southern Methodist University in the ranks of the unbeaten college teams Saturday as he ran and punted the courageous Auburn plainsmen into a 20-13 defeat before a State Fair crowd of 10,000.

Johnston scored two of the Mustang touchdowns, one on a 92-yard run, and it was his fine defensive work in the fading minutes that fielded a desperate driving Auburn.

Johnston ran up 172 yards and set the Plainsmen back time and again with his booming punts and batted a pass out of Teddie Faulk's hands in the end zone to push Auburn back from a possible tie.

Head substitute Bill Yearout put Auburn in the game in the last half with his mighty passing and running and the crowd that swelled in mid-summer weather yelled itself hoarse as Yearout sparked Auburn's final fling for glory as the hands on the big clock showed five minutes to go.

Southern Methodist scored midway of the first period on Johnston's five-yard run around end. A bad pass from center and subsequent fumble by Dick McGowan that Joe Pasqua recovered on the Auburn 13 set up the score. Johnnie Clement passed to E. L. Keeton for 8 and Johnston went over for the center, Pasqua kicked goal.

The Mustangs roared to another touchdown early in the second period. From the S. M. U. 43 Clement flipped a pass to Kelly Simpson and he rambled to the counter. Pasqua missed the goal.

In three minutes SMU had another touchdown, this time on Johnston's glittering run. SMU got the ball on its eight after a long punt by McGowan. Johnston cut through tackle, sliced to his right and outran the Auburn team with a hand being laid on him.

Auburn got going in the third period. Once the Plainsmen drove to the SMU 10 only to lose the ball. Rufus Deal had crashed over from the 14-yard line for a touchdown and it was called back and Auburn penalized five for off-side.

But Auburn pounded back from midfield, principally on a 31-yard pass from Yearout to Jim Samford that carried to the SMU 3. Yearout made one at center then hurried right end for the score. Buddy McMahon kicked the goal.

The final Auburn touchdown came in the fourth period. A 15-yard roughing penalty set the Mustangs back to their 1-yard line and Yearout returned Johnston's punt to the SMU 24. Reynolds made two to a guard and Yearout pitched a pass to Samford for the counter. McGowan missed the goal.

Pennsylvania Is Winner Over Princeton 46 To 28

By BILL BONI
PHILADELPHIA, Penn.—(P)—With a grateful nod toward the University of Pennsylvania's statistics, your correspondent has emerged from a welter of confusion to report Pennsylvania's football team whipped Princeton Saturday, 46 to 28.

Without those statistics your correspondent would have been bogged down hopelessly. Through kind efforts, he can give you the following figures which may present some slight idea of what happened before the startled eyes of some 58,000 spectators in Franklin Field.

No. 1—Francis Xavier Reagan of Philadelphia, scored five of the seven Penn. touchdowns and kicked one extra point for a personal total of 31 points, equalling Walt Scull's all-time Penn record. Reagan also threw a touchdown pass in a play that covered 62 yards, kicked punts that seemed to come out of a cannon, and carried the ball 18 times for a net gain of 200 yards.

No. 2—David W. Allardice, Jr., Indianapolis, threw 31 of Princeton's 40 passes and completed 23 of Princeton's 25 for almost all of the 350 yards the Tigers gained through the air. Three of his pitches went for touchdowns and a total gain of 102 yards, while another that set up one of these scores was good for 62 yards.

No. 3—Penn's running plays, featuring spinners and reserves, rolled for 390 yards. Princeton's running plays, featuring virtually nothing, were thrown for a net loss of 16 yards—but the Tigers got their first touchdown on a 96-yard dash by Bob Jackson 97-second sprinter.

Texas Does Scoring In One Quarter

Crain Under Wraps Most Of Way

By ED L. CAMPBELL
LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—(P)—Too smart in every department for their opponents, the University of Texas, crowded a 21 to 0 Southwestern Conference victory over the University of Arkansas into a single quarter here Saturday afternoon.

Approximately 10,000 fans watched under a sweltering sun while Coach Dana Bible's Longhorns mixed forwards, laterals and an occasionally brilliant running attack to smother the hapless Razorbacks.

Strain Under Wraps

Cowboy Jack Crain scored one of the Longhorns' three touchdowns and placekicked an extra point. But for the most part he was kept under wraps and spent the entire second half of the game on the bench while every member of the Texas squad saw action.

Arkansas threatened twice, once in the first period and again a few seconds before the final whistle when it marched from the Porker 14 to the Texas 14. Here Longhorns intercepted Hamberg's forward on the goal line and ran it out to the Texas 28. Texas had time for one play before the final gun.

A blocked Arkansas punt started Texas on its touchdown flurry in the second quarter. Neal tried to make the kick, Kutner, substitute end, batted it down and Daniels, substitute guard, recovered it on the Arkansas 20. Pete Layden, who copied the hero role usually reserved for Crain, shoved his team up to the one yard line, and then plunged from there for the initial score. Patrick's placement was perfect.

Shifting into high after getting the wind to their backs in the second quarter, the Sooners drove 62 yards. Most of the way by air, and tallied when Louis-Trem-Top-Sharpe snared a 15-yard pass from Jacobs and trotted the remaining five yards to the double stripe with no one touched him.

Jacobs passed 7 yards to Bill Jennings, 6 to Jack Steele and 21 to Tom Rousey, on the way. Johnny Martin, developing into a slashing fullback in his senior year, crashed over from a yard away on Oklahoma's last tally at the end of a sustained drive that started with Jacobs breaking loose from his own 17.

Bears Uncork Late Rally To Whip Villanova 7-0

Jolting Jacobs Leads Sooners To Big Six Win

Kansas State Loses To Oklahoma

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
NORMAN, Okla.—(P)—Striking once by land and once by air, the powerful Sooners of Oklahoma rolled over Kansas State 14 to 0 here Saturday to open their bid for Big Six Conference gridiron glory with a defensive demonstration that thrilled 18,000 fans.

Jolting Jack Jacobs, the Redskin tailback with the slingshot arm, led both the Sooners' scoring drives, heaving a 20-yard touchdown pass in the second period and dancing 40 yards at the start of an 83-yard march in the final quarter.

After a sea-saw first period, in which the Wildcats played the Sooners on even terms, the Kansans never had a chance, seldom getting close to enemy territory. Shifting into high after getting the wind to their backs in the second quarter, the Sooners drove 62 yards. Most of the way by air, and tallied when Louis-Trem-Top-Sharpe snared a 15-yard pass from Jacobs and trotted the remaining five yards to the double stripe with no one touched him.

Pass Backfires

Arkansas held for downs but instead of kicking, Hamberg tried a pass. Thayer intercepted on the Arkansas 14. Two line plays and a short forward punt Texas on the one yard line and Cowboy Crain kept his name in the lights by galloping through a wideopen hole for the final touchdown. Crain completed his chores with a perfect placement for the extra point.

The second half was mainly a series of substitutions with some inconclusive passing and several clipping penalties to enliven an otherwise dreary session.

Arkansas, which in the first quarter got to the Texas 24 and in the final minutes slipped incomplete forwards into the Longhorn end zone played strictly defensive ball the rest of the day. The Porker line looked good for the most part, but offensively the Razorbacks just weren't there.

Oklahoma Aggies Race Over Bears At Stillwater

Break 10-Year Jinx Of Washington

STILLWATER, Okla.—(P)—Oklahoma Aggies staged their greatest offensive uprising in years here Saturday and battered Washington University's Bears 53 to 12 to open their Missouri Valley Conference campaign before 7,000 homecoming fans.

Alumni, sweltering beneath a hot sun, had to refer back to Lynn Waldorf's great teams for comparison of such offensive power. The victory was not only the Cowboys' most decisive over a Missouri Valley foe in years, but it broke a 10-year jinx the Bears have held over the Aggies. Last Aggie victory was in 1930.

Sophomore Jimmy Reynolds jerked the crowd to its feet with a 55-yard gallop of the opening kickoff. Three plays later he slashed off 23 yards and the first touchdown. From then on it was just a good workout for the Pioneers.

Mrs. Zaharias Wins Texas Open

FORT WORTH—(P)—The strength and stamina that made Mrs. George (Babe Didrikson) Zaharias a world famous girl athlete was very evident Saturday as the Los Angeles woman defeated imperturbable Elizabeth Hicks of Pasadena, one up in the Texas Women's Open golf championship finals.

Babe was shanking her irons and missing midge's putts at disconcerting intervals. But she made a half dozen brilliant rallies in the grueling 36 hole match. On that final, dramatic hole, she captured the match with a beautifully executed par four.

Miss Hicks, the 19 year old star with the admirable competitive temperament, looked like the apparent winner on the first nine of the afternoon round, for she cut down Babe with a scientific precision that found the Pasadena girl four up going to the 25th hole.

Minnesota Upsets Ohio State On Wet Field

Bucks Have Tough Break On Bad Pass

Gophers Stage Two Long Drives

By FRITZ HOWELL
COLUMBUS, O.—(AP)—A great Minnesota team wrecked Ohio State's hopes of retaining the Western Conference grid title Saturday. Before 63,199 rain-drenched fans, the Golden Gophers won 13 to 7 after repulsing two Ohio threats near the goal line.

It was Minnesota's third straight win of the year and its first in conference play. The defeat was Ohio's second in four contests, two of the losses being against conference foes.

It was a game replete with "breaks" the most heart-breaking of which came to the Bucks with less than two minutes to go.

Trailing 13 to 7, Ohio dipped deeply into its rattle-dazzle bag to surge from their own 35 to the Gopher one-yard line.

In that 64-yard jaunt were three completed passes, all tossed by quarterback Don Scott. Then came a Scott to Tom Kinkade forward, with a Kinkade to Leslie Horvath lateral tacked on the end, which carried to the Minnesota six.

Scott, who during the final surge had gained on a fourth down running play when he needed five yards—and made six himself—banged to the one yard mark.

Then came the break. Claude White, Ohio center who had played the entire game on the slippery field, came up with his only poor pass of the fray. Langhurst fell on the ball on the 13 but Ohio's chance had flown.

Bruce Smith, Minnesota's 193-pound halfback from Fairbault, Minn., was the game's outstanding star. He counted both Gopher touchdowns, one in the first period from the 10-yard line on a fake pass and one in the second on a three-yard plunge. They climaxed drives of 55 and 69 yards respectively.

Out O' Doors

Expand Restocking Program
AUSTIN—Trapping of deer, turkey and antelope by the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission will be on an even larger scale this year than it was last, when a new all-time high in trapping and restocking was reached in the Lone Star State. In addition, the game department, through the use of federal Pittman-Robertson funds, is preparing to plant quail, muskrats, raccoons and possibly several other kinds of game birds and animals, the executive secretary of the department has announced.

Last year 257 antelope, 420 deer and 551 turkeys were trapped and transplanted on areas upon which the species of game suitable for the various areas once roamed. By the use of new and improved traps, the game department has high hopes of restocking twice as many deer, turkey and antelope areas this year as were replanted last year, when the deer trapping was doubled.

A new single deer trap has been perfected. Twenty-two of them were used for a short time last season trapped nearly 100 deer. The department is now building 100 additional traps and will place them in use as soon as possible. The new trap captures deer without injuring them. Deer are trapped on areas which have become overpopulated. It is the same with antelope and turkey. Many deer and turkey are trapped on state game preserves, areas set aside under agreement with the owner of the land. No hunting of any kind is allowed on the game preserves, of which Texas has 127.

As all net turkey trap built in octagon shape has proved the most successful of several tested during the last few years. The game department will place two and possibly three turkey trapping crews in the field this year. It is believed more than 1,000 deer, as many turkeys and 500 antelope will be trapped during the winter months.

Fisherman Catches Alligator
How'd you like to snag a five-foot alligator with a mere line and hook? That's just what Ward Williams of Dilley, Texas, did recently. An alligator in the Nueces river about 18 miles south of Cotulla, Texas, grabbed Williams' hook, which was baited with a crawdad. Mr. Williams gave the line a quick jerk and hooked the "gator in the lower jaw. He battled the scaled reptile more than a half hour before being able to tow it into shallow water and then up the bank. Williams then tied the line to a tree, cut a club and killed the alligator.

Plant Red Mulberry
After making extensive tests, biologists of the Texas Game Department are recommending that instead of planting black locust, catalpa and other trees in Eastern Texas for the growing of commercial crops as a commercial crop that land-owners plant red mulberry. That tree is just as durable as the others and provides one of the best all-around game foods to be found in that section of the state. The berry of the red mulberry tree is attractive to game and non-game birds, deer, squirrels and raccoons.

Probably the only dictator who is familiar with the Bible as Josef Stalin.

Green Wave Washes Over Rice Institute 15 To 6

By CHARLES NUTTER
NEW ORLEANS.—(AP)—Thrice-beaten Tulane finally found the combination Saturday in a ragged, thrilling exhibition of power, fumbles and penalties to defeat the hitherto unbeaten Rice Owls 15 to 6 before 34,000 spectators.

Rugged James Thibaut, strictly a New Orleans product, put the Green Wave into the lead 9-6 in the final seconds of the second quarter with a slanting 27-yard field goal from placement. Cheered by being ahead for the first time since the Sugar Bowl game last season, Tulane went on to pick up another touchdown in the third.

The game was an almost endless procession of fumbles, costly penalties, and intercepted passes in which both the hard fighting eleven shared almost equally.

Tulane's power combination, for which Coach Red Dawson has been desperately seeking all season, functioned in the final minutes for the first time, and the humble mighty Green Wave of 1939 back on the track for what could yet be a successful season.

A Tulane fumble gave Rice its only touchdown. Lou Thomas dropped the ball and Marvin Dewdney scooped it up on Tulane's 24, from where Joe Price reeled off 14, and Bob Brumley lugged it on across in three tries.

It looked like another dreary hometown afternoon especially after Tulane was unable to power drive the ball over minutes later after bringing it up to Rice's 14.

But Tulane whipped back from a punt and Thibaut completed a 20-yard pass to Albert Bodney to score. Power drives took it to Rice's 9 and a new Rice team took over, but fleet Harry Hays of San Angelo, Texas, running like a jack-rabbit skirted right end for the touchdown.

Tulane held Rice in downs and Red Cassidy punted to B. on Ellis on Rice's 39. T. A. Weems at this point threw away Rice's bright chances with a passing attempt that brought two 15 yard penalties, one

Huskers Swamp Jayhawkers In Record Fashion

Post 53 Points For New Mark

LAWRENCE, Kas.—(AP)—Mighty Nebraska crunched to a 53 to 2 victory over the University of Kansas football team Saturday and with ridiculous ease maintained a record of not having lost on the Jayhawkers' own field in 44 years.

Although Nebraska's ace back, Herman Rohrig, was on the bench with an arm injury, all doubt as to the ultimate victory faded after the first eight minutes. Kansas invaded Nebraska territory but once under its own power and that late in the final period after the Nebraska bench had been swept of substitutes.

Only once did a pass aid the Husker ground machine in the manufacture of a touchdown.

Wayne Blue, a rugged fullback replacement in the Husker line, battered his way to a trio of touchdowns in the rout that signaled the Nebraska's opening bid for the 1940 football title. Other Huskers who scored were Sam Francis, Harry Hopp, Henry Rohm, Ray Petch and Dale Bradley.

Warriors Defeat Rattlers 26-19

MISSION.—The Santa Rosa Warriors, the 1939 Rio Grande Valley six-man football champions, took a stride toward another title by whipping the Sharyland Rattlers 26-19 on the Mission high school field Friday night.

The Rattlers scored their first touchdown early in the opening quarter when Bentesen took a pass that was good for six points. Kennedy scored another later in the same period. Just before the first half ended, Todd took a pass from Snyder and raced across the goal for the first Warrior touchdown.

The Warriors opened up in the third period and posted a total of 22 points to take the lead. Late in the final quarter, Weatherford took a touchdown pass for the Rattlers with several Warrior reserves in the game.

The Warriors gained a total of 295 yards and lost 10. The Rattlers gained 234 and lost five. Santa Rosa picked up eight first downs and Sharyland six.

Between halves both Sharyland and Santa Rosa's pep squads put on beautiful displays of precision marching and letter formations.

Friday's win puts the Warriors back in the running for the title after they had dropped a conference contest to Stuart Place. Los Fresnos is boasting a clean record to date.

The starting lineups:

Santa Rosa Pos. Sharyland
Gregory L.E. Koelle
Kloppf C. Weatherford
Vaught R.E. Tilly
Bender Q.B. Bentesen
Kitchner H.B. Kennedy
Tord F.B. Young

Cornell Continues Power Attack In Syracuse Win

By GAYLE TALBOT

ITHACA, N. Y.—(AP)—Cornell, growing more powerful and deceptive with each passing week, rolled over a fair Syracuse team, 33 to 6, Saturday, defeating everything Coach Carl Snavey could do to hold the score in bounds.

It was an impressive show for the 18,000 who shivered in the first cold day of the season. The nation's No. 1 team, by vote, scored almost at will when it took the notion, mostly on long, spectacular plays.

Four of Cornell's touchdowns were scored on passes, three of them from far out on the grass, while Bill Murphy broke and ran 44 yards for the other.

Hal McCullough's brilliant passing, the deft ball handling of his several receivers, and the desperate running of Mort Landsberg, Cornell's 170-pound fullback, all combined to make the winners attack a thing of fire and beauty.

Eugene Schmidt, substitute Syracuse center, suffered a broken leg in a hard pile-up in the final period. Cornell piled up 226 yards by rushing, with about a dozen backs contributing. The Big Red completed 15 out of 24 passes attempted for another 31 yards, and in all manner of means made 17 first downs to 9 for Syracuse.

The Orange, faced by all this excellence made only one big gesture, when it slugged 68 yards for its touchdown early in the second quarter. Dick Banger finally passed 11 yards to Les Dye for the score.

Down The Sports Trail

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK.—(AP)—The blocky little guy with the George Washington cheekbones and the crescent-moon grin is gone from the major league show, and there doesn't seem to be anyone in sight to replace him, for Pepper Martins bob up about as often as 17-year locusts.

There are players with a goodly number of players who have some of the characteristics. There are better ball players. After all, Pepper was just a good journeyman ball player.

There are players with a goodly share of his color and, if offstage comments and misbehavior can be cited under color, some of them have more.

But offhand we can't name a player of recent years who combined color and, above all, fighting spirit, in such an entrancing mixture. He never intended to be anybody but himself, John Leonard Martin, a rough, tough, impish heman as wholesome as the soil of his native Oklahoma; a man with a minimum of inhibitions but without an ounce of malice or meanness.

No matter how often you saw him, he always was the same, and memories blend into a composite picture any part of which is a true sample of the whole.

The picture would include the Wild Hoss sliding into third head first with that pancake landing of his, a cloud of dust in his wake like smoke from the funnel of the Robert E. Lee. . . his playing of third base with the gusto of a stevedore at lunch hour as ground balls bounced off various parts of his anatomy like hail off a tin roof. . . his bare, hairy arms and stubble of beard. . . the day when he sat, dancing-eyed and twitching, in the dugout at Brooklyn while Larry MacPhail roved up and down in wild rage in front of the Cardinal bench challenging one and all, the Wild Hoss controlling himself with effort. . . his mimicry and deflation of ostentation. . . his cornerstoning of impromptu quartets.

Those, and a thousand other little pictures make up the whole. A guy who wasn't afraid to be himself, whether on the ball field or in a swank dining room. If Pepper didn't want to wear a necktie, Pepper didn't wear a necktie. If Pepper didn't want to shave, Pepper didn't shave.

Sacramento is getting a man who will give them everything he's got, a man who can't miss in pleasing the fans who like their baseball raw, with no quarter given or asked. And there are still a few base hits left in those cordy arms and a few stolen bases left in the knobby legs if occasion demands.

Meanwhile, there's a big gap that won't be filled until the 17-year locusts come around again.

Tennessee Vols Win Over Tide

By ROMNEY WHEELER

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—(AP)—Dust off a shelf in football's Hall of Fame, for little Johnny Butler, understudy to Tennessee's great tailback Bob Fox, who sparked the Volunteers to a 27-12 victory over a fighting Alabama team Saturday.

The black-haired mite, weighing barely 160 pounds soaking wet, slashed off right tackle early in the second period and raced 68 yards up Legion Field's east sideline to Alabama's 11. Then he faded back and shot a flat pass to end Al Hust for the tally. Fred Newman, substitute wingback, kicked the point.

Barely a dozen plays later Butler snatched an Alabama punt on Bama's 49 and raced under a convey of blockers to score standing up. Newman again converted.

Rice Owls Meet Texas Longhorns On Houston Grid

Neely's Crew Have Been Surprise

FORT WORTH.—(AP)—The Eyes of Texas will indeed be upon the gridiron meeting of the Rice Owls and the University of Texas Longhorns in Houston next Saturday.

The Owls, pre-season pick for a near cellar finish, have surprised not only Texas but the nation with the strong showing under a new coach, Jess C. Neely.

The Longhorns, recognized as having great possibilities, have nevertheless displayed a drive considerably beyond the expectations of those whose business it is to figure gridiron possibilities.

When these two touchdown-making machines clash in the Bayou City Saturday the clatter will be heard up and down the land.

The other conference contest of the week pits the Texas Aggies against the Baylor Bears in Waco, Okla. The Bears, with Jack Wilson, were figured to be about as good as the Aggies. Without Wilson, the Bears can't be figured to take Kimbrough and his gang of senior grid experts.

However, A. and M. usually has plenty of trouble with Baylor in Waco. The Waco jinx has thrown the Farmers for a loss more than once and they won't be able to take anything for granted.

The Arkansas Razorbacks meet Ole Miss on a neutral field in Memphis, Tenn. The Horned Frogs of Texas Christian University to Tulsa, Okla., for a go at the Golden Hurricane of the University of Tulsa.

Neither contest will create too much excitement in conference circles, in view of the two family brawls which have a direct bearing upon the final disposition of the Southwest flag.

Coach Dutch Meyer has won from Tulsa each year since he took over in 1934 and head coach at T. C. U. Doepsters generally give his 1940 eleven the nod to continue this string of victories.

Texas Wesleyan Defeats Bisons
FORT WORTH.—(AP)—Texas Wesleyan's Rams combined aerial trickery with a strong ground game here Saturday to rack up their fourth football victory in five 1940 starts. The Wesleyans scored twice in the last 20 minutes of play to outlast the big Oklahoma Baptist University Bisons 20-15.

The Wesleyans drove 64 yards for a touchdown early in the first. Johnny Hunter passing to Harold Coon for the last ten paces. Hunter added the point from placement. A few minutes later in the same period a bad pass cost TWC a safety when two Bisons smothered Hunter behind his own goal line.

J. C. Meeks ran 38 yards for OBU's first score midway through the second and Chaddick added the point to give the Bisons a 9-7 margin at half time.

Coach Dutch Meyer has won from Tulsa each year since he took over in 1934 and head coach at T. C. U. Doepsters generally give his 1940 eleven the nod to continue this string of victories.

Greece, Turkey Told 'It's Just Too Bad' Unless They Join Axis

NO PRESSURE IS INDICATED BY GERMANY

Rome Still Hints At Ultimatum

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
BERLIN—(P)—An authorized Nazi commentator declared Saturday that if Greece and Turkey don't see that their bread is buttered on the side of the Axis, it is just too bad for them.

He added, however, that Germany does not need to get excited or exert pressure on these British-protected nations.

Ultimatum Denied
In the Wilhelmstrasse, reports that Germany and Italy had made territorial and other demands upon Greece were denied categorically. (The often-authoritative Fascist weekly, Relazioni Internazionali, indicated in Rome, however, that such demands might be impending. The weekly said Italian influence in the Balkans and Mediterranean hereafter would be unrestrained.)

"Why should we put any country under pressure?" the German commentator countered to the inquiries of foreign correspondents. "It is already evident, with the inexorable of a natural law, that the new order in Europe will be determined by Germany and Italy. Whoever sees that and arranges his nation's affairs accordingly can lead a sovereign existence in peace and quiet once this war is over."

Then he warned:
"But nobody who remains aloof from throwing in his cause with the Axis need be surprised if he finds, afterwards, that he has missed the boat."

Expects Greece Change
The commentator expressed belief that the Greeks—"a clever, wise people"—realize "what a transformation Europe is undergoing."
As for Turkey, non-belligerent ally of Britain, he said: "There is no indication of any kind that Turkey intends to play a role similar to Poland's."

First Band

El Jardin School Has 30-Piece Group

BROWNSVILLE—First band in the history of the institution is being organized at El Jardin school under direction of Miss Mildred Keeling, graduate of Southwest State Teachers College at San Marcos.

Lloyd Reitz, former leader of the state champion band of Weslaco, aided in giving an aptitude test. The band is open only to those students who passed the aptitude test.

The 30 band members will be furnished with music books by the school at the State Department of Education. The student has no other expense save that of the instrument. Instruments in the band are: Clarinet, base horn, trombone, flute, saxophone, cornet, drums and trumpet.

Two rhythm bands are also being organized in the primary grades. The rhythm bands have a total of 83 members. Miss Mildred Keeling is director and Miss Ruth Voigt is accompanist.

Radio Tells World Wake Island Group Safe After Storm

HONOLULU—(P)—Radio signals hummed from Wake Island again Saturday to tell the world that all members of Pan American Airways' little colony there were safe after a terrific storm.

The message which dispelled the growing concern felt for the inhabitants of the little island was relayed from Midway Island to the Pan American station here. Wake Island's last direct report before communication was disrupted Friday said the radio station had been partially wrecked by the storm.

Expert Rifle Shots Enter Texas Shoot

GLADEWATER—(P)—More than 50 of the Southwest's expert rifle shots will enter the East Texas Pistol and Rifle Club's first annual National Rifle Association small bore shoot at the club range five miles east of Kilgore, Sunday. H. P. Prince of Gladewater, match chairman, announced.
Entries have been received from Shreveport and Monroe, La., Tulsa, McAlester and Chickasha, Okla.; Deerfield, Kan.; San Antonio, Houston, Galveston, Austin, Quanah, Plainview, Fort Worth and Dallas, Texas, he said.

Interpreting The War News

Will Russia Fight?

Situation Termed 'Powder Keg' Where Anything Can Happen In Balkans

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
German and Russian army troops face each other in the Danube Delta in Rumania under conditions that could strike a war spark in the Balkans at any moment. Anything can happen there, and well may, despite any Berlin and Moscow policy making.

The Nazi and Red armies are traditional foes. The dubious Hitler-Stalin friendship was based on pure expediency. No still-existent mutual interest supports it. It does not rest, as does the Berlin-Rome Axis, on the same have-not economic yearnings and the will to satisfy them by force.

Russia is not a have-not nation. She has greater resources in manpower and raw materials than any nation but China. What she lacks is warm water ports for year-round commerce with the world.

That is precisely what she has not achieved by siding with Germany for 13 months. Her costly victory over Finland, swallowing of a trio of little Baltic neighbors, sharing in Polish partition spoils and wresting of Bessarabia back from Rumania are empty gains without assured western and Near Eastern trade outlets.

Exploitation Expected
Nazi economic exploitation of Russia to augment income from German industry and technical skill is on the cards, and the Red army knows it.

And the Red army in the west is as steeped in the doctrine that Germany is Russia's arch foe as is the army in Siberia in the thesis that it was created to deal with Japan.

Army hotbeds on either side in Rumania could precipitate incidents which all the political agility of Hitler and Stalin could not still.

When Russian forces entered Poland in September, 1939, neutral on-lookers inquired of the first Red army tank group commander they encountered who the Russians had come to fight.

"The Germans," was his reply. "He was wrong then. He might not be wrong now about the situation in Rumania. Certainly, he spoke for Red army thought, if not for Moscow policy, a year ago."

CITRUS TALKS SET TUESDAY

Central Valley Meet Held At Donna

DONNA—Citrus growers of the Donna and Alamo communities will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the American Legion hall for discussion of the problems confronting the industry, according to announcement Saturday of Mrs. James Ragland, Rio Grande Valley Citrus Institute chairman. This is the fourth of a series of meetings being held in the different citrus-producing sections of the Valley in an effort to assist growers in securing better returns for their fruit.

Former meetings have seen heated discussions regarding a fixed price law which it is hoped to have before the legislature when it convenes January 2. The 7,000-pouf load limit law will come up for discussion. Necessity for more uniform quotations to the market is another subject that will be covered, as well as round table discussion of other major problems of the citrus industry.

"Anyone interested in securing the best possible price for his product should attend this meeting and assist in working out some plan whereby the citrus grower can survive," Mrs. Sanders said. "We want to urge the grower to stop flooding the market with green fruit, at this time, and by so doing ruin his chance for securing even production cost," she concluded.

Scores Turned In Golfers Are Ready For Rex Beach Meet

BROWNSVILLE—Approximately 30 Valley golfers have turned in scores at the Brownsville Country club in the past two days for handicapping in the annual Rex Beach tournament to be held here in late November.

Deadline for turning in cards to receive handicap ratings is November 15.
Opening date of the tournament has not been set.

Trash Blaze Causes $3000 School Fire

JACKSONVILLE, Tex.—(P)—Fire destroyed the Coves Springs school building and its contents Saturday, causing a loss estimated at $3,000, partly covered by insurance. The fire apparently started from a pile of burning trash on the campus.

Boy Scouts Of America Considering Forming Of Experimental Air Scouts Troops Dovetailed Into CAA Training

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—(P)—The Boy Scouts of America, which some two decades ago expanded its program to include training of youngsters in sea-craft, Saturday was reported considering branching into air training for its older members.

Jean H. DuBuque, of the Civil Aeronautics Authority, told the National Association of State Aviation Officials convention Friday that two experimental troops of Air Scouts between 15 and 18 years of age may be formed soon. They would have a distinctive uniform, DuBuque added.

He said the CAA and state aeronautics boards would cooperate with the national Boy Scout organization in developing a program of aviation training that he indicated might dovetail into the federal civil pilot training program.

Petroleum Stores Show Net Decrease During Past Week

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Bureau of Mines reported Saturday stocks of domestic and foreign crude petroleum at the close of the week ended Oct. 12 totaled 261,511,000 barrels, a net decrease of 1,040,000 barrels compared with the previous week. Stocks of domestic oil decreased 865,000 barrels for the week and foreign crude decreased 175,000 barrels.

Daily average production for the week was 3,642,000 barrels, an increase of 153,000 barrels compared with the previous week's level. Runs to stills averaged 3,555,000 barrels daily, the same as the preceding week. Daily average imports were 114,000 barrels, a decrease of 28,000 barrels during the week.

Making Of Autos For Civilian Use Ceases In Britain

LONDON—(P)—The manufacture of automobiles for civilian use in Britain has ceased, the Ministry of Transport announced, with a total of only 400 new cars, half of them of foreign make, on hand for sale.

Before the war, about 275,000 new cars were registered annually.

The ministry said plenty of used cars are available for public use.

Seventy thousand acres of sorghum cover crops and 10,000 acres of grass were planted in the southwestern dust bowl this year by the Soil Conservation Service.

Mrs. Leland Parsons probably will find herself in an ocean of color when the gladioli, planted in the garden about her new home, start to flower. Last year she planted a hundred bulbs and has replanted those bulbs and added as many more this season. She was snapped with her dog by the cameraman in a corner of the bed where fledgling gladioli are already showing spikes of bloom. Although interested in gladioli, Mrs. Parsons admits bougainvilleas are her favorite flowers and expects to create some of the most attractive centers in her garden with the showy flowers when the now thriving shrubs reach maturity. Donna Rites Distinctive For Autumnal Setting Of Particular Beauty

DONNA—An autumn wedding of particular beauty which claimed interest throughout the Valley took place Saturday morning at ten o'clock when Miss Margaret Milton Boyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Boyce, became the bride of William McDonald Hunt, Jr., of Houston, son of William D. Hunt of Palestine.

The impressive single ring ceremony was read by the Rev. C. E. Wheat, pastor.

Front spaces of the church were decorated to express the autumn theme that has been favored for the many pre-nuptial festivities that have honored the bride.

Three huge fan-shaped shields of acalypha leaves formed a background resembling a Gothic window. Accented against the screen were tall tithonia and Aztec daisies before a lower border of harmony marigolds fringed with yellow lupin. The pews reserved for the families were marked with harmony marigolds clustered against shields of acalypha leaves. A similar bouquet was placed on the piano.

As the guests were assembling piano music, played by Miss Doris Bolls of Edinburg, sounded softly. She accompanied Mrs. Eldon Sergeant who sang Because by D'Hardelot and At Dawning by Cadman, and played the traditional Bridal Chorus from Wagner's Lohengrin for processional.

Miss Oneita Hollis of Houston was the first of the bride's attendants to enter the church. Her tailored frock, simply made with flaring skirt and elbow length sleeves of caramel sheer wool, completed by an off the face hat of darker brown matching her slippers and gloves, was relieved by a muff of golden chrysanthemums from which depended long streamers of broad golden ribbon catching single blossoms.

Miss Louise Boyce, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a costume of sheer old gold wool, made simply with puffed elbow sleeves, bouffant skirt, and rosette trimming. Her off the face brown hat, gloves, and slippers caught the darkest tones in her muff of bronze chrysanthemums, with its streamers of dark brown ending in single small blossoms.

The bride, radiant as she moved to the altar on her father's arm, chose a sheer wool in fern green resembling in design the frocks worn by her attendants, with its full skirt, elbow sleeves, and new shirred neckline. Her slippers and gloves were in harmonizing tones of green and her becoming turban of wool matching her frock, was draped to its high peak with bands of grey squirrel fur.

The bride's bouquet was a flat crescent of white chrysanthemums tied with broad white satin ribbon and showered with small white blossoms tied on ribbon streamers.

Attending Mr. Hunt as best man was H. D. Turner of Harlingen.

Ushers were Thomas H. Boyce and Earl Murray of Donna, brother and brother-in-law of the groom, and Burgess Stutzenbecker of McAllen. Mrs. Boyce, mother of the bride, wore crepe in an autumn shade with a corsage of bronze and gold. Miss Bolls' full frock was touched by a corsage of pink roses while Mrs. Sargeant's corsage was of roses in a deep pink shade.

As the young couple spoke their marriage vows, Miss Bolls played softly The Venetian Love Song and sang the wedding march by Mendelssohn for recessional.

A large reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents on North Ninth Street. Receiving with the hosts were the bride and groom, Wm. D. Hunt, Palestine, father of the groom, Miss Louise Boyce, Miss Oneita Hollis, and H. D. Turner of Harlingen.

The great living room was decorated with bowls of pink roses and blue salvia. On the library table was a tiny bride about 20 inches tall, her frock made entirely of the fragile blossoms of the bridal wreath grown especially for the bride by Mrs. J. W. Puckett of Pharr. In the shadow of the bridal figure was placed the bride's book presided over by Mrs. Paul Hetrick of Pharr, cousin of the bride.

In the dining room a Japanese arrangement of pink and white roses stood on the radio. The buffet was centered by the punch bowl of gleaming cut glass, surrounded by lace fern and pink roses. At either end pink tapers stemmed from crystal holders.

The dining table was laid with a heavy white embroidered cloth. It was centered by a huge white-frosted wedding cake sprayed over with pink sugar roses. Lace fern and pink roses, bridal wreath and small white carnations neuri-

American Home Topic For Study

Mrs. C. L. Parnell, Mrs. Diltz Talkers

BROWNSVILLE—The American Home was the topic of study for members of the Brownsville Study club at the home of Mrs. R. L. Fife Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. C. L. Parnell told of the exterior of the home, giving interesting facts concerning the different types of architecture. She stated that climate determines the style of architecture prevalent in sections of the country.

Mrs. J. Harrison Diltz talked on the interior of the home. She gave a brief history of Early American furniture, and then compared the individual rooms of earlier times with those of the present. In this discussion, the other members joined.

In the business session which was in charge of Mrs. Joe Wheeler, president, the members voted to aid some individual as part of the social service work of the club.

The hostess served a refreshment course to Mesdames W. M. Coleman, J. Harrison Diltz, Harry L. Faulk, L. C. Fife, Sam D. Houghston, Herman B. Jeffery, Sam L. Lockwood, R. A. McKee, B. B. McDonald, Leo Nolan, C. L. Parnell, Charles C. Stewart, W. M. Stovall, J. A. Walker, Joe Wheeler, members and one guest, Mrs. Marvin Martin.

The next meeting will be held November 7 at the home of Mrs. J. A. Walker.

Weslaco Bundles For Britain Unit To Stage Tea

McALLEN—The Weslaco unit of the Bundles for Britain organization will have a benefit open house Sunday afternoon from 5 to 7 p.m. in the lobby of the Cortez Hotel, officials here announced. All the proceeds will be used to buy surgical and medical supplies for Britain and for wool for the local women to use in knitting.

Roses Are Discussed By Weslaco Group

WESLACO—Mrs. John Hager was hostess to the Weslaco Garden club Thursday morning. Mrs. C. H. Schwedes presided.

Mrs. E. I. Emmons gave a paper on "Vitamin B-1" after which a round table discussion was held.

Mrs. L. R. Clifford will be hostess to the next meeting with Mrs. J. J. Stephens giving a paper on "Roses, Their Culture and Care."

ARRIVE FOR WEDDING

DONNA—Mr. William Hunt and his daughter Miss Virginia Hunt of Palestine, his son, William McDonald Hunt, Jr., of Houston and his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lehmberg of San Antonio, arrived in Donna on Friday to be guests of the Boyce family over the week-end of the Boyce-Hunt wedding.

Matinee Tea Novel Event Given In McAllen For Upper Valley Socialites

McALLEN—Upper Valley socialites enjoyed something different in the way of parties Thursday afternoon when Mrs. C. A. Marshall entertained about 60 women at a matinee tea.

The guests were greeted at the Palace Theatre at 2:30 p. m. by Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Anne Jo Jones, who also welcomed them at the Marshall home later for tea.

Mrs. Marshall's home was lavishly decorated with the Hallowe'en touch. Golden cosmos vied with motifs of the holiday to create a colorful atmosphere.

In the dining room Hallowe'en's traditional black and orange were noted on the refreshment table.

Here golden flowers formed the center arrangement flanked with black candle holders and candles. At one end of the table was a huge cake, iced in orange and black.

Mrs. W. W. Dees served the cake and Mrs. A. J. Campbell poured coffee. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Stockton Fountain, Mrs. Charles Holland, Mrs. Dudley Lauck of Pharr, Mrs. Al Weir, Mrs. Aubrey Thomas and Mrs. W. B. Spell mingled with the guests in the living room while Mrs. Homer Gunn served punch.

Beautification Drive To Be Launched Nov. 1 In City Of Harlingen

HARLINGEN—A city-wide beautification campaign will be launched in Harlingen for a period of two weeks, starting November 1, Harlingen Garden Club members decided at their regular meeting Thursday and detailed plans were outlined Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Joe Junkin, chairman.

Co-operation of every Harlingen citizen is to be asked in an effort to make the program of outstanding civic benefit, Mrs. Junkin stated. A general cleanup to improve the general appearance of the city will be one feature of the drive.

Committees to direct different phases of the campaign will be named during the coming week.

Fuller co-operation of the city in carrying out the project, probably the most ambitious attempted within a similar period in Harlingen, has been assured club members by Mayor Hugh Ramsey.

Next March convention sessions of the Texas Federation of Garden Clubs will be held in Harlingen, the state president, Mrs. Wm. Leake, Ft. Worth, estimating attendance at about 1,000. "It is not too early," Mrs. Junkin declared, expressing the views of her committee and other club members, "to think about the impression Harlingen will make at that time, as well as to make it as attractive as possible from the standpoint of winter visitors and our own selves."

Guests were Mrs. Don Hightower and Mrs. C. D. Ritter, with high award and traveling prize both going to Mrs. R. D. Smith.

Members playing were Mesdames L. V. Shaver, Jr., Herbert Koepke, Jack Scott, Al Norman, R. D. Smith and E. E. Baden.

This 'n That

By MINNIE GILBERT

Autumn's colors abundant: October's colors are orange and yellow and Valley hostesses can afford to be lavish with them. Blossoms in the yellow to orange-red range that are available include:

Mexican lupine, esperanza, zinnias, cosmos, bird of paradise or tansy, lantana, cannas, retama (a few), Aztec daisy, sunflowers, Oklahoma weed, Chinese hat plant, duranta berries, china berries, ripe inedible dates, allamanda, marigolds, roses, cup of gold, and probably a number of others.

Heritage from founders:

A new idea to us and one that is right interesting is Mrs. R. M. Winn's observation that each Valley town has a distinct personality that can be definitely traced to its early founders and leaders.

Mrs. Winn has watched development of the Valley for many years, has just moved from Mercedes, to Mission, and bases her remark on first hand knowledge.

Valley not Southwest:

What amounts to official recognition of the unique flavor of the Lower Rio Grande Valley area is given in Erna Ferguson's "The Southwest."

The book written chiefly to memorialize the 400th anniversary of the Coronado expedition and dealing wholly with the Southwest, asserts that this section is not a part of the Southwest as is the rest of Texas, but a region set apart by a different background of culture.

The difference was more pronounced in the old days when travelers arriving by stage coach were much impressed by the strong contrast in atmosphere and customs.

"When you crossed the Arroyo Colorado on the ferry," Miss Paul Hill, daughter of the late Lon C. Hill, once said, "it was like entering another country." Spanish was the principal language and the medium of exchange was Mexican money.

Both Brownsville and Matamoros, which once had been a large, bustling city, have declined because of sharp falling off in trade. With cessation of ocean and river commerce their increased isolation intensified the already unusual international flavor that persists today and is now finding expression in the Chorro Days Fiesta.

Darling visit talked:

Grapevine talk that "Ding" Darling, may come to the Valley as speaker for an important convention makes the current article in Satepost especially interesting both to folks who have been following the career of the celebrated cartoonist and conservation proponent, and those who feel they ought to know who he is but just don't. Had Satepost editors published the Ding article a couple of months earlier, it wouldn't have been necessary for this writer to try to appear intelligent while our Des Moines hosts endeavored politely to discover if we shared their apparently unlimited enthusiasm for the cartoonist who gave national publicity to the smoke-stained buildings of their city and refused to live anywhere else.

Things learned this week:

Turnip greens contain more calcium than any other green vegetable. Mrs. John W. Puckett cut bridal wreaths from shrubs in her own yard in Pharr for table decorations when she gave a luncheon for Margaret Boyce, bride of Saturday. Members of the Harlingen Girls Friendly Society, 20, are learning to knit for the Red Cross. Ninth grade girls in Rio Grande City schools are teaching Future Homemakers in the fifth grade to knit so they can assist with the Red Cross program.

Help is needed both with knitting and sewing to complete the quota assigned to the San Benito-Harlingen Red Cross chapter for war victims.

Los Fresnos seniors had to elect a new class president because the one they had got married.

Grasses flaunting those exquisite plumes of rosy pink to wine red are coloring the railroad right of way on the main Valley highway; they made their first Valley appearance alongside the new Kennedy county road and probably were introduced as seed in sand or gravel. San Benito Garden Club members this week set 60 large bougainvilleas on the esplanades on San Houston Boulevard, a part of the Valley Bougainvillea Trail.

Latin-American members of Harlingen's Bougainvillea Garden Club planted roses the past week, setting out 150 in Porfirio Diaz Park.

Collecting miniature shoes and boots is a hobby that gives a great deal of pleasure to Miss Lanthia Demaree who is a valuable cog in the machinery at the San Benito postoffice.

Little Theatre players, just organized in the lower Valley, will direct their first joint efforts toward a movie thriller, "Six-Shooter Junction," depicting early days in Harlingen.

Named Club Head

BROWNSVILLE—Jimmy Magill, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Earle Magill, has been named president of the Pre-Med club at the New Mexico Military Institute according to word received here. The Pre-Med club at the Institute in Roswell, is one of the largest clubs on the campus.

BROWNSVILLE—Mrs. R. A. King has returned to her home here after an extended visit in Wisconsin and in Dallas. Mrs. King spent the summer with her daughter, Mrs. H. V. Scanlan and Colonel Scanlan in Wisconsin, and visited in Dallas as the guest of her son, R. C. King, and Mrs. King.

Pharr Girl Is Bride

Mrs. Wilbur H. McClelland of Edinburg was before her marriage September 12, Miss Dorothy Rae Allen. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Allen and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brittan, both of Pharr. (Kerr Studio)

Mrs. Jack Wiech Named New Leader For Juniors At First Club Session

BROWNSVILLE—An important business session and an enjoyable program in the form of a debate were features of the Thursday afternoon meeting of the Junior Self-Culture club at the home of Mrs. Milton Overstreet.

In the business meeting, the resignation of Mrs. Ben L. Brite as president, was accepted with regret.

Mrs. Jack Wiech, vice-president, was elected to the office, and Mrs. Maurice Pipkin was named vice-president.

The members also accepted with regret the resignations of Mrs. E. T. Yates, as sponsor, and Mrs. Lon F. McDougall, Mrs. C. L. Robinson, and Mrs. Collis P. Perkins, members, who are making their homes elsewhere.

The new president also appointed three new chairmen to fill vacancies. These were Mrs. Harvey E. Nuckols, social service; Mrs. Jack Mace, yearbook, and Miss Betty Rockwell, entertainment.

The members planned a costume party for the evening of October 31 when husbands of members will be guests at the home of Mrs. Charles Mathers.

Delegates to the Brownsville Federation of Women's clubs met Thursday will be Mrs. Jack Mace, Mrs. Frank Mathers, taking the part of the modern housewife, and Mrs. George W. Putegnat, taking the part of the housewife of yesterday gave the program feature, a debate.

The next meeting will be held November 7 at the home of Mrs. Jack Wiech.

Rehearsal Dinner Given Bridal Party

DONNA—Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murray entertained the Boyce-Hunt bridal party and their immediate families with a buffet supper in their lovely home on South Val Verde. The charming affair carried out the autumn note featured throughout the pre-nuptial courtesies. The dining table from which the delicious hot supper was served, was laid with a rare ecru linen cloth, adorned with Italian embroidery. The decorations were of autumn fruits and vegetables.

The entire service, both there and on the quartet tables, down the long living room was of quaint Mexican pottery.

In the group, besides the host and hostess, were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. Burgess Stutzenecker of McAllen, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lehmborg of San Antonio, William D. Hunt and Miss Virginia Hunt of Palestine, Miss Onetta Hollis of Houston, Miss Margaret and Miss Louise Boyce of Donna, H. D. Turner of Harlingen, and William McDonald Hunt, Jr., of Houston.

Many Additional Workers Are Needed To Complete Sewing For War Refugees

Size Of Quota Assigned Red Cross Chapter Makes Aid Appeal With Sewing Necessary

HARLINGEN—Assistance in sewing by a large group of volunteer workers will be necessary if materials furnished by the Red Cross for production into apparel for war refugees is completed, it was announced here at the week-end as a survey was made of the requirements set by the current quota.

R. C. Pryor, chairman of the Harlingen division of the Red Cross chapter, and Mrs. Gerald W. McKenna, member of the local board have urgently requested that women's club and church groups especially make themselves responsible for fulfilling a part of the task.

The present quota of sewing, in addition to knitting a large number of sweaters, assigned to the Harlingen unit includes:

Women's skirts, 50; girls' skirts, 75; women's dresses, 20; girls' dresses, 100; boys' shirts, 30; boys' overalls, 20; convalescent robes, 15; hospital pajamas, 30; layettes, 50.

Only material for the skirts is on hand at this time, the government purchase policy making it impossible to forward the entire lot in a single shipment.

Because of the size of the quota, Red Cross officials consider it urgent that sewing of the skirts be completed within a very short time in order to be ready to make the other garments.

Cutting of the skirts was started Friday afternoon at the Woman's building by Mrs. W. H. Lemmons and Mrs. W. W. King with Mrs. A. M. Letzerich, chairman of the sewing group, assisting. The work will be resumed Monday at 9 a. m. when about ten volunteers are needed to aid with the cutting.

Everyone willing to help sew is requested to stop during the morning to obtain materials and instruction, even though actual work can't be started immediately. Clubs and missionary societies desiring to work as groups may have materials distributed at their Tuesday meetings by sending a request to Mrs. McKenna at 740 or 190.

Rotarians Are Hosts For Barbecue Event

Junior High To Benefit From Review

BROWNSVILLE—Mrs. Thomas J. Yoe, Jr., will be presented in a book review Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the junior high school library. Tickets for the event may be purchased at the school for 25 cents apiece. Proceeds will go to the junior high school book fund.

Mrs. Yoe will review the book, "How Green Was My Valley," by Richard Llewellyn. This is the story of a large family, the Morgans, whose livelihood depended on mining, fifty years ago when South Wales still prospered and coal dust had not blackened the greenness of the valley.

Priscillas Welcome Former Members At Thursday Session

BROWNSVILLE—Members of the Olmito Modern Priscilla club were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emily Davis.

During the business session, Mrs. Louis Rank, a former president, presided in the absence of the president.

The club welcomed two former members, Mrs. R. S. Davis and Mrs. Alton Bennett.

The club will meet again in three weeks with Mrs. Georgia Dickenson.

Mrs. Clara Driscoll, Corpus Christi, is honorary president of the group; Mrs. Lillian Durham Dickson, Ft. Worth, is national president; and Mrs. Alex Adams, San Antonio, is editor of "Comet," the state magazine and past president of the national group.

Composers, Authors Group Of Valley And South Texas To Hold First Meet Oct. 26

HARLINGEN—More than 50 members and a number of distinguished guests including presidents of national and state organizations are expected to attend the initial meeting of the Rio Grande Valley Composers and Authors Association to be held October 26 at the Rees-Wil-Mond Hotel. An invitation to hold the spring meeting at Kingsville has already been received from J. O. Lofton, president of Texas Arts and Industries.

Membership in the group includes artists, authors, musicians and composers from South Texas areas as well as the Rio Grande Valley. Preliminary organization work has been carried out by Mrs. Ben H. Sanders, Harlingen, under authority from both state and national presidents of the group. Mrs. Sanders is seventh vice president of the national group and contributing editor to the national magazine.

Notables coming for the initial meeting will include Mrs. Lillian Durham Dickson, Ft. Worth, national president and editor of the national magazine, Composers and Authors; Lillian Lorraine, San Antonio, second national vice president, a staff member of two national verse magazines, and founder of Avalon Poetry Shrine; and Mrs. Alex Adams, San Antonio, past national president and current editor of "Comet," the state magazine.

In the group of visitors also will be Mrs. Margaret McInnis Douglas of Dallas, Mrs. Long of San Antonio, and probably Joe Naylor, San Antonio publisher.

Special speakers at the luncheon will be Mrs. Adams and Lillian Lorraine. Mrs. Adams will discuss "Looking Forward." Mrs. Adams is well known in this section being a past president of the Fifth District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs and active in club affairs.

Miss Lorraine's subject will be "The Spiritual Defenses of Democracy." The Creative Art. Miss Lorraine, who is the author of two books of verse, has been lecturing in Fort Worth and gave a lecture in Corpus Christi October 18 on "The Spiritual Bulwarks of Democracy" under the auspices of the Three Arts Club.

She has recently built the Avalon Poetry Shrine on the grounds of her home, Avalon, in San Antonio, dedicating it to the poets of the Southwest. In it poems, pictures, biographies, and books by poets are preserved and in it poets and writers meet for exchange of ideas and advice.

Definite assurance has not yet been received whether Mrs. Clara Driscoll, Corpus Christi, honorary president of the newly formed Composers and Authors Association of South Texas, will be present for the luncheon.

Mrs. Driscoll Head Mrs. Driscoll, Corpus Christi, who is national democratic committee-woman from Texas and widely known for her philanthropy, and an outstanding business woman, is also a writer of note. She is the author of "The Girl of La Gloria," "The Shadow of the Alamo" and wrote words for a musical play, "Mexicana."

Vice presidents of the new organization include Mrs. H. E. Butt, Corpus Christi, formerly of Harlingen, a contributor to national publications and widely known leader in child welfare work; Miss Frances Alexander, Kingsville, author of "Seven White Birds" and faculty member at Texas A. & I.; Mrs. Daisy Glick Stevenson, Lyford, who is illustrating books of verse for children; James W. Allen, Harlingen, who is taking his second year at McCune School of Music and Art, in Salt Lake City, studying organ and counterpoint under Dr. Frank W. Asper at the famous Mormon tabernacle and composition with Tracy Y. Cannon; Mrs. Gerald W. McKenna, Harlingen librarian and feature writer; and Mrs. G. W. Johnson, Brownsville, who has been engaging in historical research in Old Mexico and doing preliminary work toward writing her biography.

Officers appointed include Miss Ida Campbell, Harlingen, recording secretary; Mrs. Ophelia Hill, Harlingen, treasurer; Mrs. Lillian Weems Baldrige, Harlingen, corresponding secretary; Mrs. May Dickens, Texas A. & I. College, Kingsville, parliamentary; and B. S. Mothershead, Harlingen, auditor.

Chairmen will be announced following the first meeting. The Composers and Authors Association was organized six years ago by the late Mrs. Rosser Thomas of Houston. Mrs. Durham has been a leader in its recent expansion and development.

Mrs. Sanders is contributing editor to the magazine, Composers and Authors of America, which is published quarterly and edits a page devoted to work of members of the South Texas group.

Principal objective of the South Texas group, Mrs. Sanders states, will be the publication of a Valley magazine in which the work of members will be published. The Three Arts is the title to be given the Valley publication which will appear at first ten times a year, probably merging into a monthly magazine. It will be devoted to music, artists, and authors.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made up to Tuesday, October 22, with Mrs. Ben H. Sanders, Phone 393-J in Harlingen.

Mrs. Robert Puckett Entertains Group

BROWNSVILLE—Mrs. Robert Puckett was hostess Wednesday afternoon to the Wednesday Study Club with Mrs. G. W. Moothart presiding during the business session. Mrs. Henry Smith had charge of the program and introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Homer E. Watkins, whose subject was "Palmyra."

Activities Of P.-T. A.'s

Annual Hallowe'en Carnival At Edcouch Being Highlighted By Election Of Queen

EDCOUCH—Plans for the annual carnival sponsored by the Edcouch-Elsa P.-T. A. are rapidly taking shape. Election of the queen and her attendants will be announced next week according to Mrs. Albert Thompson, general chairman. Several children are already making plans to enter the costume parade which promises to be second to the coronation as an attraction.

Pledged

Miss Stella Peeks, granddaughter of Mrs. Dan Jones of Raymondville, recently was pledged to Beta Gamma sorority at Texas A. & I. College, Kingsville and has just been chosen secretary of the sorority.

Valleyites At Aggieland

By Jay Dudley and Bob Corns
COLLEGE STATION—Monday night the Texas A. & M. Rio Grande Valley Club met for the first time for the specific purpose of developing a "bull session," in order that the freshmen and new members might get acquainted with each other.

Eli Whitney of Brownsville, presided at the noisy session when plans were discussed for the A. & M. Christmas dance. Probability of engaging the Aggieland orchestra was discussed. Oscar Lawrence of Brownsville, who is a player in the 210-piece Aggie Band, was authorized to investigate.

The officers of the club were elected last year in May and will serve in their respective offices until May, 1941.

Eli Whitney of Brownsville, president, has been made captain of the cavalry regiment and is acting on the staff as the adjutant.

Jimmy Pridmore of Edinburg, vice president, is first lieutenant in Battery B, coast artillery.

L. C. Draper of Edinburg, secretary and treasurer, is with L. C. D. Co. Infantry as supply sergeant.

Jay Dudley of Edinburg and Bob Corns of Harlingen were named reporters for the club.

Inter-mural sports play an important role here at A. & M. for the majority of the students who are unable to participate in varsity teams, the exercise needed to keep the Aggies physically fit is offered through the games played between organizations.

Bob Myers of Harlingen writes an article three times a week in the tri-weekly Battalion newspaper in regard to the games played and won.

The score, said Tommy Vannoy of McAllen, will probably be 20 for Texas A. & M. and 6 for U.C.L.A.

Two freshmen football players from the Valley showed up at our Valley get-together—Freeman Cox, end and Buck Martin, guard, both of Donna. When asked if they were holding the line, they replied that "Jarrin Jawn" Kimbrough was giving them some difficulty. They concluded that he was a "one man wave of destruction."

Chemically speaking, "Leche" Graham plus Charles Graham equals three men. The Graham brothers both are from La Feria. Leche, senior, reigns over Charles who is a freshman this year. Another outstanding La Ferian is Bert Hall who is a "paddle foot" (Infantryman) in A Company who says that Ann Sheridan is certainly going to be disappointed in not seeing him out in California where the Aggies play U.C.L.A. this Saturday. Ann Sheridan is an enthusiastic Aggie supporter being that she attended C.I.A., our sister school.

At the Tulsa and A. & M. game in San Antonio last Saturday were seen Tom Richey, Lt. Colonel of the cavalry regiment and who was originally from San Benito, with Miss Thora Lou Breedlove of Harlingen; Tom's voice was exhausted either from talking excessively or yelling continuously.

MEXICAN SUPPER SLATED OCTOBER 31

HARLINGEN—Plans for a benefit Mexican supper on Hallowe'en will be discussed at the meeting of the executive board of the Travis P.-T.A. Monday at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. W. S. Moothart. A delicious Mexican supper will be served for 25 cents a plate and a Mexican program will be furnished as entertainment afterwards.

P.T.A. DONATES FOR PLAYGROUND

LA FERIA—The sum of $25 was voted by the La Feria P.T.A. at a meeting Thursday evening to purchase playground equipment.

Announcement was made of the annual Hallowe'en carnival Saturday night, October 26.

It was voted to assist with the expense of a delegate to the state convention.

Mrs. L. R. Murphy was in charge of the program which honored the faculty members and reviewed the history of P.T.A.

An informal reception followed when refreshments were served from a table decorated in yellow and blue, the P.T.A. colors.

McALLEN—Mrs. Volney Taylor of Brownsville will be guest speaker when the Junior High P.-T.A. meets Tuesday, October 22, at 3:00 p.m. at the auditorium.

The session will open with a song and prayer after which there will be the awarding of the prizes on the best essays on "Safety."

McALLEN—Faculty members of the Wilson school will be honored guests Monday at 7:30 p.m. when the Wilson school Parent-Teachers Association entertains at dinner at the Casa de Palmas Hotel.

Rev. J. Beatty Smith, San Juan pastor, will be the principal speaker.

Club Group Has Election

LYFORD—The regular business meeting of the Stillman Home Demonstration Club was held Wednesday afternoon at the Stillman club house with the president, Mrs. C. O. Carter, presiding. Officers were elected for the coming year as follows:

Mrs. W. A. Cooley, president; Mrs. Henry Gilbert, vice president; Mrs. C. P. Cayce, secretary; Mrs. Ulysses Anderson, treasurer; Mrs. G. W. Wilbur and Mrs. Dave Woods, council delegates; and Mrs. C. O. Carter, reporter.

Plans were made for Mrs. W. A. Cooley and Mrs. C. O. Carter to give a demonstration on cheese and butter making at the next meeting November 6.

Miss Lueta Runnels and Mrs. M. J. Runnels served delicious refreshments to 16 members.

Delegates Named

RAYMONDVILLE—Delegates elected to the yearly Valley Baptist Association meeting in Edinburg on Thursday and Friday, October 25 and 26, are: Mesdames J. W. Lawrence, Perry Holder, A. T. Harper, and Bert Richey, and Messrs. F. L. Phillips and W. O. Griffin.

Women delegates will go on Wednesday to attend the Woman's Missionary Union in session on that day.

CLASS PRESIDENT

LOS FRESNOS—At a recent meeting of the senior class, Gerry Chantelle, son of Mrs. Miram S. Chatelle, was elected as president of the senior class to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Allene Pace. Miss Pace was married to Lawrence Marshall of Brownsville on October 3. She will move with Mr. Marshall to Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio on October 25.

Good Clothes Held As Good Investment

Schiaparelli On Lecture Tour

"A costume made of the best materials, perfectly cut and perfectly fitted, is a good investment," says Mme. Elsa Schiaparelli, famed French couturiere, who will begin her first American lecture tour in Philadelphia, Sept. 23.

"If the cut is simple the costume is often wearable for several seasons," she says. "But unless the whole matter of one's wardrobe is carefully considered, with due regard to the garments of last season that are to be used again, confusion is bound to result. We cannot go wrong if we strive for simplicity and perfect fit."

Mme. Schiaparelli who has numbered among her clients the most elegant women in the world, will tour 35 American cities, under the auspices of the Columbia Lecture Bureau, during the next three months.

The prospect of seeing America is "both exciting and terrifying" to the great French dressmaker. Cowboys are one feature of the American scene she has vowed not to miss. So don't be surprised if women are wearing bronco-busting baubles next winter — by Schiaparelli.

Church Group Has Supper

McALLEN—The Young Matrons group of the First Christian church met Thursday for a covered dish supper at the home of Mrs. John Beckholdt.

A devotional on faith was given by Mrs. F. T. Lang and the lesson on "Home and Public Morals" was ably given by Mrs. Cecil Robinson.

There were eight guests, Miss Geraldine Bullock of Dallas, Miss Helen Adams, Elnora Smith, Mary Elsie Beasley, Eva Gray Smith, Dorothy Hughes, Mesdames Bill Harris and Clyde Rexrode, and the members, Mesdames Jack Wilson, Fred Rambo, Hugh Rich, W. H. Moody, Cecil Robinson, F. F. Lange, A. V. Summy, Dale Smith and Leonard Irving.

The next meeting will be at 6:30 p.m. November 5 at the home of Mrs. A. V. Summy in Pharr when Mrs. John Beckholdt will have charge of the lesson and Mrs. Hugh Rich will give the devotional.

WESLACO—Roses in colorful bouquets decorated the living rooms when Mrs. Gordon Potts entertained the Dos Mesas Bridge Club Thursday.

Mrs. I. R. Stahl won high score award and Mrs. Jerry Tesser and Mrs. Oliver Swinnea were club guests.

A Hallowe'en plate was served late in the afternoon.

Breakfast Hostess

RAYMONDVILLE—Mrs. John Fambrough served a delicious breakfast to members of her club on Thursday morning in her home. Cosmos and zenias were prettily arranged for the occasion. Members and guests were Mesdames James Strawn, C. D. Ritter, G. E. Bennack, Roger Robinson, Fredrick Humphrey, Harry Douthitt, Gorman Fox, Earl Gilliland.

Mrs. Fox received trophy for high score.

Special Meet Called

WESLACO—A special meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service is called for Monday at 3 p.m. at the church by Mrs. L. M. Gallion, president. Mrs. Gallion will present her report of the conference which she attended in San Antonio.

All members are urged to attend and circle members will assemble at the church instead of in circle groups as was previously announced.

VISITS PARENTS

LYFORD—Miss Melba McGlothlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley McGlothlin, returned home from Corpus Christi where she is a teacher.

LOS FRESNOS—Mrs. S. E. Barr has gone to Laredo where she will spend several days with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wale D. Barr, during the absence of Mr. Barr.

Homecoming Is Highlight At A. & I.

By CARL CHILTON

KINGSVILLE—Homecoming has just passed on the campus of Texas A. and I. The Homecoming celebration this year was one of most successful held yet, climaxing Saturday night with the Javelinas' first home game and first conference battle with the Southwest Texas State Bobcats. A great throng of ex-students crowded the A. and I. campus yesterday, with many from the Valley among them.

The Homecoming ceremonies opened Friday night with a homecoming pep rally on the campus. On Saturday morning there was an assembly welcoming the visitors on the campus, and the climax came Saturday night with the game, followed by a dance.

John Hagler of Edinburg is a member of the executive committee of the A. and I. Ex-Students Association.

Music for the bonfire and pep rally, assembly, and the game, was furnished by the A. and I. band, under the direction of Erwin Ernst. The band of 55 pieces, is one of the best A. and I. has ever had, and includes many students who formerly played in the high school bands of the Rio Grande Valley.

Among those who tried out for drum major of the band were Babette Rhinehart of Pharr and Presta Wood from Donna. Frank Winfrey of Sinton was selected to lead the organization on parade. Ann Dunn of McAllen and Lorraine Vollmer of Mission are members of the color guard of the band.

An unofficial count released by the dean's office here shows that the Rio Grande Valley is represented at A. and I. this year by 116 students, as compared to last year's total of 106.

Harlingen leads in the number of enrollments from a single city, with 12. Close behind are McAllen and Raymondville, with 11 each. Next comes San Benito with 9; Brownsville, Donna, Mercedes, and Rio Grande City with 8 each; Santa Rosa with 6; Alamo and Mission, 5 apiece; La Feria with 4. Port Isabel, Edinburg, and Pharr with three each; Weslaco, San Juan, and Rio Hondo with 2 each; and Lyford, San Perlita, Los Fresnos, Edcouch, Combes and Sebastian with one each.

Ann Dunn of McAllen has been elected vice-president of the A. and I. High School Student Teachers Association. Sarah Marie Kullen of Raymondville is serving as secretary and treasurer of the organization.

Clinton Schmeling of Brownsville has been elected secretary-treasurer of the A. and I. Male Chorus, an outstanding campus organization. Clinton is also junior class representative in the Student Council. He is the only Valley student in the council.

Harvey Pritchard of Donna is playing saxophone in the A. and I. dance band, composed entirely of students. This is the first year in several years that there has been a student dance band on the campus here.

Major Projects Voted By Civic Leaguers; Tea Honors Mrs. Johnson

Library Aid Planned, Shop Opening Set; Ross Hoyt Gives Program

BROWNVILLE—An important business session, an interesting program, and a tea honoring Mrs. G. W. Johnson were highlights of the Brownsville Civic League's first regular meeting when Mrs. Volney W. Taylor was hostess at her home, Quinta la Paz, Thursday afternoon.

Thirty-six members attended, with Mrs. A. F. McLendon, Mrs. W. H. Meredith, Mrs. John N. Merrill, and Mrs. H. P. Langworthy being welcomed as new members.

During the business session, Mrs. Taylor, president, appointed Mrs. Merrill, Mrs. Langworthy, and Mrs. Johnson as delegates to the Valley Federation meeting in San Juan; Mrs. Charles Watson, Mrs. Thomas Yett, and Mrs. D. P. Gay, Jr., to the Valley Council in San Benito; Mrs. J. Grider Perkins is the delegate to the State Federation convention. Mrs. Perkins, elected secretary of the Brownsville Federation as the representative from the league in the spring, tendered her resignation, and Mrs. Harry C. Groom was nominated to fill this place.

In the absence of Mrs. Una Palmer, chairman, Mrs. Taylor announced that final plans are being completed for the opening of the thrift shop near the market square in the near future.

Civic projects for the club for this year are assistance with the public library and beautification of its grounds. The members voted a sum of six dollars for this purpose, with five dollars to be used in the purchase of books, and one dollar to be used for seeds for annuals. The members voted to plant a tree on the library grounds also.

A check with the librarian, Mrs. Claud Morton, revealed the need for the following books: Chief Contemporary Dramatists, first and second series, by Dickinson; Representatives of American Drama, Moses; Masterpieces of Modern Drama, Pierce and Mathews; The Bluebird, Masterlink; Audubon's America, Tealicer; and Encyclopedia of World's History, W. L. Langer. Anyone willing to donate these books to the library may contact Mrs. Morton, or Mrs. R. M. Hannah, telephone 1523, chairman of the library committee.

A benefit book review was set for the last Thursday in October in the basement of the Central Christian Church. Admission will be 25 cents apiece, and funds will be used to carry on the general work of the league.

Mrs. W. T. Harvey, chairman streets and alleys, reported the clean-up of an insanitary spot in a West Brownsville alley, and of grounds of a dairy.

Mrs. W. T. Harvey, plant exchange chairman, distributed plants, bulbs and cuttings among the members.

Speaker for the program was Ross Hoyt of McAllen, landscape architect, who gave practical and timely suggestions for fall planting. He listed the annuals, told how the seeds should be planted and gave directions for the care of the soil. He described the making of a compost of leaves, and stressed the necessity for watering lawns heavily in which termites are tunneling.

Mrs. Johnson, honor guest, was presented by the hostess with a flowering bougainvillea plant. Mrs. Johnson has been away from Brownsville for the past nine months.

During the social hour, Mrs. Willie A. George served the cake, a long rectangular confection, furthering the garden scheme with its embellishing of morning glories in pastel shades. Mrs. Charles W. Watson presided at the coffee service.

The table was centered with a miniature Japanese garden made bright with purple bachelor buttons and the tavashen blossoms. Esperanza was used in the library, and in the drawing room were pretty arrangements of rose and African daisies in pastel shades.

SPECIALISTS LEAVE

RIO GRANDE CITY—Miss Benjie Campbell, district agent, and Mrs. Bernice Claytor, home improvement specialist, both of College Station, left Tuesday for Laredo after spending a short time in Starr county during which they assisted County Agent Charles A. King, Jr., in the establishment of one of the county mattress centers at San Carlos.

Sun Oil Becomes 2nd To Get Big Production

McALLEN—Sun Oil Co. Saturday had become the second oil operator in the Lower Rio Grande Valley area to get important production from the Vicksburg when it announced its No. 1 Mateo Saenz. Survey 80, five miles north of the big Rincon field in eastern Starr, as a producer and moved rig to new location.

This development paced wildcatting in the Valley, although interest was shared with the Pan-American wildcat in eastern Willacy county, which had set a long string of protecting pipe. Activity on the wildcats slackened somewhat from the rush of the past few weeks.

Sun's No. 1 Saenz gauged 60 barrels daily on 7-4 inch tubing choke through casing perforations (9 shots) at 5478-81 feet, with 1,250 pounds tubing working pressure and 1,825 pounds closed-in casing pressure.

It is about five miles north of the Rincon area and three miles north-east of the "North Rincon" area, also starting steady development.

Operators ran production test on the well for several days before deciding to finish it as a producer. It is now shut in for storage. Its completion in the Vicksburg is considered of primary importance in the Valley area, where, it is believed, the Vicksburg will provide the section with deeper but longer-lived fields without the uncertain lensing in conditions encountered thus far in several Frio fields.

The only other Vicksburg producer in the Valley is that of Phillips Petroleum Co., in the North Samfordyce field in southwestern Hidalgo county, which made gas and distillate from sand around 9,600 feet.

Sun was moving in to drill the No. 2 Mateo Saenz, 1,715 feet north of the No. 1 Saenz, and 2,173 feet from the west well and 1,400 feet from the north line of Survey 80.

Another wildcat receiving much attention late this week was Baldwin's No. 1, 1,715 feet north of the No. 1 Saenz, and 2,173 feet from the west well and 1,400 feet from the north line of Survey 80.

Screen Calendar NEWS OF LATEST MOTION PICTURES Current Films

Above are Donald Crisp, Myrna Loy and Melvyn Douglas as they appear in a scene from the hilarious comedy "Third Finger, Left Hand" which is scheduled for showing Sunday and Monday at both the Rivoli Theatre in San Benito and the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco and at the Palace Theatre in McAllen Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Current Films

TIMELY AND THRILLING to the "nth" degree, Walter Wanger's newest film release "Foreign Correspondent" is unquestionably one of the most outstanding and entertaining pictures of the year.

It is not a war picture but a breathless story of high adventure among the intrepid newsmen who cover the European war front for America to listen to in news broadcasts and to read in its daily newspapers.

Joel McCrea is cast as the foreign correspondent who falls in love with the lovely daughter of the head of a great peace movement, who turns out to be Hitler's number one agent operating under the guise of the peace society. Other featured stars in "Foreign Correspondent," which is scheduled for current showing Sunday and Monday at the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville include Herbert Marshall, George Sanders, Albert Brasserman and Robert Benchley.

'MARCH OF TIME' SHOWS BRITAIN'S AIR FORCE

March of Time's latest issue entitled "Britain's R.A.F." brings to the screen an exclusive film story of the Royal Air Force, showing how the R.A.F. has been built up within the past year and how it is today the first line of defense in the Battle of Britain.

With actual scenes of battle, the film shows how the swift Spitfires and Hurricanes of the R.A.F. are daily fighting off the massed fleets of attacking Nazi bombers, and how Britain's own bombers are carrying the air-war back to the Nazi "invasion" bases on the French and Belgian channel coasts, and even into the heart of Germany itself.

March of Time is booked for current showing Sunday and Monday at the Palace Theatre in McAllen, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and at the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

DEANNA DURBIN IN ROMANTIC FILM HIT

NOW AN ADULT actress and starred in her first grown-up role Deanna Durbin is seen in her latest picture "Spring Parade" which is currently showing Sunday and Monday at the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and scheduled for showing Tuesday and Wednesday at the State Theatre in Mercedes and at the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco Thursday and Friday.

"Spring Parade" presents Miss Durbin as a young village girl who goes to the city. In the metropolis, she meets and falls in love with Robert Cummings, a young blade, and the picture tells the progress of their love affair over a bumpy—and highly laugh-filled—road of complications.

Deanna sings (more beautifully than ever) four numbers—three of them from the pen of Robert Stolz, famous Viennese musician who composed, among others, the beautiful "Two Hearts in Three-Quarter Time." The fourth is "Blue Danube Dream." All four carry words by Gus Kahn, dean of American lyric writers.

In the large supporting cast are Mischa Auer, Henry Stephenson, Butch and Buddy, Anne Gwynne, Walter Catlett, S. Z. Sakall, Samuel S. Hinds, Allyn Joslyn, Reginald Denny, Franklin Pangborn, Peggy Moran and others.

Direction is by Henry Koster, fifth picture in which he has guided Deanna. Joe Pasternak is the producer.

ALLEY OOP

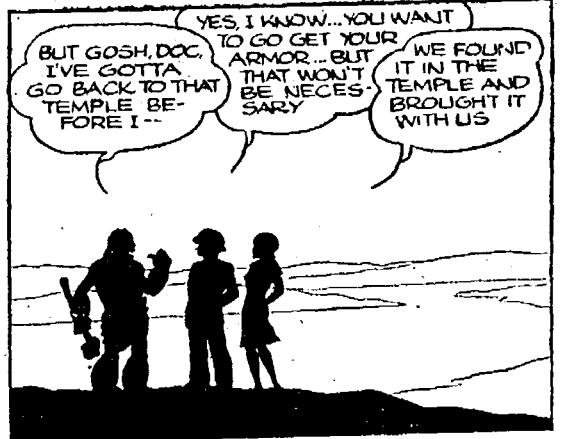

FOLLOWING HIS ADVENTURE IN THE EGYPTIAN ROYAL COURT OF CLEOPATRA, ALLEY OOP IS AGAIN REUNITED WITH HIS FRIENDS —

OH, ALLEY, I WAS BEGINNING TO THINK WE'D NEVER FIND YOU!

YEH, OOOOLA, I GOTTA ADMIT I WAS GITTIN' WORRIED MYSELF!

WELL, FOR HEAVEN'S SAKE, PULL OFF THOSE FALSE WHISKERS AND THAT RIG... AND LET'S GET BACK TO THE TWENTIETH CENTURY!

BUT GOSH, DOC, I'VE GOTTA GO BACK TO THAT TEMPLE BEFORE I --

YES, I KNOW... YOU WANT TO GO GET YOUR ARMOR... BUT THAT WON'T BE NECESSARY

WE FOUND IT IN THE TEMPLE AND BROUGHT IT WITH US

BY GOLLY, I'LL BE GLAD TO GIT OUTA THIS 'CRAZY PLACE' SEEMS LIKE I'VE BEEN HERE FOR -- EVER!

MEANWHILE, BACK IN THE 20TH CENTURY, DR. WONMUG'S TIME-MACHINE LABORATORY...

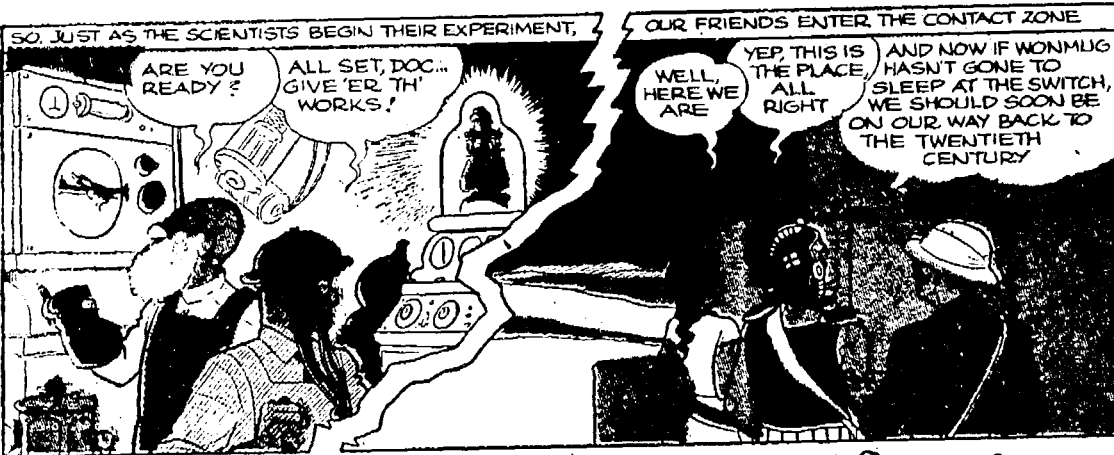

SO YOU DON'T EXPECT DOCTOR BRONSON BACK FOR A WHILE -- YET, EH?

NO JON -- AND MEANWHILE, I WANT TO CHECK ON A RECORDING DEVICE I'VE JUST INSTALLED

SO IF YOU'LL STEP UP THE POWER, I'LL WORK THE RHEOSTAT FORWARD AND BACK, IN THE HOPE OF ESTABLISHING THE MAXIMUM LIMITS OF OUR TIME-MACHINE'S SCOPE

OKAY, DOC... I'LL HAVE IT HOT IN A JIFFY!

SO, JUST AS THE SCIENTISTS BEGIN THEIR EXPERIMENT,

ARE YOU READY?

ALL SET, DOC... GIVE 'ER TH' WORKS!

OUR FRIENDS ENTER THE CONTACT ZONE

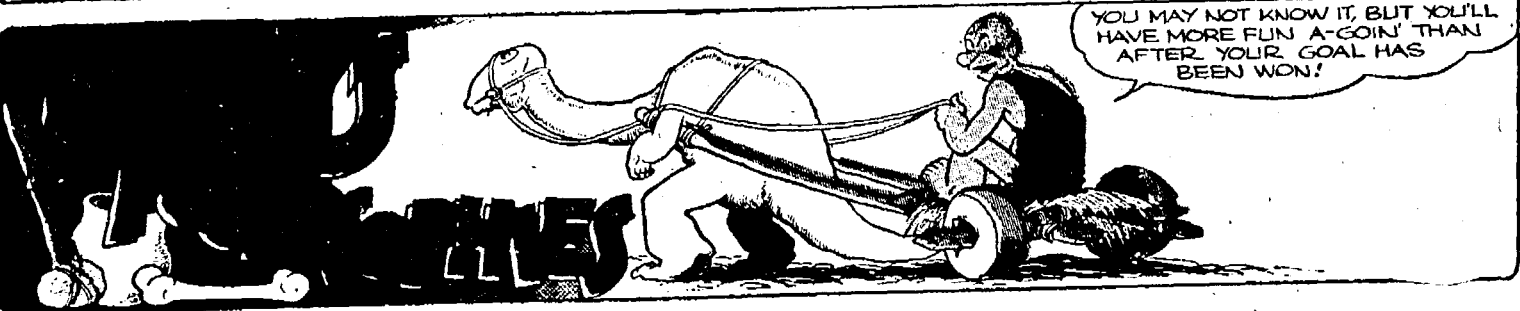

WELL, HERE WE ARE

YEP, THIS IS THE PLACE, ALL RIGHT

AND NOW IF WONMUG HASN'T GONE TO SLEEP AT THE SWITCH, WE SHOULD SOON BE ON OUR WAY BACK TO THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

2 Below Zero Felt In New York
By The Associated Press
Four persons were killed Saturday night in automobile accidents attributed to blinding snow flurries as winter-like weather made a premature appearance along the eastern seaboard.
At Fort Dix, N. J., two men and two women died and an army chauffeur was critically injured as a passenger car and an army beach wagon crashed head-on in swirling snow.

NO CHANGE IN VALLEY
Although the east is in the grip of prematurely cold weather, no change is predicted in the Valley. Sunday's forecast is partly cloudy. Highest temperature Saturday was 84 in Harlingen, low 59.

Storm Warnings Up
The weather bureau ordered northeast storm warnings hoisted at 11 p. m. EST. from Atlantic City, N. J., southward to the Virginia Capes, and warned of moderate, shifting gales moving rapidly eastward from the southern Appalachian region with increasing intensity.
In New York where the temperature was below freezing, there were light snow flurries but in New Jersey and Pennsylvania the snowfall reached storm proportions. Weather forecasts generally predicted rain or cloudy weather with some increase in temperature in most of the eastern states tomorrow.

West Still Warm
While below-freezing weather was visiting New England, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, summer seemed loathe to leave the west, where abnormally high temperatures were equally remarkable. Californians sweltered—it was 101 at Culver City—and Kansans talked about record-breaking temperatures in the high 80's.
Warmer weather was promised the Atlantic states today (Sunday).

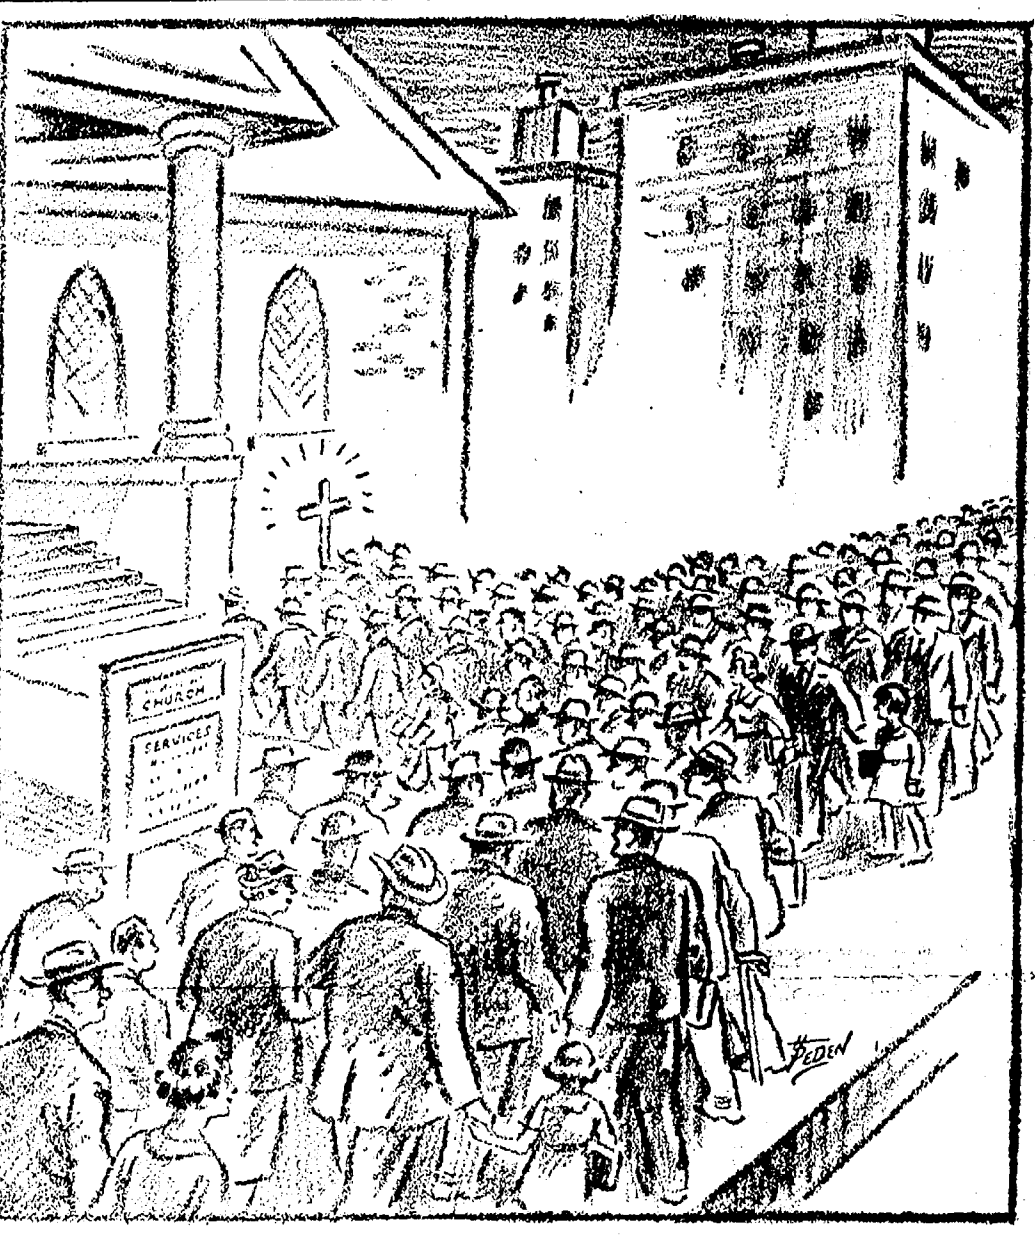

GRID LEADERS HOLD PLACES

No Major Upsets Are Seen Saturday

(More Complete Stories in Sports Section)
By HERB BARKER
NEW YORK—(P)—It took a discerning, not to say hypersensitive eye, to discover a legitimate football upset Saturday.
Almost without a break, the nation's college leaders moved smoothly past their third October tests and left the general situation virtually unchanged. Not in years have the results on any full football Saturday program so closely followed form.
Alabama, Rice, Auburn, Duquesne, Iowa, George Washington and Virginia all suffered their initial defeats of 1940 but there wasn't a real upset in the lot unless Virginia's defeat by Virginia Military, 7-0, could be so classified.
Meanwhile the powerful Ivy League, Cornell and Penn; two Eastern Catholic college powerhouses, Fordham and Boston College; the midwest Big Four of Notre Dame, Northwestern, Minnesota and Michigan; the Southwest leaders, Texas A. and M., Texas and Southern Methodist; and the Southern pace-setters, Tennessee and Mississippi, all advanced another step along the unbeaten trail.
Tennessee gave new evidence (if any was needed) of its terrific power as it steam-rolled Alabama's good team into submission, 27-12.
Little Johnny Butler was the spark plug for the Volunteers needed, scoring a touchdown on a 49-yard run after racing 68 yards to set up a play on which he passed for a score.

The Most Effective Army --- And No Age Limit

POPE APPEALS FOR U. S. AID

Generous Donations To Aid 'Peace'

VATICAN CITY—(P)—Pope Pius XII in an appeal to the United States for generous contributions to war-time foreign missions declared Saturday "the peace of the world also is a missionary aim of the church."
The pontiff spoke in English during a brief broadcast on the eve of the observance of "Missionary Sunday" by the 118-year-old Catholic Society for the Propagation of the Faith.
In speaking of "the kingdom of God on earth" for which Christians pray, he said "This kingdom of peace . . . between peoples and of the world is based on an equitable adjustment of differences and on that union that comes with right and order."
"At the present hour men are far removed from this peace," the pope continued. "The intimate sense of common values, both in the natural and supernatural order, threatens to abdicate from many hearts to opposing principles."
"So much more comforting then and inspiring will be your efficacious fidelity to the Catholic missionary spirit."

Martin Dies Warns US To Adopt Stand On Foreign Agents

CHICAGO—(P)—Rep. Martin Dies (D-Tex.) declared Saturday night that "if the government doesn't define or adopt a firm and uniform policy putting an end to political activities of representatives of foreign powers in the United States, I propose to make public all the evidence I have on the subject."
"I want a clear definition of policy from the federal government as to what it plans to do about consular representatives of Russia, Germany, Italy, England and other countries engaged in political activities in this country," Dies, chairman of the House committee investigating un-American activities asserted in an interview.

Suez Still Open Even To Shipping Of Dictators

British Boast Complete Control Over All Mediterranean, Tell Of Victories
ALEXANDRIA, Egypt—(P)—War or no war, the Suez Canal still is open to international shipping, including Germany's and Italy's, the French director of operations said Saturday, but added in effect: "Just let the Axis powers try to get their gun boats near it."
"We are acting with total independence of any suggestions emanating from Vichy," declared Baron Louis De Benoist, general representative of the canal company. "We will continue to afford all possible facilities to ships flying any flag."
The baron was speaking in behalf of the French-dominated operating company. He took into consideration, however, that it is the British fleet, standing guard at both ends, which is exercising real control over the 104.5 mile-long "jugal vein" of the British empire.
His big "if" concerning the chances of Axis shipping reaching

San Antonio Grooms 20 Latin Officers

SAN ANTONIO—(P)—San Antonio's officialdom, civilian and military, welcomed 20 high ranking Latin-American army officials at Randolph Field Saturday, to mark the beginning of the city's second program for visiting Pan-American representatives.
A similar group was entertained here two weeks ago.

Valley Crash

EDINBURG—Filiberto Garza, about 23, is unconscious in the City County Hospital here as the result of an automobile accident in which he apparently was the only person involved.
Garza's auto appeared to have run off the highway and overturned a mile west of Edinburg on Highway No. 107 about 4:15 p. m. Saturday. Garza was thrown out of the car and suffered either a fracture or a concussion.
Walter Lysinger, Hidalgo county highway patrolman and Jack Ross, assistant district attorney, are investigating.

'Definitely Sabotage' Says Fire Chief

HARLINGEN—Fires which Friday and Saturday nights endangered over a million and a quarter gallons of oil stored along the Missouri Pacific right-of-way were deliberately set, in the opinion of Fire Chief Jake Childress.
The fact that there is no grass or other inflammable material near the oil tanks through which a fire could be carelessly started and the fact that the fires occurred on successive nights led Chief Childress, County Officer Collis Thompson and others to the conclusion that a firebug was responsible for the blazes.
Loss Is Slight
Actual losses caused by the fires were negligible compared to the value of the oil in the storage tanks which were endangered by the fire which blazed in borrow pits around the reservoir.
The Friday night alarm was turned in about 6:30 p. m. and the Saturday night alarm came in at 9:20 p. m. In both instances, firemen found oil afire in a borrow pit surrounding the oil tanks.
The endangered oil, belonging to the Missouri Pacific railroad, was stored in one tank of a million gallons capacity and another of about 273,000 gallons capacity, it was said. The premises are kept clean of grass, weeds and other inflammable materials.
It is believed that the oil in the borrow pits consisted of seepage probably from the 273,000-gallon tank. The oil was three feet deep in the ditch Saturday night and firemen said that this was not as much as they found Friday night. The railroad was reported to be using up the oil in the smaller tank first in order to drain it and look for a possible leak.
Fire Work Difficult
Firemen were hindered in their work by the fact that a portion of the ditch was covered with boards and the board with earth so that they had difficulty in reaching the fire with water. They said that if the fire had continued to blaze that it would have heated the steel storage tanks with the result that they might have become ignited.
A switch engine nearby was brought to the scene with the intention of using live steam on the fire but it was not brought into action.
The fire department is attempting to salvage several hundred dollars worth of rubberized fire hose which became oil soaked. If steam cleaning does not prove successful, several sections of hose, worth a dollar a foot, will have been lost.

Loss Of Vessel Is Reported By British

LONDON—(P)—The admiralty announced Saturday that "H. M. Auxiliary Patrol Vessel, Girl Mary, Acting Skipper F. B. Plaskitt, R.N.R. had been lost by enemy action. Next of kin of casualties have been informed."

Army Reserve Flier Falls Out Of Plane; Saved By Parachute

KANSAS CITY—(P)—It was lucky for Capt. Lester G. Orcutt, Des Moines, that he was wearing a parachute Saturday.
Captain Orcutt, Army reserve officer, was flying upside down during a maneuver and his safety belt came unfastened.
The plane crashed in a field, while the astounded officer floated earthward.

Retirement Fund Is Sought By Teachers

FORT WORTH—(P)—The executive committee of the Texas State Teachers Association voted here Saturday to renew its educational campaign regarding the teacher retirement program in the hope of obtaining the necessary appropriation by the state at the next session of the legislature.

And Baby Passes, Too

WACO—(P)—The Rev. and Mrs. Clifford Potts, young couple attending Baylor University, found that 17-month-old Joanne hampered their class schedule until they devised a hipper-diaper, mama-to-papa lateral pass formation.
Daddy goes to his 8 o'clock class each morning, leaving Mrs. Potts with the baby. At 8:55 he hurries toward home, meeting his wife with the child in her arms.

Eleanor Silent On Third Term Hopes

She's Used To Politics; Expects Anything

ST. LOUIS—(P)—Eleanor Roosevelt has "no idea" whether her husband will win re-election to a third term as President.
"As far as the polls go," she said Saturday, "they mean very little to me. They are so often too much one way or the other."
Asked if she should like to live in the White House another four years, she laughed and said:
"When you've been the wife of a politician long enough, you learn not to express anything one way or the other, but just go along and see what happens."

Draft Quotas Are Set

First National Lottery Within Ten Days; Marshall Says Program Moves Swiftly

WASHINGTON—(P)—National draft headquarters made known Saturday the number of men each state will be expected to contribute to the 800,000 to enter army training by next July 1.
Assignment of the state quotas was the last major step in the draft program before the national lottery which will determine the order in which men will be called. The date for the lottery has not yet been set, but it is expected to be held within the next 10 days.
With the program moving along swiftly, General George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, sent a message to the commanders of the four field armies, saying that "the task now looming before us is the expeditious development of a unified, efficient fighting force of citizen-soldiers."
"No Pampering"
He added that in reaching that objective there must be "no pampering of individuals, no distinctions between men because of their previous military experience or condition of entry into the service."
"In a spirit of mutual respect and cooperation," Marshall wrote, "the army of the United States must now proceed with its high purpose of welding from the elements of the American democracy, a disciplined."

TEXAS TOTAL HITS 808,588

7 More Draft Boards Are Formed

AUSTIN—(P)—The Texas pool from which the nation may draw military conscripts stood at 808,588 men Saturday.
The state's 254 counties registered that number of men between the ages of 21 and 35, the adjutant general's department announced.
To speed the selective service process in some areas the department also announced organization of seven additional local draft boards—two each in Dallas and Harris counties and one each in Gregg, Jefferson and Nueces counties. Personnel was not named immediately.
Adjutant General J. Watt Page said that draft boards had been instituted to post lists showing the serial numbers of registrants not later than 5 p. m. Monday.
As state selective service headquarters awaited the national lottery to determine the order in which registrants would be called for classification and possible service General Page planned to fly to Washington Sunday for a conference of the National Guard Association.
The Texas National Guard has been ordered to report for a year's active training beginning next month.

Texas Dem Campaign Is Said 'Clicking'

AUSTIN—(P)—Asserting the Democratic campaign is "clicking" throughout the state, Campaign Director Myron G. Blacklock said Saturday he planned to confer with Speaker Sam Rayburn while the latter is in Texas.
Blacklock, who is Texas' national executive committee member, planned to meet Rayburn in Bonham on Tuesday. Rayburn, recently named speaker of the House of Representatives, is campaign director for the southwest.

Slavs Join Axis

Yugoslavia Signs Pact With Germany

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia—(P)—Declaring "our collaboration is not only economic but political," Foreign Minister Aleksander Cincar-Markovic Saturday night announced the signing of a new commercial pact for 1940-41 with Germany, despite authoritative reports that Germany is unable to deliver certain manufactures because of bombing damage.
Hailing the pact as evidence of a "political collaboration" which has preserved peace for Yugoslavia, the foreign minister said "this policy should be continued."
While the Reich's latest economic fence mending in the Balkans came at a time when the capitals of Rumania, Bulgaria, Greece and Turkey were active with reports of Axis plans for further penetration of southeastern Europe, authoritative sources disclosed the Reich is meeting difficulties in keeping her barter engagements in the Balkans.

GREECE NEW CENTER OF WAR'S CRISIS

King May Be Asked To Abdicate

By The Associated Press
Incessant waves of German bombers fiercely attacked London last night and early today in what may prove to be the most devastating assault of the war.
Waves of 15 to 20 planes unloaded heavy bombs at five minute intervals. More offices and homes crumbled and just after midnight a direct hit wrecked part of a hospital.
Bombs fell not singly but in big clusters all over the capital. Firemen fought desperately against numerous fires.
Invasion Coast Bombed
The RAF counter-attacked against German positions on the French "invasion coast" and watchers in England saw the pyramiding fire of explosions and anti-aircraft defenses across the English Channel.
Greece shaped up as the pivotal battlefield of the diplomatic war in southeast Europe.
Although there was no confirmation of Cairo reports that ultimatum-like Axis demands already have been made in Athens, there were signs they might be soon.
There were said to be demands that King George II of Greece abdicate, Premier-Dictator John Metaxas resign to make way for a pro-Nazi government, Greece break off trade with Britain, cede territory to Italy and Bulgaria and give the Axis rights to air bases.
Demands Are Denied
Existence of such demands was denied in Berlin but in Rome, the usually well-informed Fascist weekly, Relazioni Internazionali, hinted they might be impending. And, for the second time since trouble for the Balkans began brewing, Premier Mussolini started out to inspect his built-for-blitzkrieg army, this time on the Yugoslav frontier.
The German view apparently was that Greece and Turkey, both British-guaranteed, could be expected to fall into line with Axis plans without extreme pressure. If they

BANKER RAPS FD'S SYSTEM

Valley Group Hears Dallas Financier

BROWNSVILLE—Committees recommending banking legislation to Congress should be composed of bankers and not "bookworms," Ern Lamb, vice-president of the First National Bank at Dallas, said here Saturday night at the quarterly meeting of the Valley Bankers' Association at the El Jardin Hotel.
"American bankers should unite and intercede with the president to obtain appointment of at least one man with practical banking experience on these committees," Lamb said.
"Being a professor at Harvard, or Yale is a fine thing, but a theoretical knowledge of banking is not enough. Legislation already recommended by such sources already has hamstringing the banking profession."
Cautions On Credit
Lamb cautioned bankers against over-extending credit during times like the present, when he said banks are flush.
"In these times," he said, "we sometimes become lax when we should be more cautious about extending more credits. Over-extension of credit only brings a bank a hazardous asset."
Should Co-Operate
Banks should co-operate fully with the government defense program, Lamb said, and at the same time should start defending themselves against the attacks of "ignorant critics." The public, he said, hears only of a bank's mistakes and never of its constructive work.
Charles L. Harbinger presided. About 150 attended the dinner program and following dance.

British Prepare To Flee From Bulgaria

SOFIA, Bulgaria—(P)—The British legation was reported Saturday to have burned its confidential documents in case it is forced to withdraw hastily from this Balkan kingdom and the controlled press predicted failure for a last-minute British diplomatic offensive intended to halt Axis penetration of southeastern Europe.
While British diplomats George Rendel, minister to Bulgaria, and Sir Hugh Knatchbull-Hugessen, ambassador to Turkey, conferred at Istanbul, the newspaper Slovo said the measures decided upon there were bound to be fruitless.

team since Elmer Layden took charge, rolled over Carnegie Tech, 61-0, using 67 players as a crowd of 35,000 looked on. This headlined an intercollegiate program that otherwise proved nothing except that no section of the country has any monopoly on football talent.

Duke, benefitting by an 80-yard touchdown run by Moffat Storer, defeated Colgate, 13-0, but Columbia's smart Lions, paid that one off by defeating Georgia, 19-13, in a thrilling duel which saw sophomore Paul Gervin of Columbia assume the starring role. Morrie Hapes and Junior Havigus led Mississippi to a 14-6 decision over Duquesne as Kentucky buried George Washington, 24-0; Boston College walloped Idaho, 60-0, and Navy stopped Drake, 10-0.

Tulane Downs Rice
The Southwest and Southeastern conferences shared honors as Tulane, finally clicking, bowled over Rice, 15-6, and Southern Methodist tripped Auburn, 20-13, with Preston Johnston leading the victorious Mustangs both offensively and defensively.

A crowd of 63,000 sat in at Columbia as Minnesota's Gophers, paced by Bruce Smith, stopped Ohio State, 13-7, and ruined the Buckeye's hopes of retaining at least a share in the Western Conference championship. Tommy Harmon and Bob Westfall led Michigan to an easy 28-0 victory over Illinois, avenging last year's spectacular upset, and Northwestern had no great trouble with Wisconsin, winning 27-7 as Bill De Corvont dashed 50 yards for one touchdown and passed for another.

Too Much Power
Texas A. and M. had entirely too much stuff for Texas Christian and won, 21-7, as Texas' Longhorns, also unbeaten and united, knocked off Arkansas, 21-0.

Carl Snively used every man on the Cornell bench as the Big Red's long-range attack swamped Syracuse, 33-5, while Francis Xavier Reagan, Penn's great back, scored 31 points as the Quakers won a high-scoring duel with Princeton, 49-28. A snowstorm failed to halt Len Eshmont and Fordham and the Rams took Pitt over the hurdles, 24-12.

De-emphasized Yale found the winning combination against Dartmouth and won 13-7 as Ted Harrison completed a touchdown pass to John Reid in the last 30 seconds. Army and Harvard played a 6-6 draw while Holy Cross won over New York University, 17-7.

Indiana Finally Wins
But McMillan's hard-luck Indiana outfit, after dropping close decisions to Texas and Nebraska, finally got going and dropped Iowa from the unbeaten class, 10-6. Nebraska, Oklahoma and Missouri won Big Six games as expected. Nebraska, the favorite, piled up a 53-2 count on Kansas; Missouri halted Iowa State, 30-14, and Oklahoma outpointed Kansas State, 14-0.

Georgia Tech opened its Southeastern Conference season with a decisive 19-0 conquest of Vanderbilt while North Carolina, Southern Conference power, shipped North Carolina State, 13-7. Washington State spilled Richmond, 3-0, in another Southern Conference test. Maryland lost to Florida of the Southeastern group, 10-0.

Utah Is Upset
Utah was upset by Utah State, 7-0, in Rocky Mountain Conference play but Denver, beating Wyoming, 41-9, and Colorado, 33-14 victor over Colorado State, moved along toward the title.

Stanford's Indians continued their sensational mop-up job in Western competition, Laid off unbeaten, untied team on the West Coast, Clark Shaughnessy's tricky ball-handlers handed Washington State its first defeat, 26-14. Washington favored for the Pacific Coast title, crushed Oregon State, 10-0, as Southern California knocked over Oregon, 30-7, and California tripped U.C.L.A., 9-7, on last quarter field goal.

although snow flurries were forecast for some part of the New York-New Jersey area.

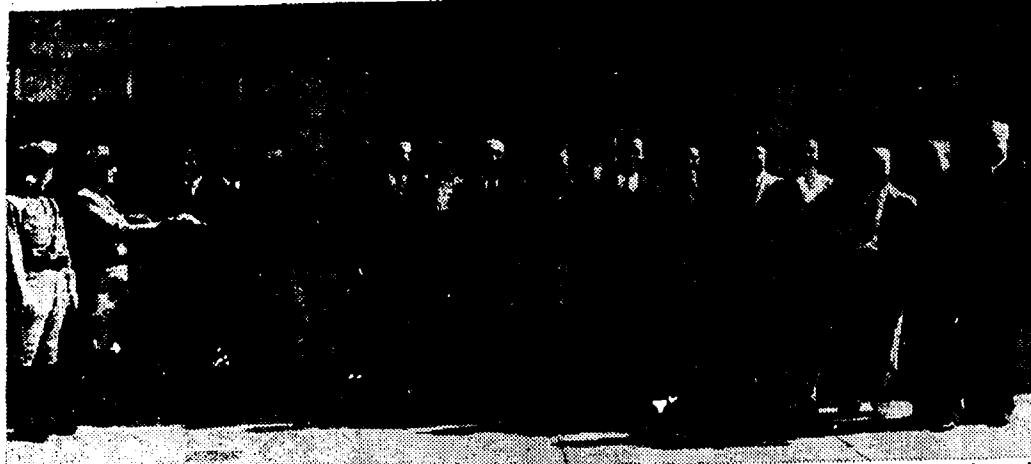

Down in the cotton country, Meridian, Miss., shivered under a light morning frost. The temperature dropped to 35 at Evergreen in deep south Alabama. Tallahassee, Fla., reported a 38-degree minimum while most of the south was bracketed in the 40's. Farther north, Richmond, Va., had readings of 30 degrees.

Two Below Zero
The coldest "frost pocket" in the east was established at northern New York's state ranger school at Wanakena where the temperature plummeted to two below zero. These record lows for Oct. 19 were established: New York City 30; Buffalo 28; Rochester 23; Syracuse 24; Fall River, Mass., 27; and New Haven, Conn., 28.

King Carol Is Said Seeking Passage To United States Soon

SEVILLE, Spain —(P)—Former King Carol of Rumania, it was learned here, has telephoned several times to Lisbon, Portugal, trying to make arrangements for passage to the United States. Carol, who abdicated last month, spends most of his time playing cards with Mme. Magda Lupescu, the red-haired friend with whom he fled the Nazi-dominated nation.

Gas Company Men Set Safety Record

Drivers for the Rio Grande Valley Gas Co. at Brownsville, all of whom are members of the Employers' Casualty Company's "Safe Drivers' League", are shown above as they received medals for driving an aggregate of 1,700,000 miles without a single accident. Left to right: State Highway Patrolmen J. O. Musick and W. B. Dixon, who attended the ceremonies; Drivers C. A. Irwin, Floyd Pierce, F. L. Newhouse, C. D. Titus, O. E. Davina, L. F. Bell, George Followill, W. A. Young, Sam Dramisno, E. C. Brown, Ed Hauff, J. M. Liles, R. C. Vollmer, Louie Summers and J. H. Stephens; Miss E. P. Storch, company secretary at Houston; W. H. Meredith, assistant secretary and treasurer; J. C. Jorian, vice president and general manager of the company's Brownsville office; and J. L. Cantrell of Corpus Christi, safety engineer for the Employers Casualty Company, who made the presentations. (Photo by Rogers, Brownsville.)

BROWNSVILLE — Sixty-four times around the earth is a good distance to travel, but employees of the Rio Grande Valley Gas Company here have driven further than that without an automobile accident.

In recognition of this fact, 16 company employees who are members of the Employers' Casualty Company's "Safe Drivers' League" were given medals during the past week by J. L. Cantrell of Corpus Christi, safety engineer for Employers Casualty.

Three employees of the company have driven 11 years apiece without an accident. They are C. A. Irwin, C. D. Titus and L. F. Bell.

These men received the first diamond safety medals awarded in the Valley, which were also awarded to W. A. Young, who has driven 10 years without an accident; E. C. Brown, 9 years; J. M. Liles and Louie Summers,

5 years; and J. H. Stephens and Guy Pierce, four years.

A gold medal was presented to Floyd Pierce, who has a three-year safety record. F. L. Newhouse, O. E. Davina, G. W. Followill and Sam Dramisno all received silver medals for two years' driving without an accident, and bronze medals were given to Ed Hauff and R. C. Vollmer for one-year safety records.

State Highway Patrolmen J. O. Musick and W. B. Dixon attended the presentation at the gas company office here, at which time Patrolman Musick made a talk on traffic safety.

"The Rio Grande Valley can well be proud of these drivers, who not only are setting new safety records, but are proving themselves to be among the finest types of citizens," Patrolman Musick said. "They are truly contributing their part toward safety on our streets and highways in the Valley."

Mr. Cantrell complimented the company on its drivers' ultra-safe driving, stating that the awards "mean that their wearers are courteous, careful drivers who guard against the carelessness and recklessness of the other fellow on the highway, and in so doing may have saved a life, perhaps many."

J. C. Jorian, vice president and general manager of the company's local office, and W. H. Meredith, assistant secretary and treasurer, presented Mr. Cantrell to the men. Total mileage driven by the men without a single accident being charged against them is 1,700,000 miles, or about 64 times around the earth.

Employers Casualty Company's Valley office is located in the Rio Grande building at Harlingen.

GREECE NEW CENTER OF WAR

don't see that their bread is buttered on the side of the Axis, one authorized commentator observed, it is just too bad for them.

But British counter-moves evidently were being organized to try to checkmate the Axis "new order," possibly by urging Bulgaria to defer territorial claims against Greece and to reject any Rome-Berlin bid to join it against Greece and Turkey.

British Burn Papers
While confidential documents in the British legation at Sofia were reported being burned lest the legation be forced to beat a hasty retreat from Bulgaria, Britain's minister to that kingdom, George Rendel, and her ambassador to Turkey, Sir Hugh Knatchbull-Hugessen, conferred at Istanbul.

After a mysterious lull in bright daylight, German air raiders began the third night of consecutive air attack on London with a violent onslaught.

Bursting bombs and the throb of an endless chain of raiders made the first hour after nightfall as fearsome as that of Oct. 15, which is ranked as London's worst so far.

Sub Attacks Intensified
Although there was only one day-light alarm in London and few bombs either there or elsewhere in England, the Germans claimed "the greatest and most successful mass submarine attack yet accomplished."

In the war at sea, the Nazi high command said 31 ships totalling 173,650 tons had been sunk by U-boats recently, all but five of them out of a single British convoy in one night.

On their own credit side, the British reported that RAF bombers dived down from thick clouds Friday night to blast Hamburg's Blohm and Voss shipyards "where German warships are known to be under construction."

Hits also were reported on the Germania shipyards at Hamburg, the naval base at Kiel, commercial docks at Emden and Lubbeck and many other industrial targets in Germany.

A reminder that "the peace of the world is a missionary aim of the church" came from the Vatican in a radio broadcast in English by Pope Pius XII appealing to Americans to open up their purses liberally to "help rebuild what has been damaged and to reassure those who are discouraged."

Auto Hits Freight; Boy, 18, Is Killed

HEARNE —(P)—Billie Mullin, Jr., 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mullin of Branchville, Milam county, was killed when the car in which he was riding crashed with a freight train at a Valley Junction crossing.

Curtis McClendon, 24, of Branchville, driver of the car, escaped with bruises.

Boosters Call Initial Meeting Monday

McALLEN — Organization of a booster organization for the McAllen high school band will be initiated at a meeting to be held Monday night at the junior high school auditorium following a concert by the band.

Members of the committee heading the project, Mrs. W. R. Bond, Mrs. L. C. Wurtz and Mrs. Orpha Dougherty, outlined preliminary plans for the boosters club at a meeting the past week. The new unit will be separate from the Band Mothers' club and will be open to all citizens, where they have children in the band or not.

The committee said financial backing was not one of the major aims of the new club.

The Monday night concert will start at 8 p. m.

Connally Invited To Give Campaign View

MARLIN, Tex. —(P)—Senator Tom Connally (D-Tex.), vacationing at his home here, announced he had accepted an invitation to discuss Democratic campaign plans with Edward J. Flynn, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, in New York next week.

Brazil has more iron resources than any other country in the world.

the canal was emphasized by a British tabulation of losses inflicted by the British Mediterranean fleet in 23 weeks of smashing at Italy's seapower.

Twenty-one of Mussolini's reported fleet of 100 submarines, at least 10 of his destroyers and the world's speediest cruiser, the 5,069-ton Bartolomeo Colleoni, have been sent to the bottom since June 11, the British reported. Moreover, they said, seven Italian supply ships and one depot vessel have been destroyed, along with 28 bombing planes.

9 Subs Hit
In addition, nine submarines were listed as probably sunk and the tabulation showed three cruisers and one battleship severely damaged.

The British declared the only reason heavier losses have not been delivered lies in the indisposition of the Italians to risk a battle.

Japs May Get Oil From Dutch Indies

TOKYO —(P)—The newspaper Asahi reported in a dispatch from Batavia conclusion of an agreement governing oil exports from the Netherlands East Indies to Japan. No details were given. A Japanese mission has been in Batavia for some time discussing all phases of economic relations between the two countries.

Brownsville Greets Sub

Crowds lined the main dock at the Port of Brownsville Saturday to get a view of the sub Tautog (extreme right), one of Uncle Sam's newest overseas crafts, and the Destroyer Bainbridge (to rear of sub). Even larger crowds are expected Sunday.

Subs never fail to attract the attention of landlubbers, and the Tautog (above) proved no exception when it was tied up to the Port of Brownsville Saturday.

OBITUARY

L. P. PECK

McALLEN — L. P. Peck, 80, former pioneer resident of San Antonio, and a resident of McAllen for the past six years died at a San Antonio hospital Saturday morning.

Mr. Peck with his wife went to San Antonio Tuesday night to enter a hospital there.

Prior to coming to the Valley Mr. Peck had lived in San Antonio for 50 years. He was formerly the owner of the Peck Furniture Company there.

He is survived by his wife and two nephews, Simon Frank of Chicago, Leonard Frank of Houston. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolf of McAllen went to San Antonio Saturday to attend the funeral. The funeral will be held Monday at 10 a.m. at the Hagey-McCollum Funeral Home.

San Benito Man Is Injured In Mishap

McALLEN — Gerald Harbert, San Benito was in McAllen Hospital Saturday with a broken left ankle as result of a collision between his motorcycle and a car driven by Luis Sanchez, McAllen, at 8 p.m. at Second street and the highway east on the Pharr road.

Sanchez was not hurt. City Officer Richard Bales said a hearing would probably be held Monday in the case. The accident occurred as Sanchez' car attempted a left turn.

Judge Allred Closes Federal Court

BROWNSVILLE — Geronimo Ramos and Jose Castillo received 30-day jail sentences Saturday in the federal court here on charges of unlawfully entering the United States and smuggling foreign liquor into the country.

Judge James V. Allred closed the one-day session Saturday afternoon after passing on 33 cases charging violation of the United States immigration regulations.

Hearing on bankruptcy plea of Willy County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1 was continued until November 18 session of court at Corpus Christi on petition of plaintiff.

Judge Allred denied a petition for a new trial in Texas Agricultural Association of Edinburg, et al., versus Hidalgo County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1, et al. Petition was presented by plaintiff.

Ellis Island Chief Speaker At Meeting Of Valley's Patrol

McALLEN — Seventy Valley border patrolmen, immigration and naturalization inspectors met at Casa de Palmas Hotel here Saturday night to hear Edward Zucker, New York City, president of the National Immigration Inspectors' Association, speak on recent modifications of immigration laws, need of close surveillance on the border and legislation affecting the personnel of the two services.

Zucker is inspector in charge of the immigration and naturalization service at Ellis Island, New York. He is on a tour of the southern border. He will leave Sunday for Laredo where he will hold a similar meeting.

Mandatory 14-Cent Fee Law Is Mapped By Texas Sheriffs

DALLAS —(P)— Legislation intended to make mandatory the payment by the state of 14 cents per capita to the district clerks and sheriffs of Texas counties in all criminal cases, the money to be paid directly into the county depositories, was mapped by officials of the Texas District and County Clerks Association here Saturday.

Object of the legislation is to increase the revenue to counties from the state, and enable them to get back on a paying basis. District Clerk Gene Alexander of Tarrant county, chairman of the legislative committee, said.

DUST BOWL IN LESS DANGER

Southern Plains Are Suffering Most

WACO—(P)—The dust bowl area as a whole is in less danger of severe blowing than for several years, the quarterly report of the Southern Great Plains Agricultural Council said Saturday.

The decline was pronounced in Arkansas, Oklahoma and Colorado but the acreage in condition to blow increased in Texas and New Mexico because of unfavorable conditions, the report added.

"The center of the dust bowl has swung to the southern part of the southern grain plains this year," the council said. Shifts in rainfall resulted in this movement.

"Feed supplies are not adequate to meet livestock demands in most of the Texas Panhandle, Northeast New Mexico, Western Oklahoma east of the Panhandle and in a small North-Central Kansas area," the report said. "Surplus feed supplies exist in most of Eastern Colorado and Western Kansas."

Brazil borders every country in South America with the exceptions of Chile and Ecuador.

Hollywood's Astrologist Dares Roosevelt Triumph

McALLEN—Franklin D. Roosevelt's election to the much debated "third term" is a certainty, in the opinion of George Dares, noted Hollywood astrologer for many of the nation's stars, who is in the Valley for a brief visit. Wendell Willkie will be lucky if he carries "a few states," and "Henry Wallace will be the United States' first dictator within two and one-half years."

Dares avers it's in the nominees' stars.

Coming a little closer to home, he predicted a great future for the Valley, which is now "where California was 30 years ago," and foretold the time when Corpus Christi would be taking the credit from Houston for the state's largest city.

Comparing Willkie's and McNary's stars, Dares claims the Republican party picked the wrong horse to carry them to the tape line. Had McNary been seeking the presidency he would have carried the country by storm while no one could have whipped the McNary-Cordell Hull combine, Dares contends.

The astrologer, who tosses off the names of the country's socially, economically and politically outstanding persons with ease is a voluble talker. Short, rather slightly built with greying hair, he declares he is a theosophist, the reincarnation of a great sociologist of the far distant past, brought back to the world to work out its problems.

He is an "engineer of the heavens" by his own definition.

The turmoil of the world now was nothing unexpected to him. Twenty years ago when still a budding astrologer, he said he told William Randolph Hearst about England's coming helplessness, the rise of a United States of Europe under one leader—he did not mention whom, labor trouble in the United States of America, war, horror and widespread suffering from which a new world would arise.

Looking ahead 50 years, Dares forecasts a change of site for the Vatican from Rome to some place in Spain. "Spain will become the seat of the Roman Catholic Empire," he said, "while Italy will be agnostic."

Dares will leave here Sunday

SAFETY SALLY DANCE SLATED

Benefit At McAllen To Raise Funds

EDINBURG—Members of the Edinburg 20-30 club will sponsor a Halloween dance the night of October 26 to raise funds for maintenance of Safety Sally signs in the Rio Grande Valley.

Scott Toothacker of Edinburg, club member, said the dance will take place at Club Royale, McAllen. Advance tickets are being sold at one dollar, while a charge of $1.10 per couple will be made at the dance. A San Marcos orchestra will provide the music.

All other 20-30 club members of the Valley are invited to attend the event, Toothacker said. A number of Safety Sally signs have been damaged since they were placed near scores of Valley schools, he explained. In some instances they have been knocked down by motorists, while some have been damaged by being blown down by the wind. On some of the signs, a different type of supporting base will be constructed.

for San Antonio, returning to Hollywood within a few weeks.

FORTY MILLION DOLLAR AIRPORT SHORT ON SOFAS

NEW YORK —(P)—With all its elaborate trappings, New York's $40,000,000 LaGuardia Field doesn't please Mrs. Ambrose Diehl of San Francisco. It lacks a sofa.

Waiting for a plane, she felt the weakening effects of donating a pint of blood to a blood bank for British wounded, and couldn't find a place to lie down.

"I'll buy a cot or chaise longue or something and send it to the airport as soon as I get back," she said, after accepting a chair in the press room.

CITRUS MEET SET TUESDAY FOR M'ALLEN

Institute To Conduct Valley Session

DONNA—Public discussion of the condition of the citrus industry and market will mark a meeting of Valley citrus growers at Legion Hall here Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The meeting has been called by the Texas Citriculture Institute, Mrs. J. R. Ragland of the organization committee announced Saturday.

Progress made to date by the institute will be explained and each grower will be given the opportunity to express himself on the progress made, offering his suggestion of remedies.

The aim of the institute is, Mrs. Ragland said, to get growers united in order to stabilize prices and improve all conditions pertaining to the industry. Mrs. Ragland said growers are being urged to hold their fruit to keep the market from being flooded with a subsequent drop in prices.

It is hoped to obtain legislation before the coming legislature in January that will allow the commissioner of agriculture to set a minimum price on fruit on the tree.

Rape Charged

Donna Man Is Held In Alleged Attack

EDINBURG—George Gorman, 47, of Donna, was held in the Hidalgo county jail Saturday on a statutory charge of rape, based on a complaint filed in Justice of the Peace J. Loy Ramsour's court here.

Gorman is alleged to have committed the offense upon a 14-year-old Donna school girl.

The defendant is being held to the grand jury, which may convene next week.

Constable Harvey Klemens of Donna, Deputy Sheriff Roy Teer and Assistant District Attorney Jack Ross and Hollis Rankin of Edinburg investigated the case.

Former Official Is Sued For Damages

EDINBURG—Damages totalling $12,000.75 are asked by Dena Comins, 16-year-old McAllen school girl, and her father of J. J. It's Time To Transplant Shrubs And Flowers; Concentrate On Tropicals

Dwarf evergreens, although not a native plant, are still among the most popular used in the Valley for ornamental purposes. Here are a few growing between citrus trees at Pletcher's.

Pletcher Gives Dope On What And When To Plant

EDITOR'S NOTE: This article serves a dual purpose—it gives timely advice to home owners interested in gardening and landscaping, and it introduces George H. Pletcher, Jr., who will write a column each Sunday on those topics.

HARLINGEN—Now is the time to plant certain flowers and move plants and shrubs. The recent cold spell officially opens the "season" for gardeners, because plants which die of injuries during the hot weather, now may be moved without harm.

That's what George H. Pletcher, Jr., says and he ought to know. You can set out all plants except those which lose their leaves, such as crepe myrtle, azalea, and mesquite. It will be better to wait until colder weather in December or January to move them. Even though you mustn't meddle with that type, there are over one hundred others that CAN be moved now.

Transplant These Bougainvillea, hibiscus, esperanza, acalypha, jasmine and bird of paradise are just a few of the plants that can be successfully set out now. Poinsettias can be set out and they'll grow, but it's too late to set them out and expect them to bloom by Christmas.

And if you're a rose fan, wait until November or January to plant them. That will give them sufficient time to get well "rooted" before summer. Again we say Pletcher ought to know, because he sells between 20,000 and 25,000 bushes each year. Rose bushes can be pruned now, but don't cut too closely—just trim off the dead wood and old stalks, and be sure to use fertilizer.

Before going on with the lesson, meet young Pletcher, one of the Valley's most successful nurserymen.

Several years ago, his father specialized in citrus orchards and palm growing and had acreage scattered about Harlingen. Just as a hobby, he planted a large rose garden which became so attractive and had so many roses that people got into the habit of heading for Pletcher's to get free bouquets for all purposes. George decided they ought to sell the flowers, but his father disagreed until angered one afternoon when a gentleman came out and actually stripped the rose garden clean to obtain enough flowers for some big occasion. Then Mr. Pletcher told George and his brother Bill to go ahead and sell the things.

First Nursery The boys printed a sign, and Pletcher's ornamental Nursery was born. The first year they sold quite a few flowers; next year they sold flowers and plants; the following year they plucked, and stocked heavily on bushes, sold them all.

Pletcher's have a record, starting with that first year, which probably no other Valley business firm can challenge: They have shown an increase in business EVERY MONTH for ten consecutive years. Sometimes the increase wasn't large, but it was always an increase.

George modestly attributes this remarkable record to two things: First, consistent advertising; and second, the growth of the Valley. When George went off to college, he knew exactly what he wanted to study. For four years, he specialized in landscaping and in the study of plants and soil treatment. Since that time he has continued to study and has experimented stubbornly with new plants in the Valley.

It's A Profession "Landscaping is a profession," he says. "You have to study it, then continue to work at it."

The Valley presents peculiar angles in landscaping. We should concentrate on tropical and semi-tropical plants and trees and flowers. Take palms, for example. Tourists like palms, and even though we sometimes get tired of them, let's remember that our tourists, who bring an increasingly large amount of money here each year, must be pleased. Let's plant plenty of palms. There are many types to choose from, and we needn't stick to the old standard types seen so frequently."

He also pointed out that a mistake has been made in planting of palms. "Tall fan palms should not be planted in the front yard, or along the sidewalk," he points out. "Plant smaller ornamental palms in front, and plant your tall palms along the alley, or in the back yard, so your house is properly framed."

This is George H. Pletcher, Jr. showing a cocoon palm sprouting from a seed he brought from Florida. He says they will grow here, but are not practical. At the right is a palm he says is splendid for ornamental purposes here—the cocoon plumosus.

He says they have sold over a half million palm trees in South Texas in the last few years. San Antonio, Houston, and Corpus Christi are annual customers, for their palms die of the cold and need replacing.

The palm had started not many years ago during the boom days when land promoters lined their citrus orchards with palms just for the effect it had on prospects. Literally millions of palms were set out during those days, and the idea has spread until now everyone has a palm or two about the place.

The Valley is fortunate in being able to grow so many types of plants, he adds. We can grow evergreens that Florida can't, and we can also grow just about everything Florida can except coconuts and certain types of palms grown in the Everglades. Things can be grown cheaper here, too.

Experiments On Natives Bamboo is another plant being used more and more for decorative purposes. He is experimenting now with mazzanita (small apple), lantana, cenizo, and many other wild plants and trees he has found in Valley woods. He gets a good strain

Farmers May Apply For Small Loans

HARLINGEN—Emergency crop loans for the production of winter vegetables and other crops are now available to Valley farmers and applications are being received by Eugene Torbett, field supervisor for the emergency crop and feed loan section of the Farm Credit Administration. Torbett's office is in the Harlingen irrigation district office.

These loans will be made, as in the past, only to those farmers whose cash requirements are small and who cannot obtain a loan from any other source, including production credit associations, banks or other private concerns or individuals.

As in former years, the money loaned will be limited to the applicant's necessary cash needs in preparing his land for seeding his 1940 crops. Borrowers who obtain loans for the production of these crops are required to give as security a first lien on the crop financed.

Draft Board Talk

Raymondville Club Hears Member

RAYMONDVILLE—M. J. Glarner, member of the Willacy County Draft Board, spoke at Rotary club luncheon Wednesday on the functions of the board: what had to be done, and how it was to be accomplished. He announced headquarters for the draft board would be in the Lindahl building on West Hidalgo avenue.

Three members were named on the boys' work committee: Frank Williams, Foster Crowell and Willie Elliott.

A committee for repair work on Rotary highway signs included Jack Scott and Johnny Sereto.

Crowds Expected To See Visiting Vessels

BROWNSVILLE—Local officials made preparations Saturday to take care of a crowd of several thousand Valleyites expected here Sunday to see the United States submarine Tautog and the United States destroyer Bainbridge which arrived at Port of Brownsville at 10:30 a.m. Saturday.

A dinner dance and reception were scheduled at Fort Brown Saturday night as entertainment for officers of the two vessels, and enlisted men of the destroyer and submarine were to be entertained with a dance at the Rio Grande Yacht Club.

Blay Baseball Sunday Teams representing the vessels will tangle in a baseball game Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the Port of Brownsville.

The Yacht Club held open house all day Saturday and will follow the same policy Sunday so that the general public may meet the naval men.

A committee headed by Mayor Royce Russell extended Brownsville's welcome to Lt. J. H. Willingham, Jr., commanding officer of the submarine, and to Lt. Commander E. P. Grehan, who commands the Bainbridge, upon arrival of the two vessels.

The sub carries a complement of 54 men and five officers. The Bainbridge carries seven officers and 112 enlisted men.

Entertained At Port Col. and Mrs. Arthur E. Wilbourn were to entertain officers of the two vessels at a dinner party in the commandant's quarters at Fort Brown Saturday at 7 p.m. Capt. and Mrs. C. L. Darling of Fort Brown were also to be guests.

After the dinner, naval officers were to attend an invitational dance and reception given at the Fort Brown Club by post officers and their guests.

Vessels Leave Monday H. L. Stokely, chairman of the chamber of commerce military and naval affairs committee, said the Tautog and Bainbridge will remain here until 2 p.m. Monday, when they will depart for Savannah, Ga.

Navy Mothers clubs of the Valley assisted the yacht club members in arrangements for the dance to be held Saturday night in honor of the enlisted men. Dr. O. F. Calderoni and R. W. Pitts headed the Yacht Club committee, while Mrs. Roy Shulls and Mrs. W. D. Bennett were in charge for the Navy Mothers.

New Science Club Forms At McAllen

McALLEN—Organization of the Thomas A. Edison Science Club of McAllen high school is in progress. Instructors Charles Cameron and Elmer Rollins announced Saturday.

Subdivisions of the club will be devoted to camera, finger-printing, airplane and museum clubs. Any student from 12 to 18 years of age, interested in science is invited to join.

The club will be associated with the American Institute of Science and Engineering Clubs of New York and is affiliated with the Texas Junior Academy of Science, which is affiliated with the Texas Senior Academy of Science.

BUTCHERS OF FRANCE REBEL

Meat Tax Leads To Open Revolt

GENEVA, Switzerland —(AP)—Thirty belligerent butchers in the little French mountain town of Belley went to jail Saturday, giving the first definite hint of a civil disobedience campaign which for some time has been reported spreading through France.

Publication of the official version of the Belley battle in censored newspapers throughout southwestern France showed that authorities were acutely conscious of the implications. Belley is in unoccupied France near the Swiss border.

The butchers, it was reported met Thursday night and decided the Vichy government's new meat tax was the last straw. The next day every butcher shop in Belley was closed.

When police ordered them to reopen, they refused. This morning they all went to jail.

"This is only the beginning," they announced from their cells.

"What you Americans call 'the gag,' no?"

FOREIGN VISITORS in America find it hard to believe scenes like this. They think such things are deliberately arranged to impress them. They cannot believe it happens every day in every state in the Union.

Well, it is something you won't see anywhere in the world except in America. For only in America does the working man enjoy a standard of living that permits so many employees to roll up to their jobs on the wheels of their own automobiles!

What our foreign visitors fail to understand is that in America people go up as prices go down. For we're quick to reflect improved conditions, quick to step up to better living when lowered prices make it possible for us to do so.

Take electric service. Each year America enjoys a rapidly increasing number of the good things electric service buys. This is possible because rates have been reduced to about 50% of what they were ten or twelve years ago.

And because, with our modern rates, the dollar buys twice as much electricity as it used to, millions of people can escape from the humdrum drudgery of house work, are free to enjoy more leisure time, can taste to the full the joys of better living.

We of the electric industry have worked hard to free the factory worker from manual labor, and home makers from hard work—to put such things as easy washing, cool ironing, good lighting within the reach of every family.

We pledge ourselves to continue our work of bringing to you the means of better living at lower cost.

At morning service Reverend Carver will speak on "Life in a Cemetery." Music will include Schach's "Legende," Mozart's "Alleluia," anthem, quartette and chorus from the Cantata Calvary; Greg's Festive March. Foster Tobbe will be at the N. A. Davidson, Jr., Memorial Organ console.

Final Scout School Is Set For Willacy

RAYMONDVILLE — The third and last study in the training school on "Elements of Scoutmastership" will be held on Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the courthouse, under direction of Arnold H. Dreyer, Valley scout executive.

Roger Robinson, chairman of advancement of the Willacy county district council also announces a "peanut pushing" contest. The losing patrols will entertain the winners.

Good Will Tour Is Slated To Willamar

RAYMONDVILLE — The chamber of commerce is sponsoring a good will tour and meeting in Willamar at the school on Monday evening, 21st, at 7:30.

The Department of Agriculture will present a picture show on "Pink Boll Worm." Foster Crowell will address the assembly on "Neighbors." Miss Annie Lee Hatchett will sing a group of popular songs accompanied by Miss Marion Shrader.

Fifty Men Enlisted For Defense Guard

SAN BENITO — Captain Harry J. Harris said Saturday that 50 men had enlisted in the San Benito unit of the Texas Defense Guard. The initial registration session was held Thursday night at the American Legion hall. The principal speaker at the meeting was Lieut. Col. Harry M. Carroll. Full strength of the unit will be 74 men and three officers. The officers named by Governor O'Daniel with Captain Harris are First Lieut. W. J. Kohlmeier and Second Lieut. R. J. Bohner.

Two Men Are Fined On Assault Charge

EDCOUCH — Ruben and Rene Flores, accused of assault and battery, drew fines of $5 and costs each before Justice of the Peace W. K. Galbreath of Edcouch. They entered guilty pleas after Assistant District Attorney George Brown appeared in court to prosecute the cases.

A jury in Justice T. J. Fikes' court at Mercedes acquitted Vicente F. Howell on a charge of drunkenness in a public place.

Colorful Rio Grande Valley Show At State Fair Attracts Movie Makers, Photographers

DALLAS — Motion pictures in color were made of the Valley exhibit at the Dallas State Fair last week. The James Co., making pictures for national distribution, drove a truck into the exhibit hall and spent two hours filming the Valley booth.

Mrs. Paul T. Vickers, manager of the booth for the Valley Secretaries Association, was dressed in china pobano costume, and Dallas girls and boys assisting were dressed in colorful costumes and ate Valley grapefruit as the picture was made. Deep blush grapefruit was sliced and filmed.

More than 30 newspapers or commercial photographers took photos of the Valley exhibit, besides hundreds of kodak shots. Three Dallas papers have already run pictures.

Mrs. Vickers was guest speaker at the Denton Kiwanis Club luncheon last Tuesday and served Valley grapefruit juice furnished by South Texas Cannery Association members. She described Valley citrus as "showing by actual laboratory test the highest juice and sugar content of any grown in America." She also gave two demonstrations of the superiority of Valley grapefruit at one of Dallas' largest and most fashionable groceries. On display at this store was a box of grapefruit from the Isle of Pines, selling at $8 per box.

From the supply of fruit generously sent by individuals, citrus packers, and chambers of commerce, a prize basket of fruit was awarded at a flower show at the fair. Members of the Texas Press Association were served Valley grapefruit juice, and this was expected to get much publicity for the Valley.

John N. Hager, Weslaco, president of the Valley Secretaries Association, expressed appreciation of the chambers of commerce at Brownsville, Mission, Edinburg, Raymondville, Port Isabel, San Benito, Harlingen, Mercedes, Weslaco, Donna, McAllen, and the Kiwanis Club at Pharr and Civic Luncheon Club at Rio Grande City for the cooperation of the growers, canners and packers.

J. R. Padgett of Weslaco assisted at the Valley's booth one day when the crowds were extra large, and C. E. Kerns, annual winter visitor, and volunteer assistant manager of the booth, talked so much on the assets of the Valley, he literally had to leave the exhibit hall on "Dallas Day" to let his jaws rest.

State Fair officials will honor the Valley booth with a special program Sunday, final day of the fair. A stage will be built in front of the booth and the Brown Dance Studio of Dallas will present ensembles and specialty numbers. George Newman, concert artist, will be heard, and the official State Fair band will play a 30-minute concert.

Mrs. Vickers will make a five-minute talk on the Valley. Each hour Sunday, 25 grapefruit will be thrown to the crowd and literature on the Valley will be distributed. Last Thursday, 98 small cans of Valley grapefruit juice were distributed to Confederate Veterans and their wives, who proclaimed the juice the best they had ever tasted.

Tautog's Second-In-Command Turns Out To Be Nephew Of Pan American Mechanic Stationed At Brownsville

BROWNSVILLE — George D. Jones, Pan American Airways mechanic, went out to the port Saturday afternoon to look over the submarine Tautog.

One of the officers on the deck of the sub looked vaguely familiar to him. He asked a gob who the officer was, and was told that it was Lieutenant "Eddie" Carmick, second in command of the under-seas craft.

Jones maneuvered up close and said: "Lieutenant Carmick, do you know who I am?"

"Your face seems familiar," the officer answered, "but I can't place you."

"Well," Jones retorted, "you ought to be able to, because I'm your uncle." And so he was.

They had met last in San Diego in 1932.

Jones will take the naval officer for a tour of the Valley Sunday.

Carl Blasig Speaker At Halliburtons

MERCEDES — More than 100 persons are expected to attend the tri-monthly meeting and dinner of the Rio Grande Valley Boosters club, employees of the Missouri Pacific Railway, at Halliburton's Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

Jimmie Fitzgerald of Mercedes, chief booster, will act as master of ceremonies. G. C. Kennedy of Kingsville, division superintendent; Guy Wilson of Harlingen, division passenger agent; W. G. Choate, manager of the Houston division, and other Missouri Pacific Railway officials have been invited.

Carl A. Blasig, manager of the Mercedes Chamber of Commerce, will be the principal speaker while entertainment will be furnished by Jo Nell Wittenbach, 9-year-old Harlingen accordion player, and by a variety of other talent. The program and entertainment has been arranged by Walter Bunge of Harlingen, assistant chief booster, and by Lee Bourg, secretary of the Boosters club.

Among some of the oldest boosters, whose names are also listed among the outstanding pioneers of the Lower Rio Grande Valley, are W. M. Hundley, agent at Harlingen; G. K. Riess, agent at Mercedes; and J. D. Patrick, trainmaster of the Kingsville division.

The boosters organization, which has been in existence for approximately a decade, is one of the important cogs in the business and social life of the railroad in this area.

Californians Show Up Without Coats As Mercury Rises

LOS ANGELES — Southern Californians showed up for work countless Saturday as the Weather Bureau indicated a break in a heat wave which has sent temperatures past the 100 degree mark could be expected Sunday.

Friday's 97 in Los Angeles was 21 degrees above the normal October mark and the highest of the year here. The previous high, 96, was registered in April.

Highest reading was 102, reported from nearby San Gabriel.

Courts Active

Four Cases Decided At McAllen

McALLEN — Four court cases were heard Saturday morning by McAllen judges.

In city court R. Rusk of Donna pleaded guilty to two violations of the law of the road and had two stubs removed from his driver's license by City Judge C. D. Martin. The fine was $20. City Patrolman Richard Bales filed the complaint. Saturnino Garza was fined $5 on a drunk in a public place charge filed by Patrolman Dan Hawkins.

Two men were remanded to county jail by Justice of the Peace T. W. Kelly for failure to pay their fines. They were Joseph J. Fitzgerald, drunk and disturbing the peace by mooching, $10, and costs ($25.40) and P. G. Warbington, drunk in a public place, $10 and costs ($25.40).

Louisiana Governor Said Seeking Power

NEW ORLEANS — "Reform" Governor Sam Jones, who smashed the 12-year rule of the Huey P. Long dynasty, was charged Saturday with attempting to set up a dictatorship in Louisiana.

Former Governor Earl K. Long, Huey's brother, and Attorney James H. Morrison of Hammond, unsuccessful candidates for governor against Jones in primaries earlier this year, said the chief executive hoped to gain autocratic powers through a constitutional amendment up for vote November 5.

Houston Pastor Opens Brownsville Revival

BROWNSVILLE — Rev. Oscar Smith of Houston will open a series of gospel sermons in Brownsville next Tuesday. He will preach daily at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. at the Church of Christ, 14th and Grant streets, and over Station KGFI at 6:15 p. m., concluding the series of November 3.

"We have no creed but the Christ, no book but the Bible, no name but the Divine," Rev. Smith said. The sermons are open to the public.

IBC FLOODWAY BIDS OPENED

Called Monday For Llano Grande

MERCEDES — Bids for the construction and reconstruction of the Mercedes section of the North Floodway from the intersection at Llano Grande to the Baseline Road, will be opened at the International Boundary Commission office at San Benito at 2 p. m. Monday, according to information received by Mercedes Chamber of Commerce officials from J. L. Lytle, chief IBC engineer. The bids will be forwarded to the International Boundary Commission at El Paso for letting of contract.

This project, which is located immediately west of Mercedes, will involve the construction and reconstruction of about 2.9 miles of channel, 10.5 miles of levees, a paved road crossing and a timber bridge. It will necessitate the clearing and grubbing of 1,300 acres of right of way.

MINISTER TO RETURN
McALLEN — Rev. F. H. Hamner, pastor of the McAllen Methodist Church, is expected to return Monday night from San Antonio, where he is attending the annual Methodist conference.

Miss Fristoe Is Named 'Lady Of Mirror' At McAllen High

The senior class earned the right to select the "Lady of the Mirror" because they purchased the largest number of yearbooks in proportion to size of the class, Editor Dorothy Stepp explained. Seniors sold 48 per cent of their class, juniors 33 and sophomores nine per cent.

Seniors are to have their pictures taken Wednesday, the juniors on Thursday and sophomores on Friday. Picture Editor Junior Britton said the annual staff was considering bids from the city's photographers to take the class pictures.

Annuals are still being sold, said Co-Business Manager Johnnie Earl Suttle. I. O. U's will be accepted until January 15, when the notes will be due and cash will be accepted until March 1, when the final printing order must go to the publisher.

Richard Wiesehan won the sales contest by selling 42 yearbooks. George Strohmeier was in second place.

Concert By Cardinal Band To Be Tuesday

HARLINGEN — The Harlingen high school band will be presented in a concert of several numbers at a special called meeting of the Band Boosters club to be held at 7 p. m. Tuesday in the high school auditorium. Phil Murray is director.

Wallace P. Broussard, booster president, said that all the parents of children in any of the three school bands as well as faculty members and all others interested in seeing Harlingen get a bigger and better band organization are urged to attend.

ROAD CHIEF NAMED

BAIRD, Tex. — (P) — The North-South Highway Association Thursday elected W. H. Wright, manager of the Vernon Chamber of Commerce, its new president.

VALLEY SCOUT DEFENSE PLAN TAKING SHAPE

Roll Call Projects To Be Held Soon

McALLEN—Boy Scouts of America are undertaking a program of wholehearted cooperation with the national defense program, Vance D. Raimond, president of the Lower Rio Grande Valley Boy Scout Council, announced Saturday.

"The council is fully aware of the need for adequate preparedness in the present national emergency," Raimond said. "We take pleasure in joining with the citizenship education service and other national organizations in sounding a call to all our members and to all our fellow citizens to arouse themselves to vitalize the ideals of American democracy."

Roll Call Planned

All Valley Boy Scout and cub troops are asked to cooperate with the council in a Valley-wide roll call and troop inventory during the week of Nov. 3 as a sign of the council's cooperation with the national defense program.

N. P. Barton, Jr. of Mercedes was appointed general chairman of the local emergency service program. In each district a special roll call officer will be appointed while every scout has been asked to notify troop members of the roll call date, urging them to attend the troop meeting.

Upon completion of the roll call results troops will be encouraged to develop their membership to the maximum number of 32 boys; leaders found to be eligible for immediate government service will be requested to train a successor so that the scouting program will not suffer from lack of proper leadership. E. H. Moody, Upper Valley scout executive, said.

Mobilization will be held in each community following the roll call. Through this mobilization the efficiency of each troop will be tested in a emergency call.

Emergency Corps

Under the leadership of local scoutmasters and centered about the senior scouting units through the Valley, an emergency service corps is being organized. Outlining the need for an emergency service corps, Barton said, "Since the motto of the Boy Scouts of America is 'Be Prepared,' every scout and scoutmaster must take advantage of each opportunity to better train himself to be of service to his country and his fellow citizens. While we sincerely hope our country will be spared actual participation in war or any actual service by the emergency service corps, we know that no part of America is completely free from unexpected disaster and catastrophe."

All boys eligible for the corps will be trained in special skills such as first aid, first fighting, and life saving to enable them to be of service in any type of disaster.

The Valley council is also undertaking an extensive training program for scouters so that each troop may have at least one trained leader to more effectively administer the program of scouting during the present emergency.

No Program Change

Arnold H. Dreyer, council scout executive, emphasized that no change is being made in the program of the Boy Scouts while the unit is doing its part toward strengthening democracy.

Dreyer cites the constitution and by law of scouting, "In carrying out the purpose of the Boy Scout movement technical military training and drill shall not be included for the reason that they are not equal in value nor as training for boys of scout age in training for good citizenship as the program of scout activities."

Denial Of Contracts Is Pushed By Union

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A renewed drive to compel the denial of defense contracts to firms held by the labor board to be Wagner Act violators was reported undertaken today by the CIO at a national defense commission labor conference.

Reliable informants said CIO's steel workers organizing committee, now engaged in a campaign to organize Bethlehem Steel Company's mills and shipyards, criticized the defense commission's labor policy and asked for a "stronger" stand against firms involved in labor board orders.

Base For Clippers Is Hit By Typhoon

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Wake Island, mid-Pacific base of Pan American's clipper ships, was hit late Friday by a 100-mile-an-hour typhoon, the weather bureau here was advised.

Simultaneously, Pan American officials announced they had no radio contact between the island and the San Francisco station for more than three hours. They considered it likely that Wake's radio equipment had been damaged. To the best of Pan America's knowledge, none of the clipper ships were in the path of the typhoon.

Distillate, Among South Texas' Greatest Natural Resources, Finally Coming Into Own In This Area

McALLEN—One of the South Texas' greatest undeveloped natural resources, distillate, appears to be coming into its own at last.

For the past several years, a considerable number of wildcaters, both majors and independents, have been drilling into high-pressure, gas-distillate formations whose gas pressure was well-nigh uncontrollable or which, if controlled, caused their mud bills to mount sky-high. Then, with everything once more under control, the gas-oil ratio was so high that production of the wells was either denied completely or else limited only to the recovery made possible from the sale of gas. In many cases, discovery of a big gas-distillate field became a "white elephant" of major magnitude, due to the physical and financial disgust of the operator. But the steady South Texas wildcatting campaign yielded more and more distillate and more and more disgust in view of the tremendous cost of processing installations which could strip the distillate or condensate from the gas and then force the gas back into the formation to comply with Texas Railroad Commission regulations against the wastage of natural gas.

"White Gold" Now

But recycling gradually crept into South Texas and now promises to turn several "white elephants" into "white gold." At least, several operators are now ready to bet $5,000,000 in further long-time investments that distillate can be turned into something more valuable than the previously experienced headaches.

Thus it is that at least six of these highly expensive, highly technical, highly valuable recycling plants are now assured in Jim Wells County, Duval, Starr and Hidalgo Counties. It is not at all improbable that as many more may be built within the next two years, depending, of course, upon the quality and quantity of the distillate recovery per million cubic feet of gas processed.

About ready to start operations, is the first of this group of plants, starting an entire new industry for Texas' southernmost counties. It is the unit of W. R. Davis, Inc., located about five miles south of Alice, Jim Wells County, set on U. S. 281, just completed at a cost approximating $1,000,000. The plant is several weeks late getting started because of a blowout in one of the 11 wells whose production will be handled by the plant. It is located in what is known as the Alice gas field, in which distillate and high gas pressure had disappointed several operators. Came the recycling plant and Jim Wells County added a brand new industry, probably the largest in the county with the single exception of regular oil development itself. The plant suffered rather heavy damage because of the blowout in a water well on the plant grounds but most of this has been repaired and operations are expected to start soon.

To Start Second

W. R. Davis, Inc., is now preparing to start construction on a second recycling unit in the great Rincon field in eastern Starr County. As in many other wildcats drilled in the Lower Rio Grande Valley area, the first operators found high gas pressure and water-white distillate in deep sands. The first three or four wells drilled in the Rincon area were wrecked, and the operators pulled off in disgust. Then the property was sold to the Davis firm. A steady drilling campaign was begun underground formation from which it came originally. The photo was made about six weeks ago when a water well on the Davis plant grounds ran wild and threatened destruction of portions of the plant. In the foreground is some of the mud and water from the wild well, since controlled. This plant cost about $1,000,000.

through casing and from the 7,800-foot sand through tubing, the first of four compressor units for the plant is now being installed and will handle approximately 15,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily. At least four units will be installed to bring the plant capacity to 60,000,000 cubic feet daily as additional wells are drilled. It is not known how many wells will be drilled in the field. This plant is expected to cost about $500,000.

Half Million Spent

More than $500,000 has already been spent on reworking and re-completing nearly a dozen 7,500-foot and 8,000-foot wells in the La Blanca field in central Hidalgo County, about five miles south of the San Salvador development.

La Blanca was the first major distillate area in the Lower Rio Grande Valley to be proven for production. Since the great blowout and fire which wrecked the discovery well and which burned for five weeks, at least four high-pressure gas-distillate sands have been logged in the field. The greatest and most powerful, from a pressure standpoint, of these sands has never been logged because the pressure is so great that drillers have been unable to drill against it. This sand, nearly 400 feet thick, is found between 8,300 and 8,800 feet. Deepest well in the area reached total depth of 8,888 feet, only after greatest difficulty, then was wrecked by the pressure.

Pantano Petroleum Co. of Houston, drilled the first two wells in the field to prove the area. After several other wells were completed and the field was definitely proven to be a gas-distillate area stretching for more than four miles across a rich citrus and farming area, McCollum Exploration Co. of Houston took over all the wells for reworking and recycling.

Field Was Depleted

The blowout in the discovery well and the field's second and most spectacular blowout and fire completely depleted the field's 7,600-foot gas sand and permitted perhaps the most unique recycling operations in the history of Texas oil fields. Through individual recycling apparatus, designed and built by the McCollum firm, the wells in the field are now recycling themselves under their own pressure. Gas from the deeper sands flows under its own pressure, the distillate is stripped from the flow and the gas, pushed along by the original formation pressure, is replaced in the empty 7,600-foot sand without the use of motor-driven compressors or any other force except that of the original pressure from the deeper sands. Details of this highly technical procedure have not been made public.

Most recent South Texas recycling project to be announced is that of Standard Oil Co. of Texas in the Sejita field in southeastern Duval County. The company completed two producers in a 5,400-foot sand last year and probably will drill several others to outline the size of the producing area. Acreage involved and cost of the project are unknown.

MASS MEETING IS ANNOUNCED

Mercedes To Explain Defense Guard

McALLEN—A mass meeting of Mercedes citizens has been called by the local post of the American Legion for Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in front of the Legion building on Texas avenue, to explain details about the Texas Defense Guard, a unit of which has already been organized at Mercedes.

Several Legion speakers will make brief talks. The Mercedes High School Band will give a concert preceding the program.

Seventy Mercedes citizens volunteered for the home defense service, which will take the place of the National Guard when they go into regular training, during a one-day registration held Wednesday in front of the Legion building. More than 50 per cent of the volunteers were past the draft age while a number of them over 60. "However, we are anxious to secure more volunteers from the ranks of the younger men since only a small number will be selected for regular military training anyway," Herman Suggs, post commander, said. "We are going to continue the registration after the mass meeting Tuesday night."

McAllen Pipeline

City Permits Main From Card Well

McALLEN—McAllen city commission Wednesday night approved a revised ordinance giving permission to the Ontario Oil Co., Ltd., of San Antonio, for construction of a pipeline through the city limits but expressly preventing sale of gas, oil or water to consumers within the city limits.

Bert Blair, engineer for the company, said the line would take gas from the R. E. Harding No. 1 Card well here into industrial consumers as far west of the city as the Rado Refining Company's oil refinery. Blair said he knew nothing of Ontario's plans for local industrial development other than the general area to be served by the new line.

E. A. McDaniel, attorney for the McAllen city utilities board, said the city was proceeding with plans for construction of a municipal gas line to serve industrial plants from the Card well. He pointed out that the Ontario ordinance granted nothing but a right-of-way for that company's line, that it did not receive a franchise to do business in the city and that there was no connection between the two projects. The Ontario permit will run for 30 years and the company has the right to transfer the property if it so desires.

The District of Columbia ranks 37th among the states in population.

MISSION BREAKS NO-FIRE RECORD PAST TWO YEARS

MISSION—Mission's third fire alarm in 24 months Friday broke an all-time record for no fires in any sizable Valley city.

Fire Chief Ray Landry said his department laid fire hose to extinguish flames for the first time in two years when an early morning alarm brought firemen to Dondlinger's Grocery Store. A fire in the store's small warehouse caused the alarm. Most of the damage caused in Friday's fire resulted from smoke.

Only two fire alarms of any kind have been received by the Mission Fire Department during the two-year period which ended Friday, Chief Landry reported.

New Ambassador To Brazil Named

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Itaro Ishii, new Japanese ambassador to Brazil, said Saturday there was "still time and plenty of means to arrive at a peaceful settlement of the issues between Japan and the United States."

Ishii arrived here on the Asama Maru en route to his new post. He was accompanied by Tetsuichi Nakamura, Japanese consul general at large who is to tour the consulates of his nation in North and South America.

The men were among the first to arrive here as representatives of the new regime in Japan.

Ishii quoted Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka as saying there would be no war between the United States and Japan, and that the Germany-Italy-Japan alliance was effected to assure continuance of peace between the two countries. He did not amplify the statement.

HOLIDAY SET AT MERCEDES

Thanksgiving To Be Observed Nov. 28

MERCEDES—Mercedes will observe November 28 as the official Thanksgiving Day this year. This decision was reached after the Mercedes Chamber of Commerce conducted a poll of the merchants recently and found an overwhelming sentiment in favor of the traditional date.

One of the principal reasons for choosing November 28, in preference to the date proclaimed by the president, is because the major football games and other events are scheduled for this day and many citizens have made arrangements to attend these events.

Mayor D. L. Heidrick will issue his annual Thanksgiving proclamation for this date. Word has been received from a number of other Valley towns that they are also planning to observe November 28. Harry Cook, manager of the Raymondville Chamber of Commerce, has advised local officials that Raymondville will observe November 28. The same date has been chosen by San Benito, Harlingen, McAllen and Mission.

HIDALGORED CROSS DRIVE BEGINS SOON

Local Chairmen Will Be Selected

PHARR—Appointment of local chairmen for the annual Hidalgo county Red Cross roll call will be completed within the next few days. Rev. W. W. Stewart, recently named county chairman, announced Saturday.

When local chairmen are named Rev. Stewart will begin a speaking tour before the various county luncheon clubs.

Rev. Stewart was asked by the publicity department of the county organization to speak over the radio and address luncheon clubs as well as manage the actual enrollment of members this year. He will be assisted in county plans by A. M. Kibbutz, Edinburg, general chairman, and Miss Adie Speed, Edinburg, executive secretary.

The Pharr minister has set a goal of 5,000 members for the county this year because of the greatly increased need of Red Cross funds to do war aid work. He suggested that people who heretofore have paid only $1, this year subscribe at least $2 and that persons and firms who each year make much larger subscriptions, try to increase such payments this year to aid the thousands of unfortunates in distress.

DRAFT BOARD USES PERMIT

Traffic Into Mexico Is Allowed

EDINBURG—Registrants in the area served by draft board No. 1 of Hidalgo county are being given written permits for travel into Mexico, W. M. Dougherty, board member, said Saturday.

Board No. 2 at Pharr, which serves another section of the county, ruled last week that draftees in its section might visit border towns in Mexico provided their stays did not exceed one day at a time.

"We have no official ruling on which to work, so we have made out a typed form which we fill in as a permit for those who wish to leave the country temporarily," said Dougherty.

Compilation of a list of serial numbers with names for board No. 1's registrants is being rushed as rapidly as possible, the member said. He does not expect the work to be completed until late next week. No partial lists are being made public.

Frank G. Crow, member of board No. 2 at Pharr, announced that partial lists would be issued at that office as they become available. A total of 2,400 names had been compiled at noon Saturday.

Edcouch Lions Club Selects President

EDCOUCH—W. E. Cooper, local hardware and furniture dealer, was named president of the Edcouch-Lions club at a recent meeting of directors, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of D. E. Hollingsworth, now employed at the First National Bank in Mercedes.

Hidalgo Dairymen Will Hear Eudaly

PHARR—Dairy problems will be discussed at a meeting of Hidalgo county dairymen Wednesday at 8 p. m. at the Kiwanis hall here.

E. R. Eudaly, dairy specialist of the Texas A. & M. extension service, with R. G. Burwell, district agent, will lead the discussion. W. H. Gardner, assistant county farm agent, who will also participate, announced.

CANADA CHIEF VISITING F. D.

Earl Of Athlone Is Week-End Guest

HYDE PARK, N. Y.—(P)—The chief executives of Canada and the United States chatted Saturday night in the privacy of President Roosevelt's country home.

What passed between the President and the Earl of Athlone, the Dominion's governor general, was their secret. But to persons who accompanied the President here from Washington it appeared improbable they would disregard world events and their impact upon the neighbor nations.

It Courtesy Visit

Mr. Roosevelt had termed the Earl's visit a courtesy affair, and White House officials said no important announcements need be expected.

The President arrived from Washington Saturday morning to spend two quiet days before starting next week on campaign trips into Eastern states whose electoral votes might swing the election. He motored to the railway station at nearby Poughkeepsie, where the governor general and his party arrived in two crested private cars attached to a regular train.

Family With Him

The mustached Earl, an uncle of England's King, alighted wearing shaggy tweeds and a white carnation and carrying a cane. His wife, Princess Alice, whose elder daughter, Queen Victoria, and their daughter, Lady Ma Abel Smith, accompanied him.

George T. Summerlin, State Department protocol officer, had no chance to make formal introductions. Seated in an open White House car, the President put out his hand, smiled, and remarked: "How are you, I'm glad to see you."

Once again the Roosevelt home housed members of Britain's ruling family as week end guests. A year ago last June, King George VI and Queen Elizabeth were there. Sunday, as on that occasion, Mr. Roosevelt and his guests will attend morning services at St. James Episcopal church.

Auto Strikes Parked Car On W. Elizabeth

BROWNSVILLE—A car owned by A. O. Reece, Fifth and West Elizabeth, was partly demolished Saturday morning when hit by a car driven by Charles W. Callender, Fort Brown. The damaged car was parked in front of the Reece home. A live blowout caused the Callender car to crash into it, officers said.

State General Fund Still Deeper In Red

AUSTIN—(P)—The state's general fund was in the red $26,986,228 Saturday, an all-time record.

The deficit was $870,950 larger than that of Oct. 5, the previous record.

It was announced in connection with a treasury call for payment of general fund warrants through Nov. 28, 1939.

Nazis Wed Mexicans; Seek Naturalization

MEXICO CITY—(P)—Several German sailors, crew members of two German ships anchored in the East Coast port of Tampico since outbreak of the European war, have married Mexican girls and petitioned the government for naturalization, it was reported here.

Officials considered the issue a delicate one, since the Nazi government expressly forbids Germans to intermarry with "non-Aryan" races. It was feared a diplomatic incident might result if the requests were granted.

Looking For New Way To Serve Wine? Nation's Best Bartenders Evolve Two New Creations In Contest On Coast

LOS ANGELES—(P)—Looking for a new way to serve wine? Here are a pair of prize winners concocted by bartenders in a contest marking National Wine Week.

"The Flirt": Use a 6-inch high ball glass, 1 cube of ice, 1-2 ounces of Italian vermouth, fill out with sauterne wine, stir well, add oil from a twist of lemon peel. Its creator, A. C. Fitzgerald, says it costs 2 to 3 cents a glass and is an excellent appetite builder.

"Champagne Swizzle": Three-quarters of an ounce of curacao, 1-4 ounce of brandy, place in champagne glass, fill with pink champagne and swizzle with a rose stem. Stand the flower in the hollow stem of the glass and serve.

PIONEER FETE IS CONDUCTED

Mrs. Dewey Honored At Palm City

McALLEN—Early days in McAllen were relived here Friday night as Mrs. M. B. Dewey of Loxley, Alabama, one of the first settlers in this community, reminisced with other pioneer residents.

Mrs. Dewey and her daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Randall of Jackson, Miss., were honor guests at an entertainment given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hart, Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Ralph Osborn and Mrs. Helen Cronk were co-hostesses.

The visitors plan to return to their homes Sunday afternoon.

Those attending the Friday night function included Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Osborn, George Osborn, Mrs. E. B. Witmer of Mercedes, Brewer Witmer, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rawlins, Mr. and Mrs. F. Welch, Miss Mattie Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Granger Smith, Mrs. H. B. Glendinning, Mrs. C. H. Pease, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rich, Mr. and Mrs. Arend Rankin, Mrs. Al Nelson, Mrs. Scott Denkers, Mrs. Bill Nolen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson, the three hostesses, W. L. Hart, and John, Sam and Tom Hart.

No Discharges Due Until Probes

WASHINGTON—(P)—H. J. Brees, Eighth Corps area commander at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., telegraphed Representative Johnson (D-Okl.) Friday no National Guard officer would be discharged for physical unfitness until a complete report had been received and reviewed.

The commanding officer said a "liberal policy" and a "granting of waivers" was planned in some cases. Johnson recently warned the War Department he would seek a congressional investigation of complaints that National Guard officers were being ousted for physical disabilities and younger regular army men were replacing them, unless the department took steps to make its own inquiry.

Just Some Figures
We wonder if a grid fan ever gives a thought to just how much a part of the game of football a player really is. By that we mean how much actual playing time does he put in during a game.

Take the Harlingen-Edinburg game played in Harlingen last Friday night for an example, it being an average one.

The two teams ran 122 plays according to one statistician. Of course it would be very easy for an error to have been made in that figure, but we believe it to be just about correct. Of those 122 plays, Edinburg used 68 and Harlingen 54.

Let's say that the average play is run off in seven seconds. It can easily be seen that a quick thrust into the line will take up very few seconds and a run the whole length of the field would not use up more than 15, less than that with some seat backs in action. If the actual playing of the game took up about 15 minutes, and under the new rules, the game was played in 12 minutes quarters or 48 minutes actual playing time. And the game Friday night was run off in two hours which is less time than it takes for the average one. In fact two hours and a quarter is about what a game of football usually consumes.

Summed up it might be said that players were in actual contact with each other just 15 minutes out of the two hours used up.

Where is all the time lost? Putting the ball in play; running down out-of-bounds balls; getting the players out of pile-ups; explaining penalties; kicking extra points; and many other delays. With each team allowed three time outs in each half, if they use them, and they usually do, 24 minutes is consumed while the players take their rests. In many games they take penalties and use more time out.

As we stated before, these figures might be off a bit but not enough to give you a little odd plant of a football game that you might not have thought of.

And looking at more figures of the Cardinal-Bobcat AA conference game, here are some more that might be of interest.

Frank Witherspoon carried the ball 10 times for Harlingen, Jimmy Grant 12 times, Billy Joe Livings ten times, and John Wood seven times. Edinburg's Guerra led the Edinburg ball carriers with 16 attempts while Noe Gorenha handled the chore 10 times. Tony Poulos carried eight times and several substitutes had a time or two to their credit. None of these figures include passes or punts.

One cannot think about the game without handing a bouquet to the Edinburg band and pep squad. In fact these organizations caused a lot of conversation on the streets of Harlingen Saturday. Everyone was high in the praise of the colorful pep squad.

For that matter, the Cardinal pep squad and band were colorful outfits and did themselves proud.

Mustang Notes

Take Fawcett, 220-pound guard from Hillsboro, was perhaps the outstanding Pony line man against the Pitt Panthers. Fawcett didn't start the game but played brilliant defensive ball. ... Bucks Ray Malin and Johnnie Clement and Tackle Glyn Beesley have been named co-captains for S.M.U. against Auburn. ... Harold Fleming, former all-state high school performer for Wichita Falls, withdrew from school at S.M.U. last week to return to work in the oil fields. ... Ed Meador, junior back from Eldorado, was named vice-president of the Junior Class at S.M.U. this week. Preston Johnston was named treasurer of the same class. ... Johnnie Clement, passing slinger from San Angelo, was elected treasurer of his class. ... Jimmie Tate, sophomore hurdler from San Antonio, was named president and Joe Bailey Scott, Athens, was selected as vice-president of the sophomore class. ... Jim Wright, outstanding guard from Sulphur Springs, was elected vice-president of the freshman class. ... The S.M.U. Colts will open their three-game season with the Lon Morris junior college football team in Jacksonville Oct. 31. ... Doug Cox, freshman quarterback from Ballinger, will be out of Fresh scrimmages for a week or more. Cox injured a knee in a battle with varsity reserves last weekend. ... Over 25,000 of the approximately 40,000 fans who attended the Pitt-S.M.U. game in Pittsburgh last Saturday remained in the stands for 35 minutes following the game to hear a swing serenade by the famous Mustang Swing band. ... In three games to date, the Ponies have performed before an average of 40,000 persons per game. ... No matter how the game affects the conference race, the Mustangs and the Texas Aggies are already assured a full house for their Nov. 9 meeting in Ownby Stadium in Dallas. The game is a sell-out.

THERE'S A KICK ABOUT HIS KICK

Here's Charley Maag of Ohio State University, who kicked the winning field goal in Ohio State's 17-14 victory over Purdue. Now there's an argument about it, based on a charge that he was withdrawn from the game in the second period and re-entered it in the same period, and so was ineligible when he returned in the last quarter to boot that winning goal.

Johnston Paces Mustangs To Win Over Plainsmen

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS—(AP)—Preston Johnston a 190 pound 1-man gridiron circus from the West Texas plains country, kept Southern Methodist University in the ranks of the unbeaten college teams Saturday as he ran and punted the courageous Auburn plainsmen into a 20-13 defeat before a State Fair crowd of 10,000.

Johnston scored two of the Mustang touchdowns, one on a 92-yard run, and it was his fine defensive work in the fading minutes that held a desperate Auburn gang of substitutes at bay as the Mustangs won the game. Johnston ran up 172 yards from scrimmage, set the Plainsmen back time and again with his booming punts, and baited a pass out of Teele Faulk's hands in the end zone to push Auburn back from a possible tie.

Head substitute Bill Yearout put Auburn in the game in the last half with his mighty passing and running and the crowd that swelled in mid-summer weather yelled itself hoarse as Yearout sparked Auburn's final fling for glory. The hands on the big clock showed five minutes to go.

Southern Methodist scored midway of the first period on Johnston's five-yard run around end. A bad pass from center and subsequent fumble by Dick McGowan that Joe Pasqua recovered on the Auburn 13 set up the score. Johnston passed to E. L. Keeton for 8 and Johnston went over for the counter. Pasqua kicked goal.

The Mustangs roared to another touchdown early in the second period. From the S. M. U. 43 Clement slipped a pass to Kelly Simpson and he rambled to the counter. Pasqua missed the goal.

In three minutes SMU had another touchdown, this time on Johnston's glittering run. SMU got the ball on its eight after a long punt by McGowan. Johnston cut through tackle, sliced to his right and outran the Auburn team without a hand being laid on him. Johnston added the goal.

Auburn got going in the third period. Once the Plainsmen drove to the SMU 10 only to lose the ball. Rufus Deal had crashed over from the 14-yard line for a touchdown but it was called back and Auburn penalized five for off-side.

But Auburn pounded back from midfield, principally on a 31-yard pass from Yearout to Jim Samford that carried to the SMU 3. Yearout made one at center then hurried right end for the score. Buddy McMahon kicked the goal.

The final Auburn touchdown came in the fourth period. A 15-yard rushing penalty set the Mustangs back to their 1-yard line and Yearout returned Johnston's punt to the SMU 24. Reynolds made two at guard and Yearout pitched a pass to Samford for the counter. McGowan missed the goal.

Pennsylvania Is Winner Over Princeton 46 To 28

By BILL BONI
PHILADELPHIA, Penn.—(AP)—With a grateful nod toward the University of Pennsylvania's statisticians, your correspondent has emerged from a welter of confusion to report Pennsylvania's football team whipped Princeton Saturday, 46 to 28.

Without those statisticians your correspondent would have been bogged down hopelessly. Through kind efforts, he can give you the following figures which may present some slight idea of what happened before the startled eyes of some 58,000 spectators in Franklin Field:

No. 1—Francis Xavier Reagan of Philadelphia, scored five of the seven Penn touchdowns and kicked an extra point for a personal total of 21 points, equalling Walt Scull's all-time Penn record. Reagan also threw a touchdown pass in a play that covered 62 yards, kicked punts that seemed to come out of a cannon, and carried the ball 18 times for a net gain of 200 yards.

No. 2—David W. Allerdice, Jr., Indianapolis, threw 31 of Princeton's 40 passes and completed 23 of Princeton's 25 for almost all of the 350 yards the Tigers gained through the air. Three of his pitches went for touchdowns and a total gain of 102 yards, while another that set up one of these scores was good for 62 yards.

No. 3—Penn's running plays, featuring spinners and reserves, rolled for 390 yards. Princeton's running plays, featuring virtually nothing, were thrown for a net loss of 16 yards—but the Tigers got their first touchdown on a 90-yard dash by Bob Jackson 97-second sprinter.

No. 4—There was scoring in every period. It was 7-7 at the end of the first, 20-14 at the end of the second, 39-22 at the end of the third, in which Reagan went over twice and passed to John Dutcher the other time. There was one touchdown apiece in the final quarter, in which Reagan made his 42-yard run.

No. 5—It was an utterly screwy ball game that defied analysis and when it was all over it started to snow.

Steers Trample Porkers 21-0

Texas Does Scoring In One Quarter

Crain Under Wraps Most Of Way

By ED L. CAMPBELL
LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—(AP)—Too smart in every department for their opponents, the University of Texas, crowded a 21 to 0 Southwestern Conference victory over the University of Arkansas into a single quarter here Saturday afternoon.

Approximately 10,000 fans watched a swift and sweltering sun while Coach Dana Bible's Longhorns mixed forwards, laterals and an occasionally brilliant running attack to smother the hapless Razorbacks.

Strain Under Wraps

Cowboy Jack Crain scored one of the Longhorns' three touchdowns and placekicked an extra point. But for the most part he was kept under wraps and spent the entire second half of on the bench while every member of the Texas squad saw action.

Arkansas threatened twice, once in the first period and again a few seconds before the final whistle when it marched from the Porker 14 to the Texas 14. Here Lobbies intercepted Hamberg's forward on the goal line and ran it out to the Texas 28. Texas had time for one play before the final gun.

A blocked Arkansas punt started Texas on its touchdown flurry in the second quarter. Neal tried to make the kick, Kutner, substitute end, batted it down and Daniels, substitute guard, recovered it on the Arkansas 20. Pete Layden, who copped the hero role usually reserved for Crain, shoved his team up to the one yard line, and then plunged from there for the initial score. Patrick's placement was perfect.

The score seemed to take all the starch out of Arkansas. Texas used an on-side kick and covered it on the Arkansas 16-yard stripe while the Porker safety man stood around watching the activities. Layden rifled a perfect forward to Kutner in the end zone for the second touchdown. Again Patrick's toe laid the extra point.

Arkansas was unable to advance and Texas took the ball a third time on a punt. Layden tossed one pass and received another to advance to the Arkansas 30. Here a penalty set the Longhorns back 15 yards but Layden passed 33 yards to Kutner who was pulled down on the Arkansas six.

Pass Backfires

Arkansas held for downs but instead of kicking, Hamberg tried a pass. Thayer intercepted on the Arkansas 14. Two line plays and a short forward put Texas on the one yard line and Cowboy Crain kept his name in the lights by galloping through a wideopen hole for the touchdown. Crain completed his chores with a perfect placement for the extra point.

The second half was mainly a series of substitutions with some inconclusive passing and several clipping penalties to enliven an otherwise dreary session.

Arkansas, which in the first quarter got to the Texas 24 and in the final minutes slipped incomplete forwards into the Longhorn end zone played strictly defensive ball the rest of the day. The Porker line looked good for the most part, but offensively the Razorbacks just weren't there.

Bears Uncork Late Rally To Whip Villanova 7-0

By RAY NEUMANN
SAN ANTONIO, Tex.—(AP)—Lagging most of the game, Baylor University's embattled Bears amazingly uncorked a last period blast to crush a valiant Villanova College aggregation, 7-0, here Saturday night.

Apparently stalled by raging Villanova line play the first three periods, the Bruins brought 13,000 spectators to their feet with a 48-yard touchdown drive which was started and ended by square-jawed Milton Merka who crashed over for the marker on fourth down from the two-foot line.

Just before the third period ended, Merka unexpectedly cracked the sturdy Wildcat defense and galloped 21 yards to the Villanova 27.

Baylor had more sporadic gains before but Dwight Parks refused to let this drive die. On a wide end sweep he worked down to the invaders' 11 for a first down. Jim Witt added three on a plunge and then Parks broke loose to the right, dodged three would-be tacklers, and stumbled over the corner flag.

Officials ruled, however, he stepped out on the four-foot line. Witt was elected and plowed through for two feet. On the final down, Merka smashed over. Center Bob Nelson place-kicked the extra point.

Baylor totaled 175 yards on the ground, tried five aeriels for no gain and ran back kicks 165 yards over-all, while Villanova got only 23 by rushing and 12 by passes, running back punts for but 21.

While the Bruins compiled none of their passes, the Wildcats threw 25, completing five and having three intercepted.

Mrs. Zaharias Wins Texas Open

FORT WORTH—(AP)—The strength and stamina that made Mrs. George (Babe Didrikson) Zaharias a world famous girl athlete was very evident Saturday as the Los Angeles woman defeated imperturbable Elizabeth Hicks of Pasadena, one up in the Texas Women's Open golf championship finals.

Babe was shanking her irons and missing midgeuts puts at disconcerting intervals. But she made a half dozen brilliant rallies in the gruelling 36 hole match. On that final, dramatic hole, she captured the match with a beautifully executed par for 1.

Miss Hicks, the 19 year old star with the admirable competitive temperament, looked like the apparent winner on the first nine, but she cut down Babe with a scientific precision that found the Pasadena girl four up going to the 25th hole.

Oklahoma Aggies Race Over Bears, At Stillwater

Break 10-Year Jinx Of Washington

STILLWATER, Okla.—(AP)—Oklahoma Aggies staged their greatest offensive uprising in years here Saturday and battered Washington University's Bears 53 to 12 to open their Missouri Valley Conference campaign before 7,000 homecoming fans.

Alumni, sweltering beneath a hot sun, had to refer back to Lynn Waldorf's great teams for comparison of such offensive power. The victory was not only the Cowboys' most decisive over a Missouri Valley foe in years, but it broke a 10-year jinx the Bears have held over the Aggies. Last Aggie victory was in 1930.

Sophomore Jimmy Reynolds jerked the crowd to its feet with a 55-yard gallop of the opening kickoff. Three plays later he slashed off 28 yards and the first touchdown. From then on it was just a good workout for the Puncers.

Minnesota Upsets Ohio State On Wet Field

Gophers Stage Two Long Drives

By FRITZ HOWELL
COLUMBUS, O.—(AP)—A great Minnesota team wrecked Ohio State's hopes of retaining the Western Conference grid title Saturday. Before 63,199 rain-drenched fans, the Golden Gophers won 13 to 7 after repulsing two Ohio threats near the goal line.

It was Minnesota's third straight win of the year and its first in conference play. The defeat was Ohio's second in four contests, two of the losses being against conference foes.

It was a game replete with "breaks," the most heart-breaking of which came to the Bucks with less than two minutes to go.

Trailing 13 to 7, Ohio dipped deeply into its ruzzled-dazle bag to surge from their own 35 to the Gopher one-yard line.

In that 64-yard jaunt were three completed passes, the last tossed by quarterback Don Scott. Then came a Scott to Tom Kinkade forward, with a Kinkade to Leslie Horvath lateral tacked on the end, which carried to the Minnesota six.

Scott, who during the final surge had gained on a fourth down running play when he needed five yards—and made six himself—banged to the one yard mark.

Then came the break. Claude White, Ohio center who had played the entire game on the slippery field, came up with his only poor pass of the fray. Langhurst fell on the ball on the 13 but Ohio's chance had flown.

Bruce Smith, Minnesota's 193-pound halfback from "Festabault," Minn., was the game's outstanding star. He had both Gopher touchdowns, one in the first period from the 10-yard line on a fake pass and one in the second on a three-yard plunge. They climaxed drives of 55 and 89 yards respectively.

Expand Restocking Program
AUSTIN—Trapping of deer, turkey and antelope by the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission will be on an even larger scale this year than it was last, when a new all-time high in trapping and restocking was reached in the Lone Star State. In addition, the game department, through the use of federal Pittman-Robertson funds, is preparing to trap quail, muskrats, raccoons and possibly several other kinds of game birds and animals, the executive secretary of the department has announced.

Last year 257 antelope, 420 deer and 351 turkeys were trapped and transplanted on areas upon which the species of game suitable for the various areas once roamed. By the use of new and improved traps, the game department has high hopes of restocking twice as many deer, turkey and antelope last year, when the deer trapping was doubled.

A new single deer trap has been perfected. Twenty-two of them used for a short time last season soon trapped nearly 100 deer. The department is now building 100 additional traps and will place them in use as soon as possible. The new trap captures deer without injuring them. Deer are trapped on areas which have become overpopulated. It is the same with antelope and turkey. Many deer and turkey are trapped on state game preserves, areas set aside under agreement with the owner of the land. No hunting of any kind is allowed on the game preserves, of which Texas has the largest.

All net turkey trap built in octagon shape has proved the most successful of several tested during the last few years. The game department will place two and possibly three turkey trapping crews in the field this year. It is believed more than 1,000 deer, as many turkey and 500 antelope will be trapped during the winter months.

Out O' Doors

Fisherman Catches Alligator
How'd you like to snag a five-foot alligator with a mere linen line and an inch and a half fish hook? That's just what Ward Williams of Dilley, Texas, did recently. An alligator in the Nueces river about 18 miles south of Cotulla, Texas, grabbed Williams' hook, which was baited with a crawdad. Mr. Williams gave the line a quick jerk and hooked the 'gator in the lower jaw. He battled the scaled reptile more than a half hour before being able to tow it into shallow water and then up the bank. Williams then tied the line to a tree, cut a club and killed the alligator.

Plant Red Mulberry
After making extensive tests, biologists of the Texas Game Department are recommending that instead of planting black locust, catalpa and other trees in Eastern Texas for the growing of fence posts as a commercial crop that land-owners plant red mulberry. That tree is just as durable as the others and provides one of the best all-around game foods to be found in that section of the state. The berry of the red mulberry tree is attractive to game and non-game birds, deer, squirrels and raccoons.

Probably the only dictator who is familiar with the Bible is Josef Stalin.

By CHARLES NUTTER
NEW ORLEANS.—(AP)—Thrice-beaten Tulane finally found the combination Saturday in a ragged, thrilling exhibition of power, fumbles and penalties to defeat the hitherto unscathed Rice Owls 15 to 6 before 34,000 spectators.

Rugged James Thibaut, strictly a New Orleans product, put the Green Wave into the lead 9-6 in the final seconds of the second quarter with a slanting 27-yard field goal from placement. Cheered by being ahead for the first time since the Sugar Bowl game last season, Tulane went on to pick up another touchdown in the third.

The game was an almost endless procession of fumbles, costly penalties, and intercepted passes in which both the hard fighting eleven shared almost equally.

Tulane's power combination, for which Coach Red Dawson has been desperately seeking all season, functioned in the pinches for the first time, and put the humbled mighty Green Wave of 1939 back on the track for what could yet be a successful season.

A Tulane fumble gave Rice its only touchdown. Lou Thomas dropped the ball and Marvin Dewdney scooped it up on Tulane's 24, from where Joe Price reeled off 14, and Bob Brumley lugged it on across in three tries.

It looked like another dreary hometown afternoon especially after Tulane was unable to power drive the ball over minutes later after bringing it up to Rice's 14.

But Tulane whipped back from a punt and Thibaut completed a 20 yard pass to Albert Bodney to Rice's 30. Power drives took it to Rice's 8 and a new Rice team took over, but left Harry Hays of San Angelo, Texas, running like a jack-rabbit skirted right end for the touchdown.

Tulane held Rice in downs and Red Cassidy punted to Brumley on Rice's 39. T. A. Weems at this point threw away Rice's bright chances with a passing attempt that brought two 15 yard penalties, one for a screened pass, and the other for grounding the ball.

The ball went over to Tulane's 15 with 45 seconds to go in that second period. Thibaut and Thomas tried three passes but Tulane was never strong in the air. Then Thibaut gave the stands the wild thrill of being ahead for the first time this year when he booted from placement on Rice's 27.

Tulane put it away early in the third quarter when Thibaut picked Keel's pass neatly out of the air on the visitors' 30 and added 12. Thibaut pushed through in two tries, after Grush and Bob Glass had given him four yards.

It was costly Tulane victory. Hays going out with a broken collar bone sustained in a long second quarter run.

Late in the fourth Keel of Rice began dropping back and back to try passes, but his receivers were covered and he was smothered for successive losses. Tulane fumbled five times, Rice three. Tulane was penalized 55 and Rice 65.

Huskers Swamp Jayhawkers In Record Fashion

Post 53 Points For New Mark

LAWRENCE, Kas.—(AP)—Mighty Nebraska crunched to a 53 to 2 victory over the University of Kansas football team Saturday, and with ridiculous ease maintained a record of not having lost on the Jayhawkers' own field in 44 years.

Although Nebraska's ace back, Herman Rohrig, was on the bench with an arm injury, all doubt as to the ultimate victory faded after the first eight minutes. Kansas invaded Nebraska territory but once under its own power and that late in the final period after the Nebraska bench had been swept of substitutes.

Only once did a pass aid the Husker ground machine in the manufacture of a touchdown.

Wayne Blue, a rugged fullback replacement in the Husker lineup, battered his way to a trio of touchdowns in the rout that signaled the Nebraska's opening bid for the 1940 football title. Other Huskers who scored were Sam Francis, Harry Hopp, Henry Rohn, Ray Fetsch and Dale Bradley.

Warriors Defeat Rattlers 26-19

MISSION.—The Santa Rosa Warriors, the 1939 Rio Grande Valley six-man football champions, took a stride toward another title by whipping the Sharyland Rattlers 26-19 on the Mission high school field Friday night.

The Rattlers scored their first touchdown early in the opening quarter when Bentsen took a pass that was good for six points. Kennedy scored another later in the same period. Just before the first half ended, Todd took a pass from Snyder and raced across the goal for the first Warrior touchdown.

The Warriors opened up in the third period and posted a total of 22 points to take the lead. Late in the final quarter, Weatherford took a touchdown pass for the Rattlers with several Warrior reserves in the game.

The Warriors gained a total of 295 yards and lost 10. The Rattlers gained 254 and lost five. Santa Rosa picked up eight first downs and Sharyland six.

Between halves both Sharyland and Santa Rosa's pep squads put on beautiful displays of precision marching and letter formations.

Friday's win puts the Warriors back in the running for the title contest to Stuart Place. Los Fresnos is boasting a clean record to date.

The starting lineups:

By GAYLE TALBOT
ITHACA, N. Y.—(AP)—Cornell, growing more powerful and deceptive with each passing week, rolled over a fair Syracuse team, 33 to 6, Saturday, doing everything Coach Carl Snively could do to hold the score in bounds.

It was an impressive show for the 18,000 who shivered in the first cold day of the season. The nation's No. 1 team, by vote, scored almost at will when it took the notion, mostly on long, spectacular plays.

Four of Cornell's touchdowns were scored on passes, three of them

By WHITNEY MARTIN
NEW YORK.—(AP)—The blocky little guy with the George Washington cheekbones and the crescent-moon grin is gone from the major league show, and there doesn't seem to be anyone in sight to replace him. For Pepper Martin's bob up about as often as 17-year locusts.

There are players with a goodly horary who have some of his characteristics. There are better ball players. After all, Pepper was just a good journeyman ball player.

There are players with a goodly share of his color and, if oftstage comments and misbehavior can be filed under color, some of them have more.

But offhand we can't name a player of recent years who combined color and, above all, fighting spirit, in such an entrancing mixture. He never intended to be anybody but himself. John Leonard Martin, a rough, tough, impish, heman as wholesome as the soil of his native Oklahoma; a man with a minimum of inhibitions but without an ounce of malice or meanness.

No matter how often you saw him, he always was the same, and memories blend into a composite picture any part of which is a true sample of the whole.

The picture would include the Wild Hoss sliding into third head first with that pancake landing of his, a cloud of dust in his wake like smoke from the funnel of the Robert E. Lee in his playing of third base with the gusto of a stevedore at lunch hour as ground balls bounced off various parts of his anatomy like hail off a tin roof. . . his bare, hairy arms and stubble of beard. . . the day when he sat, dancing-eyed and twitching, in the dugout at Brooklyn while Larry MacPhail roved up and down in wild rage in front of the Cardinal bench challenging one and all, the Wild Hoss controlling himself with effort, his mimicry and deflation of ostentation. . . his cornerstoning of impromptu quartets.

Those, and a thousand other little pictures make up the whole. A guy who wasn't afraid to be himself, whether on the ball field or in a swank dining room. If Pepper didn't want to wear a necktie, Pepper didn't wear a necktie. If Pepper didn't want to shave, Pepper didn't shave.

Sacramento is getting a man who will give them everything he's got, a man who can't miss in pleasing the fans who like their baseball raw, with no quarter given or asked.

And there are still a few base hits left in those cordy arms and a few stolen bases left in the knobby legs if occasion demands.

Meanwhile, there's a big gap in the major league roster, a gap that won't be filled until the 17-year locusts come around again.

Rice Owls Meet Texas Longhorns On Houston Grid

Neely's Crew Have Been Surprise

FORT WORTH.—(Sp.)—The Eyes of Texas will indeed be upon the gridiron meeting of the Rice Owls and the University of Texas Longhorns in Houston next Saturday.

The Owls, pre-season pick for a near cellar finish, have surprised not only Texas but the nation with the strong showing under a new coach, Jess C. Neely.

The Longhorns, recognized as having great possibilities, have nevertheless displayed a drive considerably beyond the expectations of those whose business it is to figure gridiron possibilities.

When these two touchdown-making machines clash in the Bayou City Saturday the clatter will be heard up any down the land.

The other conference contest of the week pits the Texas Aggies against the Baylor Bears in Waco. The Bears, with Jack Wilson, were figured to be about as good as the Aggies. Without Wilson, the Bears can't be figured to take Kimbrough and his gang of senior grid experts.

However, A. and M. usually has plenty of trouble with Baylor in Waco. The Waco jinx has thrown the Farmers for a loss more than once and they won't be able to take anything for granted.

The Arkansas Razorbacks meet Ole Miss on a neutral field in Memphis, Tenn. The Horned Frogs of Texas Christian University to Tulsa, Okla., for a go at the Golden Hurricane of the University of Tulsa.

Neither contest will create too much excitement in conference circles, in view of the two family brawls which have a direct bearing upon the final disposition of the Southwest flag.

Coach Dutch Meyer has won from Tulsa each year since he took over in 1934 and head coach at T. C. U. Dopesters generally give his 1940 eleven the nod to continue this string of victories.

Tennessee Vols Win Over Tide

By ROMNEY WHEELER
BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—(AP)—Dust off a shelf in football's Hall of Fame for little Johnny Butler, understudy to Tennessee's great tailback Bob Fox, who sparked the Volunteers to a 27-7 victory over a fighting Alabama team Saturday.

The black-haired mite, weighing barely 160 pounds, soaking wet, slashed off right tackle early in the second period and raced 68 yards up Legion Field's east sideline to Alabama's 11. Then he faded back and shot a flat pass to end Al Hulse for the tally. Fred Newman, substitute wingback, kicked the point.

Barely a dozen plays later Butler snatched an Alabama punt on Bama's 49 and raced under a convoy of blockers to score standing up. Newman again converted.

Texas Wesleyan Defeats Bisons

FORT WORTH.—(AP)—Texas Wesleyan's Rams combined aerial trickery with a strong ground game here Saturday to rack up their fourth football victory in five 1940 starts. The Wesleyans scored twice in the last 20 minutes of play to outlast the big Oklahoma Baptist University Bisons 20-15.

The Wesleyans drove 64 yards for a touchdown early in the first Johnny Hunter passing to Harold Coon for the last ten paces. Hunter added the point from placement. A few minutes later in the same period a bad pass cost TWC a safety when two Bisons smothered Hunter behind his own goal line.

J. C. Meeks ran 38 yards for OBU's first score midway in the second and Chaddick added the point to give the Bisons a 9-7 margin at half time.

BUSY BACK

Travis Nelson, Baylor's promising sophomore wingback, saw a lot of service in San Antonio Saturday night when the Bears met Villanova. Nelson was busy in the Arkansas tilt and the Baylor coaches were more than pleased with the work of the Bryan grinder who stepped in to help fill the gap left by the injured Jack Wilson.

Irish Smother Carnegie Tech

By EARL HILLIGAN
SOUTH BEND, Ind.—(AP)—Notre Dame's football legions marched Saturday to the relentless beat of a touchdown tattoo which hammered Carnegie Tech to submission, 61 to 0, and stamped the victors as one of the greatest teams in Irish gridiron history.

By land and by air, Notre Dame routed the outclassed Tartans in a contest which saw the use of every one of the 67 players on the Irish bench. But even the substitution of fifth and sixth stringers could not measurably slow the juggernaut which scored the biggest point total for the Irish since 1932's 62 to 0 rout of Drake and handed Carnegie its worst defeat in Tech's modern football era.

The game, in which the Notre Dame first team played less than two periods, wasn't six-minutes old when John O'Brien, Irish end, blacked a Tech punt and recovered to run 24 yards for a touchdown. From then on it was a parade of power by the Irish, who showed they are headed for the high road to national title ranking as the finest all-around team produced by Coach Elmer Layden in his seven-year regime.

Carnegie didn't have a chance. The Tartans didn't reach Notre Dame territory until the third period and then, against Irish stringers, lost the ball on downs at the Notre Dame 45. Late in the contest Tech got to the Irish 43 before losing the ball on a pass interception. In all, Carnegie made only five first downs to 13 for the victors.

Jackets Swamp McMurry 52 To 0

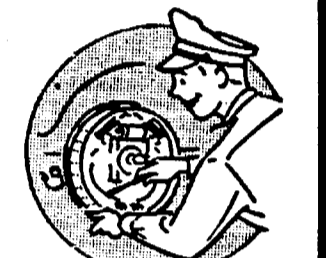

ABILENE, Tex.—(AP)—Howard Payne College handed McMurry the worst Texas Conference licking it ever got Saturday, punching the Indians groggy for a 52-0 score.

Little Tommy Samuels, Jacket reserve back, ran a punt back for 88 yards and a touchdown and circled end 46 yards for another score. Roland Warren, an end, and Howard Swann also had a field day. Warren blocking a punt for one tally and taking a pass from Fisher for a 28-yard scoring dash. Swann plunged for his two touchdowns.

The first touchdown, scored by fullback Garland Terrell, came right after the first kickoff. Haralson scored the eighth and final touchdown after a short drive. Howard Payne had two touchdowns called back. Three of its extra points were scored by Nelson, the others by Jones.

McMurry's lone scoring threat occurred in the first period, the drive bogged on the 11-yard stripe.

FARMERS—BE NOT DECEIVED INVESTIGATE!

From Virginia thru the Lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas the FARMERS WHO KNOW say "It's D & P L Foundation Planting Seed for me."

A NEW COTTON—D & P L-12 (Deltapine 12) has been chosen as a worthy successor to the Famous DELTAPINE A (D&P L-11A) to which it is similar but superior in most characteristics.

In the Rio Grande Valley last season where planted commercially and in Experimental Station test D&P L (Deltapine) 11-A Cotton made such impressive records that it is today the most discussed and widely publicized variety in the entire Lower Valley.

Farmers everywhere praise its productivity, its high gin turn out, its good staple of BETTER grade which brings them a profitable premium over most varieties. You Valley farmers, too, will like this early maturing cotton.

Deltapine 12 (D&P L-12) Foundation Cotton seed has been triple re-cleaned, delimited and ceresan treated and will take a few cents more investment per acre to plant than the so-called cheaper seed; however, the net profit in dollars per acre usually being so much greater than most other varieties the farmers have come to look on Deltapine Foundation Planting seed as the less expensive seed.

Why Own or Rent Land, pay good money for cultivating a crop, and then in order to save a few cents per acre, use cheap or inferior seed? Cultivating good land won't make a crop, but when you put GOOD SEED in GOOD land and Cultivate GOOD, you make more money.

Greece, Turkey Told 'It's Just Too Bad' Unless They Join Axis

By LOUIS F. LOCHNER
BERLIN—(AP)—An authorized Nazi commentator declared Saturday that if Greece and Turkey don't see that their bread is buttered on the side of the Axis, it is just too bad for them.

He added, however, that Germany does not need to get excited or exert pressure on these British-protected nations.

Ultimatum Denied
In the Wilhelmstrasse, reports that Germany and Italy had made territorial and other demands upon Greece were denied categorically. (The often-authoritative Fascist weekly, Relazioni Internazionali, indicated in Rome, however, that such demands might be impending. The weekly said Italian influence in the Balkans and Mediterranean hereafter would be unrestrained.)

"Why should we put any country under pressure?" the German commentator countered to the inquiries of foreign correspondents. "It is already evident, with the inexorability of a natural law, that the new order in Europe will be determined by Germany and Italy. Whoever sees that and arranges his nation's affairs accordingly can lead a sovereign existence in peace and quiet once this war is over."

Radio Tells World Wake Island Group Safe After Storm

HONOLULU—(AP)—Radio signals hummed from Wake Island again Saturday to tell the world that all members of Pan American Airways' little colony there were safe after a terrific storm.

The message which dispelled the growing concern felt for the inhabitants of the little island was relayed from Midway Island to the Pan American station here. Wake Island's last direct report before communication was disrupted Friday said the radio station had been partially wrecked by the storm.

Interpreting The War News

Will Russia Fight?

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
German and Russian army troops face each other in the Danube Delta in Rumania under conditions that could strike a war spark in the Balkans at any moment. Anything can happen there, and will may, despite any Berlin and Moscow policy making.

The Nazi and Red armies are traditional foes. The dubious Hitler-Stalin friendship was based on pure expediency. No still existent mutual interest supports it. It does not rest, as does the Berlin-Rome Axis, on the same have-not economic yearnings and the will to satisfy them by force.

Russia is not a have-not nation. She has greater resources in manpower and raw materials than any nation but China. What she lacks is warm water ports for year-round commerce with the world.

That is precisely what she has not achieved by siding with Germany for 13 months. Her costly victory over Finland, swallowing of a trio of little Baltic neighbors, sharing in Polish partition spoils and wresting of Bessarabia back from Rumania are empty gains without assured western and Near Eastern trade outlets.

Exploitation Expected
Nazi economic exploitation of Russia to augment income from German industry and technical skill is on the cards, and the Red army knows it.

And the Red army in the west is as steeped in the doctrine that Germany is Russia's arch foe as is the army in Siberia in the thesis that it was created to deal with Japan.

Army hostilities on either side in Rumania could precipitate incidents which all the political agility of Hitler and Stalin could not still.

When Russian forces entered Poland in September, 1939, neutral on-lookers inquired of the first Red army tank group commander they encountered who the Russians had come to fight.

"The Germans," was his reply. "He was wrong then. He might not be wrong now about the situation in Rumania. Certainly, he spoke for Red army thought, if not for Moscow policy, a year ago."

CITRUS TALKS SET TUESDAY

Central Valley Meet Held At Donna

DONNA—Citrus growers of the Donna and Alamo communities will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the American Legion hall for discussion of the problems confronting the industry, according to announcement Saturday of Mrs. James Ragland, Rio Grande Valley Citrus Institute chairman. This is the fourth of a series of meetings being held in the different citrus-producing sections of the Valley in an effort to assist growers in securing better returns for their fruit.

Former meetings have seen heated discussions regarding a fixed price law which it is hoped to have before the legislature when it convenes January 2. The 7,000-pound load limit law will come up for discussion. Necessity for more uniform quotations to the market is another subject that will be covered, as well as round table discussion of other major problems of the citrus industry.

"Anyone interested in securing the best possible price for his product should attend this meeting and assist in working out some plan whereby the citrus grower can survive," Mrs. Sanders said. "We want to urge the grower to stop flooding the market with green fruit, at this time, and by so doing ruin his chance for securing even production cost," she concluded.

Boy Scouts Of America Considering Forming Of Experimental Air Scouts Troops Dovetailed Into CAA Training

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—(AP)—The Boy Scouts of America, which some two decades ago expanded its program to include training of youngsters in sea-craft, Saturday was reported considering branching into air training for its older members.

Jean H. DuBuque, of the Civil Aeronautics Authority, told the National Association of State Aviation Officials convention Friday that two experimental troops of Air Scouts between 15 and 18 years of age may be formed soon. They would have a distinctive uniform, DuBuque added.

He said the CAA and state aeronautics boards would cooperate with the national Boy Scout organization in developing a program of aviation training that he indicated might dovetail into the federal civil pilot training program.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Bureau of Mines reported Saturday stocks of domestic and foreign crude petroleum at the close of the week ended Oct. 12 totaled 261,511,000 barrels, a net decrease of 1,040,000 barrels compared with the previous week. Stocks of domestic oil decreased 865,000 barrels for the week and foreign crude decreased 175,000 barrels.

Daily average production for the week was 3,642,000 barrels, an increase of 153,000 barrels compared with the previous week's level. Runs to stills averaged 3,555,000 barrels daily, the same as the preceding week. Daily average imports were 114,000 barrels, a decrease of 26,000 barrels during the week.

How To Lose Ugly Body Fat

Get A More "Stream-lined" Figure

No Risky Drugs—No Inconveniences—Would you like to lose pounds of ugly fat and gain a more slender figure—gain that increase of energy and attractiveness which generally follows weight reduction and rise mornings bubbling over with vigor?

Well that is the experience of thousands of women who faithfully follow this safe Kruschen plan. And it's all so easy, inexpensive—an almost effortless home method—approved by thousands of doctors.

Simply take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of water before breakfast. Cut out pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar and keep this up for 30 days.

So start today, girls, to get a more slender, graceful CHARMING FIGURE. Get a bottle of Kruschen Salts today at Brownsville Agents—Den Russ Priy, McKay's Pharmacy, Harlingen Agents—Day Drug Co., Central Drug Store, McAllen Agent—Palmer Drug Store or leading druggists everywhere. Lasts 4 weeks—inexpensive. Either pleasant tasting NEW "bubbling" form or the plain non-fizzy form for folks who prefer to take it in hot water.—Adv.

Making Of Autos For Civilian Use Ceases In Britain

LONDON—(AP)—The manufacture of automobiles for civilian use in Britain has ceased, the Ministry of Transport announced, with a total of only 400 new cars, half of them of foreign make, on hand for sale.

Before the war, about 275,000 new cars were registered annually. The ministry said plenty of used cars are available for public use.

Seventy thousand acres of sorghum cover crops and 10,000 acres of grass were planted in the southwestern dust bowl this year by the Soil Conservation Service.

Harlingen Tourists Return From North

HARLINGEN—Mr. and Mrs. M. Rychener and A. C. Moody of Harlingen returned the past week from a seven weeks stay in the north east. The Valley people visited Indiana, Ohio, Michigan.

Moody said "The Valley looks good to us," and that three killing frosts had been felt in that section, and fires had been lighted in furnaces since mid-September. Moody said all three states are for Willkie.

MINNIE GILBERT, SOCIETY EDITOR

HARLINGEN, McALLEN, BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1940

In a church ceremony of unusual beauty, Miss Margaret Boyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Boyce of Donna, was married Saturday morning in the First Methodist Church in Donna to William McDonald Hunt Jr. of Houston. An especially crowded series of pre-nuptial events has honored Mrs. Hunt during the past few weeks. (Holbrook's Studio)

Mrs. Jesse Hay of Edinburg was before her wedding Sunday, October 13, Miss Pauline Fortson. She is the daughter of Mrs. C. L. Fortson. Mr. and Mrs. Hay returned from a short wedding trip and are at home in the Lipscomb Apartments. (Kerr Studio)

Mrs. Leland Parsons probably will find herself in an ocean of color when the gladiolas, planted in the garden about her new home, start to flower. Last year she planted a hundred bulbs and has replanted those bulbs and added as many more this season. She was snapped with her dog by the cameraman in a corner of the bed where fledgling gladiolas are already showing spikes of bloom. Although interested in gladiolas, Mrs. Parsons admits bougainvilleas are her favorite flowers and expects to create some of the most attractive centers in her garden with the showy flowers when the now thriving shrubs reach maturity. Donna Rites Distinctive For Autumnal Setting Of Particular Beauty

DONNA—An autumn wedding of particular beauty which claimed interest throughout the Valley took place Saturday morning at ten o'clock when Miss Margaret Milton Boyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Boyce, became the bride of William McDonald Hunt, Jr., of Houston, son of William D. Hunt of Palestine.

The impressive single ring ceremony was read by the Rev. C. E. Wheat, pastor.

Front spaces of the church were decorated to express the autumn theme that has been favored for the many pre-nuptial festivities that have honored the bride.

Three huge fan-shaped shields of acalypha leaves formed a background resembling a Gothic window. Accented against the screen were tall tithonia and Aztec daisies before a lower border of harmony marigolds fringed with yellow lupin.

The pews reserved for the families were marked with harmony marigolds clustered against shields of acalypha leaves. A similar bouquet was placed on the piano.

As the guests were assembling piano music, played by Miss Doris Bolls of Edinburg, sounded softly. She accompanied Mrs. Eldon Sergeant who sang Because by D. Hardie.

Impressive Rites Held By Triangle

HARLINGEN—Impressive candle-lighting ceremonies were carried out Friday morning for the Blue Triangle organization at Wm. B. Travis high school.

Edna Boone, president, welcomed the initiates who entered in marching formation wearing the traditional white frocks with blue ties, singing "Follow the Glean."

Opening prayer was by Oita Roberts, Carol Jane Fox, treasurer, demonstrated the handclap.

Talks were made by Joycecelene Garrison, vice president, and Elizabeth Joseph, secretary; and, after the candlelighting ceremony had been completed, Marilyn Black gave the benediction. Bobbie Lee Vanderford played the accompaniments.

Woman's Auxiliary To Begin Bible Study Monday

BROWNSVILLE—Members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church will begin Bible study Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

All circles are to gather for the study of the Epistles of John to be led by Mrs. Ava Prosser.

Harlingen B.P.W.'s To Meet On Tuesday

HARLINGEN—Members of the Harlingen Business and Professional Women's Club will hold their membership dinner Tuesday evening instead of Monday, the change being made on account of the concert presenting Jamila Novotna in the municipal auditorium.

In charge of the Tuesday program will be members of the membership and publicity committees. The topic will be "Voting Intelligently." Reservations should be made with Mrs. Myrtle Householder.

American Home Topic For Study

Mrs. C. L. Parnell, Mrs. Diltz Talkers

BROWNSVILLE—The American Home was the topic of study for members of the Brownsville Study club at the home of Mrs. R. L. Life Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. C. L. Parnell told of the exterior of the home, giving interesting facts concerning the different types of architecture. She stated that climate determines the style of architecture prevalent in sections of the country.

Mrs. J. Harrison Diltz talked on the interior of the home. She gave a brief history of Early American furniture, and then compared the individual rooms of earlier times with those of the present. In this discussion, the other members joined.

In the business session which was in charge of Mrs. Joe Wheeler, president, the members voted to aid some individual as part of the social service work of the club.

The hostess served a refreshment course to Mesdames W. M. Coleman, J. Harrison Diltz, Harry L. Faulk, L. C. Fife, Sam D. Houghston, Herman B. Jeffery, Sam L. Lockwood, R. A. McKee, B. B. McDonald, Lee Nolan, C. L. Parnell, Charles C. Stewart, W. M. Stovall, J. A. Walker, Joe Wheeler, members and one guest, Mrs. Marvin Martin.

The next meeting will be held November 7 at the home of Mrs. J. A. Walker.

Weslaco Bundles For Britain Unit To Stage Tea

McALLEN—The Weslaco unit of the Bundles for Britain organization will have a benefit open house Sunday afternoon from 5 to 7 p.m. in the lobby of the Cortez Hotel, officials here announced. All the proceeds will be used to buy surgical and medical supplies for Britain and for wool for the local women to use in knitting.

Roses Are Discussed By Weslaco Group

WESLACO—Mrs. John Hager was hostess to the Weslaco Garden club Thursday morning. Mrs. C. H. Schwedes presided.

Mrs. E. I. Emmons gave a paper on "Vitamin B-1" after which a round table discussion was held.

Mrs. L. R. Clifford will be hostess to the next meeting with Mrs. J. J. Stephens giving a paper on "Roses, Their Culture and Care."

ARRIVE FOR WEDDING
DONNA—Mr. William Hunt and his daughter Miss Virginia Hunt of Palestine, his son, William McDonald Hunt, Jr., of Houston and his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lehmberg of San Antonio, arrived in Donna on Friday to be guests of the Boyce family over the week-end of the Boyce-Hunt wedding.

Matinee Tea Novel Event Given In McAllen For Upper Valley Socialites

McALLEN—Upper Valley socialites enjoyed something different in the way of parties Thursday afternoon when Mrs. C. A. Marshall entertained about 60 women at a matinee tea.

The guests were greeted at the Palace Theatre at 2:30 p. m. by Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Anne Jo Jones, who also welcomed them to the Marshall home later for tea.

Mrs. Marshall's home was lavishly decorated with the Halloween touch. Golden cosmos vied with motifs of the holiday to create a colorful atmosphere. In the dining room Halloween's traditional black and orange were noted on the refreshment table.

Patio Plants Discussed In Program

RAYMONDVILLE—(P)—On Thursday afternoon the Raymondville arden Club members heard Mrs. Ed C. Raymond in an interesting discussion on "Patio Plants and Their Needs."

Mrs. M. M. McInnis exhibited various herbs raised in the Valley and spoke on the subject "Spices and Herbs."

Highway committee chairman Mrs. George Lochrie announced that four and a half acres on the San Manuel highway had been donated for a road side park. A call made for colorful shrubs to blend in with native plants and trees met with ready response.

Mrs. J. Simpson gave a report on the Rose Festival in Tyler which she attended October 4.

Mrs. J. E. Chambers made a report on the Valley Council meeting on Mercedes on the 11th.

The club is to sponsor a novelty garden room at the P-T. A. Halloween carnival on October 31.

Buena Vida Class In Knitting To Have Assistants

BROWNSVILLE—At the Tuesday meeting of the knitting class at the Buena Vida housing project, the women will be assisted in starting their sweaters for the Red Cross by Mrs. Frank Barker and Mrs. Lionel Winans.

The class meets each Tuesday and Thursday afternoon between 2 and 3 p.m. The group is sponsored by Mrs. Ralph H. Eisaman, and Mrs. William F. McDonald, Red Cross workers.

A sewing machine will be available for those who do not knit, and who would like to stitch baby garments.

The class is open to all the women at the project, and all of their friends.

Mrs. E. M. Tomme Is Bridge Hostess

RAYMONDVILLE—The Wednesday Club spent the afternoon with Mrs. E. M. Tomme to enjoy bridge. Guests were Mrs. B. S. Duffield and Mrs. Murray Floyd. High award was received by Mrs. C. D. Ritter.

The Halloween theme was carried out in party appointments.

A dainty repast was served also to Mesdames Don Hightower, J. G. Caudle, Lud Snow, Harvey Geis, Gene Smith.

Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Anne Jo Jones, who also welcomed them to the Marshall home later for tea.

Mrs. Marshall's home was lavishly decorated with the Halloween touch. Golden cosmos vied with motifs of the holiday to create a colorful atmosphere. In the dining room Halloween's traditional black and orange were noted on the refreshment table.

Here golden flowers formed the center arrangement flanked with black candle holders and candles. At one end of the table was a huge cake, iced in orange and black.

Mrs. W. W. Dees served the cake and Mrs. A. J. Campbell poured coffee. Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Stockton Fountain, Mrs. Charles Holland, Mrs. Dudley Lauck of Pharr, Mrs. Al Weir, Mrs. Aubrey Thomas and Mrs. W. E. Spell mingled with the guests in the living room while Mrs. Homer Gunn served punch.

Future Homemakers Select New Officers

President, Truma Owen; vice-president, Francis Raymond; secretary, Maydelle Owen; treasurer, Billie Conley; reporter, Earlene Tucker; sergeant-at-arms, Frances Pierce.

There will be an informal initiation of members over the weekend, followed on Wednesday, October 23, by formal initiation.

Mr. Mrs. Douthit Hosts To Their Club

RAYMONDVILLE—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Douthit entertained their club at a Hawaiian dinner on Wednesday evening in their home, using their table brown linen and yellow chrysanthemums. On the mantel were orange and yellow berries, and on the buffet a Mexican bowl of calamondins, peppers, lemons and limes.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. John Fambrough, Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Bennack and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Yoder.

McAllen Music Club Guest Night

McALLEN—Informality will prevail at the McAllen Music Club's annual guest night Tuesday at 7 p.m. at the McAllen Country Club. All members are permitted to bring one guest with a charge made for additional guests, officials said.

Reservations are to be made with Mrs. G. Aubrey Thomas before Monday.

ATTEND BANQUET
OLMITO—Miss Wanda Wickliffe, Miss Aletha Davis, Mr. Harold Hutton and Roger Davis attended the Valley-wide Christian Endeavor banquet held at the Christian church in Harlingen on Tuesday evening.

Newlyweds Are Honored By 20-30's

Three Couples Named Honorees

EDINBURG—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eidelbach, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver C. Aldrich, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hay, all newlyweds, were named honored guests Wednesday night by the 20-30 club at a box supper at the Country Club.

Halloween colors, black and orange, were noted in all decorations. Over the fireplace was "20-30" in tall orange numerals, and black and orange streamers hung from the rafters. Bales of hay, corn cobs and corn stalks added to the Halloween motif.

After the supper the guests danced. Present for this occasion were the honored guests, Miss Ida Dodd of Weslaco, Ruby Maddux of Alamo, Helen Frances Ramsour, Paula Richardson of Mission, Dorothy Mae Smith, Harriette Hagedorn, Billie Kyle, Mrs. Mickey Barnum, Tiny Christiansen of Alamo, Mary Robinson, Virginia Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Colson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Cowan, Preston Harris, Bob Hardy, W. Swaney will be Bible leaders. Mrs. D. P. Simmons will entertain the Hayes circle with Mrs. W. A. Jennings and Mrs. M. O. Leggett as Bible leaders.

Other meetings of the society this week include a meeting of the R. A.'s with Mrs. C. A. Richmond at the church and the annual association meeting of the WMU in Edinburg all day Wednesday.

Mrs. Don Sherer Addresses Club

McALLEN—Mrs. Don Sherer gave a talk on "Club Members and Their Obligations" to the members of the Music Appreciation Club meeting this week at the home of Beverly Ann Birdsall. Also on the program was a song by the club and a presentation of the ghosts of Johann Strauss and Franz Liszt.

There was a social hour when musical games were played and refreshments were served.

Those attending were the guests, Mesdames Don Sherer, J. O. Miller, A. Smith, Edwin Stanley, John Elser, Robert Myatt and Ralph Kier, the 12 members and their sponsor, Miss Gertrude Miller.

Barn Dance Event Of Special Interest

RAYMONDVILLE—A typical rural scene was created in the women's club building on Thursday evening with a clever arrangement of shocks of grain, pumpkins, maize heads and corn for the barn dance given by the Girl Reserves.

Music was furnished by E. V. Rinner, band director, and G. L. Spoonmore who played the fiddle. A hundred persons attended the dance.

This 'n That

By MINNIE GILBERT

Autumn's colors abundant: October's colors are orange and yellow and Valley hostesses can afford to be lavish with them. Blossoms in the yellow to orange-red range that are available include:

Mexican lupine, esperanza, zinnias, cosmos, bird of paradise or tawashien, lantana, cannas, retama (a few), Aztec daisy, sunflowers, Oklahoma weed, Chinese hat plant, duranta berries, china berries, ripe inedible dates, allamanda, marigolds, roses, cup of gold, and probably a number of others.

Heritage from founders:

A new idea to us and one that is right interesting is Mrs. R. M. Winn's observation that each Valley town has a distinct personality that can be definitely traced to its early founders and leaders.

Mrs. Winn has watched development of the Valley for many years, has just moved from Mercedes, to Mission, and bases her remark on first hand knowledge.

Valley not Southwest:

What amounts to official recognition of the unique flavor of the Lower Rio Grande Valley area is given in Erna Ferguson's "The Southwest."

The book written chiefly to memorialize the 400th anniversary of the Coronado expedition and dealing wholly with the Southwest, asserts that this section is not a part of the Southwest as is the rest of Texas, but a region set apart by a different background of culture.

The difference was more pronounced in the old days when travelers arriving by stage coach were much impressed by the strong contrast in atmosphere and customs.

"When you crossed the Arroyo Colorado on the ferry," Miss Paul Hill, daughter of the late Lon C. Hill, once said, "it was like entering another country." Spanish was the principal language and the medium of exchange was Mexican money.

Both Brownsville and Matamoros, which once had been a large, bustling city, had declined because of sharp falling off in trade. With cessation of ocean and river commerce their increased isolation intensified the already unusual international flavor that persists today and is now finding expression in the Chorro Days Fiesta.

Darling visit talked:

Grapevine talk that "Ding" Darling may come to the Valley as speaker for an important convention makes the current article in Satepost especially interesting, both to folks who have been following the career of the noted cartoonist and conservation proponent, and to those who feel they ought to know who he is but just don't. Had Satepost editors published the Ding article a couple of months earlier, it wouldn't have been necessary for this writer to try to appear intelligent while our Des Moines hosts endeavored politely to discover if we shared their apparently unlimited enthusiasm for the cartoonist who gave national publicity to the smoke-stained buildings of their city and refused to live anywhere else.

Things learned this week:

Turnip greens contain more calcium than any other green vegetable. Mrs. John W. Puckett told bridal wreath from shrubs in her own yard in Pharr for table decorations when she gave a luncheon for Margaret Boyce, bride of Saturday. Members of the Harlingen Girls Friendly Society, 20, are learning to knit for the Red Cross. Ninth grade girls in Rio Grande City schools are teaching Future Homemakers in the fifth grade to knit so they can assist with the Red Cross program.

Help is needed both with knitting and sewing to complete the quota assigned to the San Benito-Harlingen Red Cross chapter for war victims.

Los Fresnos seniors had to elect a new class president because the one they had got married.

Grasses flaunting those exquisite plumes of rosy pink to wine red are coloring the railroad right of way on the main Valley highway; they made their first Valley appearance alongside the new Kennedy county road and probably were introduced as seed in sand or gravel.

San Benito Garden Club members this week set 60 large bougainvilleas on the esplanades on San Houston Boulevard, a part of the Valley Bougainvillea Trail.

Latin-American members of Harlingen's Bougainvillea Garden Club planted roses the past week, setting out 150 in Portifio Diaz Park. Collecting miniature shoes and boots is a hobby that gives a great deal of pleasure to Miss Ianthia Demaree who is a valuable cog in the machinery at the San Benito postoffice.

Little Theatre players, just organized in the lower Valley, will direct their first joint efforts toward a movie thriller, "Six-Shooter Junction," depicting early days in Harlingen.

Named Club Head

BROWNSVILLE—Jimmy Magill, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Earle Magill, has been named president of the Pre-Med club at the New Mexico Military Institute according to word received here. The Pre-Med club at the Institute in Roswell is one of the largest clubs on the campus.

Mrs. King Home

BROWNSVILLE—Mrs. R. A. King has returned to her home here after an extended visit in Wisconsin and in Dallas. Mrs. King spent the summer with her daughter, Mrs. H. V. Scanlan and Colonel Scanlan in Wisconsin, and visited in Dallas as the guest of her son, R. C. King, and Mrs. King.

Pharr Girl Is Bride

Mrs. Wilbur H. McClelland of Edinburg was before her marriage September 12, Miss Dorothy Rae Allen. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Allen and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brittan, both of Pharr. (Kerr Studio)

Mrs. Jack Wiech Named New Leader For Juniors At First Club Session

BROWNSVILLE—An important business session and an enjoyable program in the form of a debate were features of the Thursday afternoon meeting of the Junior Self-Culture club at the home of Mrs. Milton Overstreet.

In the business meeting, the resignation of Mrs. Ben L. Brite as president, was accepted with regret.

Mrs. Jack Wiech, vice-president, was elected to the office, and Mrs. Maurice Pipkin was named vice-president.

The members also accepted with regret the resignations of Mrs. E. T. Yates, as sponsor, and Mrs. Lon F. McDougall, Mrs. C. L. Robinson, and Mrs. Collis P. Perkins, members, who are making their homes elsewhere.

The new president also appointed three new chairmen to fill vacancies. These were Mrs. Harvey E. Nuckols, social service; Mrs. Jack Mace, yearbook, and Miss Betty Rockwell, entertainment.

The members planned a costume party for the evening of October 31 when husbands of members will be guests at the home of Mrs. Charles Mathers.

Delegates to the Brownsville Federation of Women's clubs met Thursday will be Mrs. Jack Mace, Mrs. Frank Mathers, taking the part of the modern housewife, and Mrs. George W. Putnegat, taking the part of the housewife of yesterday. The next meeting will be held November 7 at the home of Mrs. Jack Wiech.

Attending this first meeting were Mesdames Bert M. Cromack, Jack Mace, Frank Mathers, Charles Mathers, Mrs. Mohle, O. W. Neck, Harvey E. Nuckols, Maurice Pipkin, George W. Putnegat, J. Gordon White, Jack Wiech, Misses Elizabeth Graham and Betty Rockwell.

Mrs. Ford Visits

BROWNSVILLE — Mrs. Elliott Ford of San Antonio is visiting her son, J. A. Baird, and Mrs. Baird.

Recent Bride Named Honoree For Shower Enjoyed In Donna

DONNA—Mrs. Emory Capt entertained 30 friends both young and older in honor of young Mrs. Aubrey Hood, until a fortnight ago, Miss Katharine Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Moore of Donna. Mrs. Capt's lovely home on North Eighth Street was elaborately decorated for the occasion with fern and roses. After series of exciting games, little James and Robert Capt came in with their express wagon, heaped high with green and white parcels for the bride, which opened revealed a generous supply of every sort of household linen.

At the close of the evening small round pound cakes iced in green and white and grapefruit juice with cherries and green and white mints were served by the hostess with Mrs. Carrie Lee More assisting her.

The first school for the blind was incorporated in Massachusetts in 1830.

Book Review Presented In Weslaco

WESLACO—Mrs. Herbert Pike was hostess to the Junior Literary Review Club Thursday night at her home. Beautiful arrangements of roses added to the setting.

Mrs. Frances Jackson presided and seven new members were voted into the club.

Mrs. Paul Meyer reviewed the book "The Kings Row."

A sweet course was served late in the evening.

Mrs. Zeb Rike is scheduled as hostess for the next meeting.

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Burton was the scene for a delightful courtesy Thursday night when Mrs. Burton, president of the Althean Class of the First Baptist Church, opened her home for the October party.

Members and their husbands enjoyed a covered dish supper.

The Weslaco Business and Professional Womens Club held a banquet at the Weslaco Hotel Tuesday night. Attractive Halloween motifs decorated the table. Miss Zaida Langford introduced Brad Smith, guest speaker, who discussed the "European Situation."

Shower Courtesy Given In Weslaco Honors Mrs. Knapp

WESLACO—Mrs. Earl Pike and Mrs. Norris Richey were hostesses at the home of Mrs. Pike Wednesday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Gilson Knapp with a lovely bridge shower. The living room was beautifully decorated with roses, while zinnias in lavish arrangements decorated the sun room and dining room.

A salad and sweet course were served. Guests were Mesdames C. H. Perry of Donna, Gordon Potts, Everette Knapp, Clifford Scott, Oliver Swinnea, John Wood, George Harren, Larry Heid, J. J. Stephens, L. R. Clifford, J. A. Knapp, Parker Knapp of Harlingen, and Charles Pearce. Mesdames K. P. Caskey, Jimmie Davis, N. G. Hargett, Fred Kay and R. H. Bailey were tea guests.

Mrs. Everette Knapp won high score and Mrs. Charles Pearce received second high award.

Autumn Blossoms Form Party Setting

EDCOUCH—Autumn flowers of many hues formed a pretty environment when Mrs. W. K. Galbreath was hostess at her home on Thursday afternoon honoring members of the Eighty-four Club.

Following the games, the hostess served a salad course to Mesdames J. P. Pealor, A. J. Stephens, I. M. Smith, J. B. Lester, Carl Poigne, R. G. Bell, members, and Emmet Cooper, a guest.

Rays Are Hosts To Bridge Group

DONNA—Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ray entertained their bridge club and number of guests Tuesday night at eight in rooms modernistically adorned with tithonia and tawshien. Mrs. Truman Sanders and W. S. Ray scored high.

At the close of the evening the hostess served a delicious salad plate and coffee to Messrs and Mesdames Lillard Martin, Dale Washburn, Maurice Bell, Truman Sanders, W. S. Ray and McAllister Price.

Class Has Supper

SAN JUAN — Members of the Four-Square Sunday School class of the People's Church were served delicious steak barbecue in the church basement Tuesday night at their regular monthly meeting. Hostesses were Mesdames Elmer Reichert, E. O. Stephens, A. Sorensen, and J. W. Spencer.

Rehearsal Dinner Given Bridal Party

DONNA—Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murray entertained the Boyce-Hunt bridal party and their immediate families with a buffet supper in their lovely home on South Val Verde.

The charming affair carried out the autumn note featured throughout the pre-nuptial courtesies. The dining table from which the delicious hot supper was served, was laid with a rare ecru linen cloth, adorned with Italian embroidery. The decorations were of autumn fruits and vegetables.

The entire service, both there and on the quartet tables, down the long living room was of quaint Mexican pottery.

In the group, besides the host and hostess, were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Boyce, Mr. and Mrs. Burgess Stutzenbecker of McAllen, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lehmann of San Antonio, William D. Hunt and Miss Virginia Hunt of Palestine, Miss Oneita Hollis of Houston, Miss Margaret and Miss Louise Boyce of Donna, H. D. Turner of Harlingen, and William McDonald Hunt, Jr., of Houston.

Many Additional Workers Are Needed To Complete Sewing For War Refugees

Size Of Quota Assigned Red Cross Chapter Makes Aid Appeal With Sewing Necessary

HARLINGEN—Assistance in sewing by a large group of volunteer workers will be necessary if materials furnished by the Red Cross for production into apparel for war refugees is completed, it was announced here at the week-end as a survey was made of the requirements set by the current quota.

CHAMPION KNITTER ALSO GIVES LESSONS

HARLINGEN — Mrs. Margaret Curtiss, 902 E. Taylor, was the first volunteer to complete a sweater in the present quota assigned for the Red Cross in this area. Mrs. Curtiss has since completed her second sweater and is ready to start on her third.

Mrs. Curtiss, who was an expert at knitting before the start of World War I, is interested in giving instruction to beginners. Anyone interested may obtain detailed instruction and help by calling at her home.

Cutting of the skirts was started Friday afternoon at the Woman's building by Mrs. W. H. Lemmons and Mrs. W. W. King with Mrs. A. M. Letzerich, chairman of the sewing group, assisting. The work will be resumed Monday at 9 a. m. when about ten volunteers are needed to aid with the cutting.

Everyone willing to help sew is requested to stop during the morning to obtain materials and instruction, even though actual work can't be started immediately. Clubs and missionary societies desiring to work as groups may have materials distributed at their Tuesday meetings by sending a request to Mrs. McKenna at 740 or 190.

Mrs. Peterson Adds Another Courtesy To Series For Bridge

DONNA—Honoring Miss Margaret Boyce, bride of the week, Mrs. A. V. Peterson of Pharr, entertained with a small seven o'clock dinner at the Casa de Palma in McAllen on Wednesday evening at seven. The white-laid table was centered with pink roses expertly arranged in white pottery.

The hostess' gift to the bride was of crystal to match her set.

Guests for the intimate occasion were Miss Lucille Copeland, Miss Ruth Greenfield, Mrs. Joe Ellis, all of Pharr, and the hostess and honoree.

California Guests

BROWNSVILLE—Mr. and Mrs. John Rosauer, former residents of Alamo, returned Friday to their home in Los Angeles, California after a few days visit here with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Richards. This is the first visit the California family has paid the Valley for nineteen years.

R. C. Pryor, chairman of the Harlingen division of the Red Cross chapter, and Mrs. Gerald W. McKenna, member of the local board, have urgently requested that women's club and church groups especially make themselves responsible for fulfilling a part of the task.

The present quota of sewing, in addition to knitting a large number of sweaters, assigned to the Harlingen unit includes:

Women's skirts, 50; girls' skirts, 75; women's dresses, 20; girls' dresses, 100; boys' shirts, 30; boys' overalls, 20; convalescent robes, 15; hospital pajamas, 30; layettes, 50.

Only material for the skirts is on hand at this time, the government purchase policy making it impossible to forward the entire lot in a single shipment.

Because of the size of the quota, Red Cross officials consider it urgent that sewing of the skirts be completed within a very short time in order to be ready to make the other garments.

Cutting of the skirts was started Friday afternoon at the Woman's building by Mrs. W. H. Lemmons and Mrs. W. W. King with Mrs. A. M. Letzerich, chairman of the sewing group, assisting. The work will be resumed Monday at 9 a. m. when about ten volunteers are needed to aid with the cutting.

Junior High To Benefit From Review

BROWNSVILLE—Mrs. Thomas J. Yoe, Jr., will be presented in a book review Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the junior high school library. Tickets for the event may be purchased at the school for 25 cents apiece. Proceeds will go to the junior high school book fund.

Mrs. Yoe will review the book, "How Green Was My Valley," by Richard Llewellyn. This is the story of a large family, the Morgans, whose livelihood depended on mining, fifty years ago when South Wales still prospered and coal dust had not blackened the greenness of the valley.

This is the story of Huw, one of the youngest children, of his family, their friends and their neighbors. In a mood of nostalgia, Huw, an old man, remembers the last golden days of his youth. A great slanting heap has crept menacingly upon his childhood home, and Huw is about to leave the Valley forever.

Within the pages of the book is comedy, tragedy, love, excitement, heroism, and a crisp salty Welsh humor, which lifts the tale from sentimentality.

Priscillas Welcome Former Members At Thursday Session

BROWNSVILLE—Members of the Olmito Modern Priscilla club were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emily Davis.

During the business session, Mrs. Louis Rank, a former president, presided in the absence of the president.

Noted Visitors Coming To The Valley

Prominent Texas women who will take active part in formal organization of a South Texas Branch of the Composers and Authors Association of America at a luncheon Saturday, October 26, in Harlingen are presented in the pictures above. Mrs. Clara Driscoll, Corpus Christi, is honorary president of the group; Mrs. Lillian Durham, Dickinson, Ft. Worth, is national president; and Mrs. Alex Adams, San Antonio, is editor of "Comet" the state magazine and past president of the national group.

Composers, Authors Group Of Valley And South Texas To Hold First Meet Oct. 26

HARLINGEN—More than 50 members and a number of distinguished guests including presidents of national and state organizations are expected to attend the initial meeting of the Rio Grande Valley Composers and Authors Association to be held October 26 at the Reese-Wil-Mond Hotel. An invitation to hold the spring meeting at Kingsville has already been received from J. O. Lofton, president of Texas Arts and Industries.

Membership in the group includes artists, authors, musicians and composers from South Texas areas as well as the Rio Grande Valley. Preliminary organization work has been carried out by Mrs. Ben H. Sanders, Harlingen, under authority from both state and national presidents of the group. Mrs. Sanders is seventh vice president of the national group and contributing editor to the national magazine.

Notables who will be in Harlingen for the initial meeting will include Mrs. Lillian Durham, Dickinson, Ft. Worth, national president and editor of the national magazine, Composers and Authors; Lillian Lorraine, San Antonio, second national vice president, a staff member of two national verse magazines, and founder of Avalon Poetry Shrine; and Mrs. Alex Adams, San Antonio, past national president and current editor of "Comet" the state magazine.

In the group of visitors also will be Mrs. Margaret McInnis Douglas of Dallas, Mrs. Long of San Antonio, and probably Joe Naylor, San Antonio publisher.

Special speakers at the luncheon will be Mrs. Adams and Lillian Lorraine. Mrs. Adams will discuss "Looking Forward," Mrs. Adams is well known in this section being a past president of the Fifth District, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs and active in club affairs.

Miss Lorraine's subject will be "The Spiritual Defenses of Democracy, The Creative Art." Miss Lorraine, who is the author of two books of verse, has been lecturing in Fort Worth and gave a lecture in Corpus Christi October 18 on "The Spiritual Bulwarks of Democracy," under the auspices of the Three Arts Club.

She has recently built the Avalon Poetry Shrine on the grounds of her home, Avalon, in San Antonio, dedicating it to the poets of the Southwest. In it poems, pictures, biographies, and books by poets are preserved and in it poets and writers meet for exchange of ideas and advice.

Definite assurance has not yet been received whether Mrs. Clara Driscoll, Corpus Christi, honorary president of the newly formed Composers and Authors Association of South Texas, will be present for the luncheon.

Mrs. Driscoll Head Mrs. Driscoll, Corpus Christi, who is national democratic committee-woman from Texas and widely known for her philanthropy, and an outstanding business woman, is also a writer of note. She is the author of "The Girl of La Gloria," "The Shadow of the Alamo" and wrote words for a musical play, "Mexicana."

Vice presidents of the new organization include Mrs. H. E. Butt, Corpus Christi, formerly of Harlingen, a contributor to national publications and widely known leader in child welfare work; Miss Frances Alexander, Kingsville, author of "Seven White Birds" and a member at Texas A. & I.; Mrs. Daisy Glick Stevenson, Lyford, who is illustrating books of verse for children; James W. Allen, Harlingen, who is taking his second year at McCune School of Music and Art, in Salt Lake City, studying organ and counterpoint under Dr. Frank W. Asper at the famous Mormon tabernacle and composition with Tracy Y. Cannon; Mrs. Gerald W. McKenna, Harlingen librarian and feature writer; and Mrs. G. W. Johnson, Brownsville, who has been engaging in historical research in Old Mexico and doing preliminary work toward writing her biography.

Officers Appointed Officers include Miss Ida Campbell, Harlingen, recording secretary; Mrs. Ophelia Hill, Harlingen, treasurer; Mrs. Lillian Weems Baldrige, Harlingen, corresponding secretary; Mrs. May Dickens, Texas A. & I. College, Kingsville, parliamentary; and B. S. Mothershead, Harlingen, auditor.

Chairmen will be announced following the first meeting. The Composers and Authors Association was organized six years ago by the late Mrs. Rosser Thomas of Houston. Mrs. Durham has been a leader in its recent expansion and development.

Mrs. Sanders is contributing editor to the magazine, Composers and Authors of America, which is published quarterly and edits a page devoted to work of members of the South Texas group.

Principal objective of the South Texas group, Mrs. Sanders states, will be the publication of a Valley magazine in which the work of members will be published. The Three Arts is the title to be given the Valley publication which will appear at first ten times a year, probably merging into a monthly magazine. It will be devoted to music, artists, and authors.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made up to Tuesday, October 22, with Mrs. Ben H. Sanders, Phone 393-J in Harlingen.

Report was given regarding the planting of 150 rosebushes the past week in the park and also planting of lilies around the fountain. After the business meeting a surprise tea and shower was given honoring the hostess on her 35th wedding anniversary. She received many lovely gifts of silver from the members and from The Club Ideal.

Chocolate and cake were served. Guests in addition to members were Mesdames F. Renaud, Juan Vallejo, J. Rodriguez, Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Campos, and Mrs. Marie Grappenhous.

Rose Planting Is Reported

HARLINGEN—Increased activity on the part of Latin-American members of the Harlingen Eugainvillea Garden Club was recorded at their regular meeting this week at the home of Mrs. Sabas Gutierrez when 21 members attended.

The group made arrangements for daily service, transporting hot lunches prepared by girls at the NYA center from supplies furnished by the Surplus Commodities Corporation, to the Alamo school where 100 children are served daily. Members alternate in the task of taking the food and two NYA girls to the school.

Los Fresnos Club Names Delegates

LOS FRESNOS—Mrs. Frank Kretz was hostess to the Woman's Service club at her home on Thursday afternoon. The Halloween motif was carried out in the decorations.

Mrs. N. G. Chatelle presided over a short business session in which delegates were elected for the Valley Federation meeting to be held at San Juan on October 22. Mrs. Noel Ryall, Mrs. U. J. Breedlove, and Mrs. B. Chase were chosen. Alternates were Mrs. E. W. Chase and Mrs. Joe Nesetill.

Mrs. W. B. Palmer was program leader for the afternoon. Roll call was answered by naming a famous actor and a play. The group sang "The Last Rose of Summer" and Mrs. Leon Hinkley read an interesting paper on the personality of Helen Hayes.

Present were Misses Geneva Palmer and Ethel Gammon, and Mesdames U. J. Breedlove, E. W. Chase, C. B. Chase, N. G. Chatelle, Grover Greer, Leon Hinkley, Harry Whipple, Peter Watkins, F. C. Miller, Joe Nesetill, W. B. Palmer, E. Rogers, Harold Pugh, Jr., Noel Ryall and Frank Kretz.

Mrs. W. B. Palmer and Miss Geneva Palmer will entertain the club on Thursday, November 7.

Mrs. E. E. Hollon entertained this week at her new home with a party honoring the fifth birthday of her son, Larry Don. Pink radiance roses and a white angel food cake with five pink candles were featured with decorative effect.

The tiny honor guest was presented with many lovely gifts. Favors were balloons and suckers.

Present for the affair were Barbara Sue and Peggy Lynn Pederson, Jimmy Hollon, June and Janelle Whitlock, Marjorie Breedlove, Delbert Lipe, Merry and Gerry Hollon and Garry Lee Barr of San Benito, and Neola and Ramona Ryall of Bayview. Mothers present were Mesdames Harold Hollon of San Benito, Edgar Lipe, P. C. Pederson, O. J. Pederson, U. J. Breedlove, Edward Whitlock and Noel Ryall.

Thomas Ray Moses was honor guest at a party on his seventh birthday, Wednesday when his mother, Mrs. Wesley Moses, assisted by Mrs. George L. Goates, entertained a large group of children.

Mrs. Bert Hack New Club Head

HARLINGEN—The Linen and Lace club elected officers when they met this week at the home of Mrs. Bert Hack. Named to office were the following:

Mrs. Bert Hack, president; Mrs. Frances Cowart, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Elmo Newberry, program chairman; Mrs. Terry Nesmith, reporter.

A Halloween party was planned for the next meeting.

The door prize was won by Mrs. Cowart. A refreshing salad and limeade carrying out the green color theme was served to eight members and three guests.

Work Of Famous Artist To Be Shown In Exhibit; Open House Is Scheduled

HARLINGEN—Paintings by Harold A. Roney, who has won awards in national competitions, will be shown in an exhibit sponsored by the Rio Grande Valley Art League at the Woman's Building October 24-31.

Everyone interested from throughout the Valley is invited and men are especially asked to call.

Mr. Roney, who is from Pennsylvania, is especially attracted to the Texas Hill country and has a camp where he conducts art classes, assisted by visiting artists, during the summer. Much of his work on exhibit presents landscapes showing this region.

From 3 to 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon everyone interested in meeting Mr. Roney and possibly arranging for lessons during his week's stay is invited to meet at the home of Mrs. Norman Knights, 121 W. Buchanan. Both beginners and active artists are welcome to enroll for instruction.

Mr. Roney's exhibit will remain on display at the Woman's building throughout the week and will be open to the public.

A special feature was the presentation, during roll call, of canned foods to be given by the club to a needy family in connection with its welfare project.

Halloween colors were carried out in the decorations and in the refreshment course, served to 12 members and a visitor, Mrs. Charles Whitney.

Next regular meeting will be with members meeting with Miss Farrar at the home of Mrs. Mary Craig, with Miss Payne as co-hostess. The group will meet with Miss Farrar Thursday, October 24, for a taco supper when Miss Prenzler and Mrs. Lois Myer will assist in preparation of the menu.

Novel Entertainment Aids Club's Project

HARLINGEN—Clever details gave particular interest to the benefit event given Thursday evening by Mrs. Lee A. Carey, chairman of the Business and Professional Women's Club. She was assisted in presenting a miniature "Dr. I.Q." program by members of her committee.

The entertainment followed the routine of the popular radio program with Mrs. Josephine Young as Dr. I.Q. and Mrs. Ophelia Hill and Mrs. Ruth Briscoe as her aides. Failures to give correct answers resulted in payment of small forfeits and those answering correctly were rewarded with packets of candy.

Proceeds from the event will help finance the club's hospital project. A Halloween party will be held at the home of Mrs. Ruth Wyland Craig.

Miss Payne Is President

HARLINGEN—Miss Frances Payne was named president when regular election of officers was held Thursday at the meeting of Duncans Club, D.S., at the home of Miss Evelyn Dell. Other officers were named as follows:

Miss Edna Bell Farrar, vice president; Miss Bernice Prenzler, secretary; Mrs. Mary Frances Gamble, treasurer and birthday fund; Miss Evelyn Dell, social; Miss Yettevie DuBois, sick; Miss Eleanor Matz, reporter; and Mrs. Beulah Gardner, welfare.

Schiaparelli On Lecture Tour

"A costume made of the best materials, perfectly cut and perfectly fitted, is a good investment," says Mme. Elsa Schiaparelli, famed French couturiere, who will begin her first American lecture tour in Philadelphia, Sept. 23.

"If the cut is simple the costume is often wearable for several seasons," she says. "But unless the whole matter of one's wardrobe is carefully considered, with due regard to the garments of last season that are to be used again, confusion is bound to result. We cannot go wrong if we strive for simplicity and perfect fit."

Mme. Schiaparelli who has numbered among her clients the most elegant women in the world, will tour 35 American cities, under the auspices of the Columbia Lecture Bureau, during the next three months.

The prospect of seeing America in "both exciting and terrifying" to the great French dressmaker. Cowboys are one feature of the American scene she has vowed not to miss. So don't be surprised if women are wearing bronco-busting baubles next winter — by Schiaparelli.

Church Group Has Supper

McALLEN—The Young Matrons group of the First Christian church met Thursday for a covered dish supper at the home of Mrs. John Beckholdt.

A devotional on faith was given by Mrs. F. T. Lang and the lesson on "Home and Public Morals" was ably given by Mrs. Cecil Robinson. There were eight guests, Miss Geraldine Bullock of Dallas, Miss Helen Adams, Elvora Smith, Mary Elsie Beasley, Eva Gray Smith, Dorothy Hughes, Mesdames Bill Harris and Clyde Rexrode, and the members. Mesdames Jack Wilson, Fred Rambo, Hugh Rich, W. H. Moody, Cecil Robinson, F. F. Lange, A. V. Summy, Dale Smith and Leonard Irving.

The next meeting will be at 6:30 p.m. November 5 at the home of Mrs. A. V. Summy in Pharr when Mrs. John Beckholdt will have charge of the lesson and Mrs. Hugh Rich will give the devotional.

Mrs. Gordon Potts Is Club Hostess

WESLACO—Roses in colorful bouquets decorated the living rooms when Mrs. Gordon Potts entertained the Dos Mesas Bridge Club Thursday.

Mrs. I. R. Stahl won high score award and Mrs. Jerry Tesser and Mrs. Oliver Swinnee were club guests.

Hallowe'en plate was served late in the afternoon.

Breakfast Hostess

RAYMONDVILLE—Mrs. John Fambrough served a delicious breakfast to members of her club on Thursday morning at her home. Cosmo and genius were prettily arranged for the occasion. Members and guests were Mesdames James Strawn, C. D. Ritter, G. E. Bennack, Roger Robinson, Fredrick Humphrey, Harry Douthit, Gorman Fox, Earl Gilliland.

Mrs. Fox received trophy for high score.

Special Meet Called

WESLACO—A special meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service is called for Monday at 3 p.m. at the church by Mrs. L. M. Gallion, president. Mrs. Gallion will present her report of the conference which she attended in San Antonio. All members are urged to attend and circle members will assemble at the church instead of in circle groups as was previously announced.

VISITS PARENTS

LYFORD—Miss Melba McGlothlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley McGlothlin, returned home from Corpus Christi where she is a teacher.

LOS FRESNOS—Mrs. S. E. Barr has gone to Laredo where she will spend several days with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wale D. Barr, during the absence of Mr. Barr.

Homecoming Is Highlight At A. & I.

By CARL CHILTON

KINGSVILLE—Homecoming has just passed on the campus of Texas A. and I. The Homecoming celebration this year was one of most successful held yet, climaxing Saturday night with the Javelinas' first home game and first conference battle with the Southwest Texas State Bobcats. A great throng of ex-students crowded the A. and I. campus yesterday, with many from the Valley among them.

The Homecoming ceremonies opened Friday night with a bonfire and pep rally on the campus. On Saturday morning there was an assembly welcoming the visitors on the campus, and the climax came Saturday night with the game, followed by a dance.

John Hagler of Edinburg is a member of the executive committee of the A. and I. Ex-Students Association.

Music for the bonfire and pep rally, assembly, and the game, was furnished by the A. and I. band, under the direction of Erwin Ernst. The band of 55 pieces, is one of the best A. and I. has ever had, and includes many students who formerly played in the high school bands of the Rio Grande Valley.

Among those who tried out for drum major of the band were Bessie Rhinehart of Pharr and Freddie Wood from Donna. Frank Winfrey of Sinton was selected to lead the organization on parade. Ann Dunn of McAllen and Lorraine Vollmer of Mission are members of the color guard of the band.

An unofficial count released by the dean's office here shows that the Rio Grande Valley is represented at A. and I. this year by 116 students, as compared to last year's total of 106.

Harlingen leads in the number of enrollments from a single city, with 12. Close behind are McAllen and Raymondville, with 11 each. Next comes San Benito with 9; Brownsville, Donna, Mercedes, and Rio Grande City with 8 each; Santa Rosa with 6; Alamo and Mission, 5 apiece; La FERIA with 4; Port Isabel, Edinburg, and Pharr with three each; Weslaco, San Juan, and Rio Hondo with 2 each; and Lyford, San Perlita, Los Fresnos, Edcouch, Combes and Sebastian with one each.

Ann Dunn of McAllen has been elected vice-president of the A. and I. High School Student Teachers Association. Sarah Marie Kullen of Raymondville is serving as secretary and treasurer of the organization. Clinton Schmeling of Brownsville has been elected secretary-treasurer of the A. and I. Male Chorus, an outstanding campus organization. Clinton is also junior class representative in the Student Council. He is the only Valley student in the council.

Harvey Pritchard of Donna is playing saxophone in the A. and I. dance band, composed entirely of students. This is the first year in several years that there has been a student dance band on the campus here.

Major Projects Voted By Civic Leaguers; Tea Honors Mrs. Johnson

Library Aid Planned, Shop Opening Set; Ross Hoyt Gives Program

BROWNSVILLE—An important business session, an interesting program, and a tea honoring Mrs. G. W. Johnson were highlights of the Brownsville Civic League's first regular meeting when Mrs. Volney W. Taylor was hostess at her home, Quinta la Paz, Thursday afternoon.

Thirty-six members attended, with Mrs. A. F. McLendon, Mrs. W. H. Meredith, Mrs. John N. Merrill, and Mrs. H. P. Langworthy being welcomed as new members.

During the business session, Mrs. Taylor, president, appointed Mrs. Merrill, Mrs. Langworthy, and Mrs. Johnson as delegates to the Valley Federation meeting in San Juan; Mrs. Charles Watson, Mrs. Thomas Yett, and Mrs. D. P. Gay, Jr., to the Valley Council in San Benito; Mrs. J. Grider Perkins is the delegate to the State Federation convention.

Mrs. Perkins, elected secretary of the Brownsville Federation as the representative from the league in the spring, tendered her resignation, and Mrs. Harry C. Groom was nominated to fill this place.

In the absence of Mrs. Una Palmer, chairman, Mrs. Taylor announced that final plans are being completed for the opening of the thrift shop near the market square in the near future.

Civic projects for the club for this year are assistance with the public library and beautification of its grounds. The members voted a sum of six dollars for this purpose, with five dollars to be used in the purchase of books, and one dollar to be used for seeds for annuals. The members voted to plant a tree on the library grounds also.

A check with the librarian, Mrs. Claud Morton, revealed the need for the following books: Chief Contemporary Dramatists, first and second series, by Dickinson; Representatives of American Drama, Moses; Masterpieces of Modern Drama, Pierce and Mathews; The Bluebird, Maeterlinck; Audubon's America, Tealick; and Encyclopedia of World's History, W. L. Langer. Anyone willing to donate these books to the library may contact Mrs. Morton, or Mrs. R. M. Hannah, telephone 1523, chairman of the library committee.

A benefit book review was set for the last Thursday in October in the basement of the Central Christian Church. Admission will be 25 cents apiece, and funds will be used to carry on the general work of the league.

Mrs. W. T. Harvey, chairman streets and alleys, reported the clean-up of an insanitary spot in a West Brownsville alley, and of grounds of a dairy.

Mrs. W. T. Harvey, plant exchange chairman, distributed plants, bulbs and cuttings among the members.

Speaker for the program was Ross Hoyt of McAllen, landscape architect, who gave practical and timely suggestions for fall planting. He listed the annuals, told how the seeds should be planted and gave directions for the care of the soil. He described the making of a compost of leaves, and stressed the necessity for watering lawns heavily in which termites are tunneling.

Mrs. Johnson, honor guest, was presented by the hostess with a flowering bougainvillea plant. Mrs. Johnson has been away from Brownsville for the past nine months.

During the social hour, Mrs. Willie A. George served the cake, a long rectangular confection, furthering the garden scheme with its embossing of morning glories in pastel shades. Mrs. Charles W. Watson presided at the coffee service.

The table was centered with a miniature Japanese garden made bright with purple bachelor buttons and the tawny blossoms. Esperanza was used in the library, and in the drawing room were pretty arrangements of rose and African daisies in pastel shades.

SPECIALISTS LEAVE

RIO GRANDE CITY—Miss Bernice Campbell, district agent, and Mrs. Bernice Claytor, home improvement specialist, both of College Station, left Tuesday for Laredo after spending a short time in Starr county during which they assisted County Agent Charles A. McALLEN—Sun Oil Co. Saturday had become the second oil operator in the Lower Rio Grande Valley area to get important production from the Vicksburg when it announced its No. 1 Mateo Saenz, Survey 80, five miles north of the big Rincon field in eastern Starr. As a producer and moved rig to new location.

This development paced wildcatting in the Valley, although interest was shared with the Pan-American wildcat in eastern Willacy county, which had set a long string of production slacked somewhat from the rush of the past few weeks.

Sun's No. 1 Saenz gauged 60 barrels daily on 7-64 inch tubing choke through casing perforations (9 shots) at 5,478-81 feet, with 1,250 pounds tubing working pressure and 1,825 pounds closed-in casing pressure. It is about five miles north of the Rincon area and three miles north-south of the "North Rincon" area, also starting steady development.

Operators ran production test on the well for several days before deciding to finish it as a source of production. It is now shut down at 9,000 feet after reportedly cementing 9 5-8 inch o. d. protection string around 8,900 feet. How much deeper the well will be drilled is not known.

About two miles east of production in the Alta Mesa field in southwestern Brooks county, Standard Oil Co. of Texas No. 1 Mrs. Braulia G. de Garcia, Share 1-A, La Mestena Grant, was still testing sand showing oil through casing perforations at approximately 2,800-18 feet. The well was bled off at 2,800 feet and the sand was regular field sand.

In northeastern Brooks county about six miles northeast of Fairfarms, J. M. West Production Co. No. 1 Wm. Ehlers, Sec. 12, Burton and Danforth Subd., Loma Blanca Grant, was reported drilling below 6,870 feet. No information was being made public on the well.

McALLEN—A half-dozen new producers

were added Saturday in four Lower Rio Grande Valley producing fields and drilling continued steadily in all areas. A new south edge producer was apparently assured for the "North Rincon" area in eastern Starr while a new north edge producer was finalized in the Kelsey field in southwestern Brooks county.

A south offset to the North Rincon discovery, the Sun Oil No. 1 W. C. Lehr, failed to flow except by heads and operators were planning to install flow-valves.

The new well is Harvey C. Wells county to be increased from 551 to 668 barrels a day and ordered rules of the Rotan field of Fisher county amended to more equally distribute allowances.

Raymondville's FFA Elects Sweethearts

RAYMONDVILLE—The Future Farmers of America met on Wednesday afternoon with their instructor, C. D. Ritter, for a brief business session and to elect two "sweethearts." Girls chosen were Winifred Raymond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. C. Raymond, and June Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Page.

Officers of the Future Farmers club this year are, president, Percy Ray, vice president, Charlie Bury, secretary, Billy Griffin; treasurer, Calvin Spillman; reporter, Bobby Gene Richmond.

Latin's Failure To Register Is Probed

McALLEN—Hidalgo county sheriff's office was investigating reports that a young Latin-American citizen of McCook had failed to register for the army draft because his father was determined that his son should not "join the army and go off to war."

Raymondville School Club Elects Chiefs

RAYMONDVILLE—The Spanish club of the high school has elected new officers: President, Felipe Garcia; vice president, Gonzalo; secretary, Oscar Gonzalo. Bill Thompson is head of the department of Spanish.

Monterrey Shortage Of Water Is Acute

MONTERREY, Mex.—(AP)—Water shortage, already a grave problem here, Friday night threatened to become more acute as a strike of power company employees continued through its second full day.

There were no immediate prospects for a settlement. Company officials had not asked the government to declare the strike illegal, which is possible under Mexican law.

TEXAS GRAIN

PORT WORTH—(AP)—Fair demand for grain continued to the week-end. Estimated receipts were: Wheat 7 cars, corn 7, and oats 1.

Wheat No. 1 soft red winter 95½-96½; No. 1 hard 94-95.

Barley No. 2, nominally 61-63; No. 3 red 60-62.

Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs. nominal 115-118; No. 3 milo nominal 112-115.

No. 2 white kafir nominal 115-118; No. 3 kafir nominal 112-115.

Corn, shelled, No. 2 white 74-75½; No. 2 yellow 72-73.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO—(AP)—The grain market idled through a listless session Saturday in which prices changed were of a minor nature.

There was no pressure on the market, neither was there any particular effort to purchase. Prices during the last 30 minutes of trading were practically unchanged.

Earlier the market had a firmer tone after traders had noted that wheat was being stored under the government loan program at a much slower pace than had been current.

When closed unchanged to ¼ higher than Friday's finish, December 8½, May 8¼, oats 1½-½ lower, December 60½, May 61½, corn unchanged to ½ off, and land unchanged to ½ lower.

VALLEY SUNDAY STAR-MONITOR-HERALD

ridge and King's No. 1 Garcia Land and Livestock Co., west half of Port 100, Camargo Jurisdiction, in southeastern Starr county and at the northwest extremity of the Sullivan City field. The test picked up the Sullivan City sand at 4,138-71 feet, and the same sand carried a slight oil show at the top. The sand was tight. Operators continued making hole past 4,250 feet.

At the east edge of the big Rincon field, 1,609 feet east of the Davis, Inc., No. 1 Harry Seyfried, Survey 928, was attracting considerable interest because of further possibilities of extending the daily production. Little information was available on the hole, but it was reported drilling past 4,600 feet. It will be taken deeper than the ordinary field wells.

In the northeastern part of Hidalgo county, Humble Oil and Refining Co. No. 1 American Life Insurance Co., Lot 1, Block 13, Mo-Tex Subd., Las Mestenas Grant, was reported drilling below 7,250 feet in shale.

Pan-American Production Co. No. 1 Porfirio Garcia, Share 3, San Juan de Carrizitos Grant, eastern Willacy county, was shut down at 9,000 feet after reportedly cementing 9 5-8 inch o. d. protection string around 8,900 feet. How much deeper the well will be drilled is not known.

There was no pressure on the market, neither was there any particular effort to purchase. Prices during the last 30 minutes of trading were practically unchanged.

Earlier the market had a firmer tone after traders had noted that wheat was being stored under the government loan program at a much slower pace than had been current.

When closed unchanged to ¼ higher than Friday's finish, December 8½, May 8¼, oats 1½-½ lower, December 60½, May 61½, corn unchanged to ½ off, and land unchanged to ½ lower.

VALLEY SUNDAY STAR-MONITOR-HERALD

ridge and King's No. 1 Garcia Land and Livestock Co., west half of Port 100, Camargo Jurisdiction, in southeastern Starr county and at the northwest extremity of the Sullivan City field. The test picked up the Sullivan City sand at 4,138-71 feet, and the same sand carried a slight oil show at the top. The sand was tight. Operators continued making hole past 4,250 feet.

At the east edge of the big Rincon field, 1,609 feet east of the Davis, Inc., No. 1 Harry Seyfried, Survey 928, was attracting considerable interest because of further possibilities of extending the daily production. Little information was available on the hole, but it was reported drilling past 4,600 feet. It will be taken deeper than the ordinary field wells.

In the northeastern part of Hidalgo county, Humble Oil and Refining Co. No. 1 American Life Insurance Co., Lot 1, Block 13, Mo-Tex Subd., Las Mestenas Grant, was reported drilling below 7,250 feet in shale.

Pan-American Production Co. No. 1 Porfirio Garcia, Share 3, San Juan de Carrizitos Grant, eastern Willacy county, was shut down at 9,000 feet after reportedly cementing 9 5-8 inch o. d. protection string around 8,900 feet. How much deeper the well will be drilled is not known.

About two miles east of production in the Alta Mesa field in southwestern Brooks county, Standard Oil Co. of Texas No. 1 Mrs. Braulia G. de Garcia, Share 1-A, La Mestena Grant, was still testing sand showing oil through casing perforations at approximately 2,800-18 feet. The well was bled off at 2,800 feet and the sand was regular field sand.

In northeastern Brooks county about six miles northeast of Fairfarms, J. M. West Production Co. No. 1 Wm. Ehlers, Sec. 12, Burton and Danforth Subd., Loma Blanca Grant, was reported drilling below 6,870 feet. No information was being made public on the well.

McALLEN—A half-dozen new producers

were added Saturday in four Lower Rio Grande Valley producing fields and drilling continued steadily in all areas. A new south edge producer was apparently assured for the "North Rincon" area in eastern Starr while a new north edge producer was finalized in the Kelsey field in southwestern Brooks county.

A south offset to the North Rincon discovery, the Sun Oil No. 1 W. C. Lehr, failed to flow except by heads and operators were planning to install flow-valves.

The new well is Harvey C. Wells county to be increased from 551 to 668 barrels a day and ordered rules of the Rotan field of Fisher county amended to more equally distribute allowances.

Raymondville's FFA Elects Sweethearts

Latin's Failure To Register Is Probed

McALLEN—Hidalgo county sheriff's office was investigating reports that a young Latin-American citizen of McCook had failed to register for the army draft because his father was determined that his son should not "join the army and go off to war."

Raymondville School Club Elects Chiefs

RAYMONDVILLE—The Spanish club of the high school has elected new officers: President, Felipe Garcia; vice president, Gonzalo; secretary, Oscar Gonzalo. Bill Thompson is head of the department of Spanish.

Monterrey Shortage Of Water Is Acute

MONTERREY, Mex.—(AP)—Water shortage, already a grave problem here, Friday night threatened to become more acute as a strike of power company employees continued through its second full day.

There were no immediate prospects for a settlement. Company officials had not asked the government to declare the strike illegal, which is possible under Mexican law.

TEXAS GRAIN

PORT WORTH—(AP)—Fair demand for grain continued to the week-end. Estimated receipts were: Wheat 7 cars, corn 7, and oats 1.

Wheat No. 1 soft red winter 95½-96½; No. 1 hard 94-95.

Above are Donald Crisp, Myrna Loy and Melvyn Douglas as they appear in a scene from the hilarious comedy "Third Finger, Left Hand" which is scheduled for showing Sunday and Monday at both the Rivoli Theatre in San Benito and the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco and at the Palace Theatre in McAllen Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Current Films

TIMELY AND THRILLING to the "nth" degree, Walter Wanger's newest film release "Foreign Correspondent" is unquestionably one of the most outstanding and entertaining pictures of the year.

It is not a war picture but a breathless story of high adventure among the intrepid newsmen who cover the European war front for America to listen to in news broadcasts and to read in its daily newspapers.

Joel McCrea is cast as the foreign correspondent who falls in love with the lovely daughter of the head of a great peace movement, who turns out to be Hitler's number one agent operating under the guise of the peace society. Other featured stars in "Foreign Correspondent," which is scheduled for current showing Sunday and Monday at the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville include Herbert Marshall, George Sanders, Albert Brasserman and Robert Benchley.

'MARCH OF TIME' SHOWS BRITAIN'S AIR FORCE

March of Time's latest issue entitled "Britain's R.A.F." brings to the screen an exclusive film story of the Royal Air Force, showing how the R.A.F. has been built up within the past year and how it is today the first line of defense in the Battle of Britain.

With actual scenes of battle, the film shows how the swift Spitfires and Hurricanes of the R.A.F. are daily fighting off the massed fleets of attacking Nazi bombers, and how Britain's own bombers are carrying the air-war back to the Nazi "invasion" bases on the French and Belgian channel coasts, and even into the heart of Germany itself.

March of Time is booked for current showing Sunday and Monday at the Palace Theatre in McAllen, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and at the Capitol Theatre in Brownsville, Thursday and Friday.

DEANNA DURBIN IN ROMANTIC FILM HIT

NOW AN ADULT actress and starred in her first grown-up role Deanna Durbin is seen in her latest picture "Spring Parade" which is currently showing Sunday and Monday at the Arcadia Theatre in Harlingen and scheduled for showing Tuesday and Wednesday at the State Theatre in Mercedes and at the Ritz Theatre in Weslaco Thursday and Friday.

"Spring Parade" presents Miss Durbin as a young village girl who goes to the city. In the metropolis, she meets and falls in love with Robert Cummings, a young blade, and the picture tells the progress of their love affair over a bumpy—and highly laugh-filled—road of complications.

Deanna sings (more beautifully than ever) four numbers—three of them from the pen of Robert Stolz, famous Viennese musician who composed, among others, the beautiful "Two Hearts in Three-Quarter Time." The fourth is "Blue Danube Dream." All four carry words by Gus Kahn, dean of American lyric writers.

In the large supporting cast are Mischa Auer, Henry Stephenson, Butch and Buddy, Anne Gwynne, Walter Catlett, S. Z. Sakall, Samuel S. Hinds, Ailyn Joslyn, Reginald Denny, Franklin Pangborn, Peggy Moran and others.

Direction is by Henry Koster, fifth picture in which he has guided Deanna. Joe Pasternak is the producer.
